OVER THE HILLS TO THE POOR HOUSE.

As Sung by the Pioneer Vocalist and Violinist, John Kelly.

What, no! it can't be that they have driven Their father, so helpless and old, (Oh, God! may their crime be forgiven), To perish out here in the cold.

Oh, Heavens! I am so sad and weary, See the tears how they course down my cheeks! Oh, this world, it is lonely and dreary, And my heart for relief vainly seeks.

For I'm old, and helpless and feeble, The days of my youth have gone by; Then over the hills to the poor house, I wander alone there to die.

Ah, me, on that old doorstep yonder, I've sat with my babes on my knee, No father was happier or fonder Than I of my little ones three.

The boys both so rosy and chubby, And Lily with prattle so sweet! God knows how their father has loved them, But they have driven him out in the street.

Oh, children! loved children! yet hear me, I have journeyed along on life's stage; With the hope that you all would be near me, To comfort and cheer my old age.

My life blood I'd gladly have given, To shield and protect you all; But to shield and protect you, I've had to drive Me out here to die in the dark.

But perhaps they'll live happier without me; Farewell, dear old home! ah! farewell, Well, pathway and tree here brought me, Some memento precious to me.

Well, the flowers will bloom bright as ever, And the birds sing as sweet in the morn; Then over the hill from the poor house, Next spring the old man shall be born.

Yakima Letter. YAKIMA CITY, W. T., Nov. 11, 1879.

EDITOR STATESMAN: - One more of the Perkins murderers has gone to the "happy hunting grounds." After ten days intense agony from the wounds received from the pistol of the jailor, two owners departed from the jail on yesterday evening. They attacked the jailor with a bludgeon, or war club, made out of a stone weighing about three pounds; the stone, it is said by the other prisoners, was furnished them by Moostain, the one that was released by the district attorney for the purpose of being a witness against the others; that fact, however, was not made known until after he had been released by the sheriff; had that been known by the people, it is extremely doubtful whether he would have been allowed to escape. Mr. York has suffered very greatly from the injuries received at the hands of these murderous red skins, but he is now improving, and he has the satisfaction to know that he got the best of the fight.

One of the Indians is now dead, and the other two are suffering greatly with broken arms, but if no bad luck happens they will last till the day of retribution. The sheriff has called for one hundred volunteers to preserve peace and quiet on the 22d.

We learn that Chief Moses is talking quite loudly again. Threats have been reported as coming from him which is very unbecoming in the mouth of a man who has been so long with the government. Our country is now beginning to settle up, but if the government continues the loose and ineffectual mode of conducting Indians in the manner it has been managed for the past few years, we have but little hopes of advancement; we are petitioning congress now for a post to be established here, but with what success is uncertain. YAKIMA.

UNLAWFUL - Under the present law the army officers detailed for special duty are allowed five cents per mile for traveling expenses. This allowance is uniform all over the country, and works a great hardship to the officers on this coast who have such duties to perform. The amount allowed by law may be ample to meet traveling expenses in the east, but on this coast, the railroad and stage fares are much higher than in the east, and whenever an officer is detailed for duty and has to travel by stage or other conveyance, the cost is greater than the sum allowed him. The stage travel throughout Eastern Oregon and Southern Oregon averages over ten cents per mile, and thus the officer is compelled to pay out of his own salary the deficiency. In the east the cost of travel does not reach the five cents per mile, and hence leaves, in many cases, a surplus. It is but justice to the officers of this coast that there be a change in this matter, and they be allowed at least their actual expenses. They have the hardest work to perform, and should be paid accordingly. We trust that our delegation in congress will see to this matter and demand that the officers on this coast be placed on an equal footing with those of the east. It is but just that they should be paid their actual traveling expenses, and with such an allowance they would be satisfied. - Standard.

CAPT. J. C. AINSWORTH yesterday received the good news that 125 miles of railroad iron had been purchased by Mr. Villard, and that the first shipment would be made on the 15th inst., which is intended for the construction of a road down the Columbia from Walla Walla to Celilo. We are further informed that it is the intention of the company to have the road completed in time for the fall trade of 1880. The magnitude of the trade in Eastern Oregon and Washington territory has necessitated this step, and it is impossible for the company to rely on the river to move the great amount of freight, and while they have a fleet of steamers amply sufficient to do the business, the uncertain stage of the river makes it unreliable and dangerous, and subjects the company to great loss. This is indeed good news. The people of Eastern Oregon have been "bottled up" for years, and the O. S. N. Company have been their dictators and their controllers. This will at least open the upper river to the shippers of that country and give the people east of the Cascades competition in transportation to the gate of the Columbia.

STOLEN HORSES CAPTURED. - A letter from John I. Galbraith & Bro., dated Kootenay, B. C., October 15th, 1879, has the following: Nineteen (19) of the horses stolen by the Yakima Indians from the settlers of Palouse, Pine Grove and Spokane, are now on Tobacco plains; having been taken by Looking Glass" from those Indians, east of the mountains, where they were taking them to trade to the Blackfeet. Looking Glass has promised the government agent at Kootenay, to hand him over the horses, and if he does so, the agent will send them to Spokane to Gen. Wheaton. Mr. Cosselman has not yet returned from Madras but is expected daily.

GOVERNOR TILDEN is not at all dismayed over Robinson's defeat, and still holds his grip on the democratic organization, and insists that he can carry New York, both in the next national convention, and at the election. He will not give up the contest readily, and thinks there will be no bolt in the presidential election.

The government is trying to imagine the cause for the Ute outbreak. The government is blind, intentionally blind, or it would at once turn its eye upon the Indian race, a combination of heartless thieves who rob the savages of their lands and their food, and who are responsible for every Indian outbreak.

Diversities.

"Many a Nellie G." has been written for Mrs. Sartorius. The proper place for boys to play leap-frog is on the back stoop.

The wife of a Philadelphian who had his life heavily insured set his death down to profit and loss. When we look west we feel that we would like to see an Indian fall instead of an Indian summer.

Women and divorce lawyers believe marriage notices the most interesting matter in a daily paper. "The family man" resembles an oyster on the half shell. The shell is known at home - the soft side abroad.

No matter how often a young lady's hat is lost, it is almost certain to turn up - either behind or at the side. Hoops are coming into fashion again. Hoops are things to be put around women to keep them from bursting with vanity.

"Say, Johnny, what time is it?" "Eleven o'clock and three laps." And then Johnny got one lap - with a slipper. A man has been on the Baltimore police twenty-two years, and never caught anything but a cold. And really, that caught him.

Customer to proprietor of hat store: "What is the price of this style, please?" Hatter: "This tile, sir, is worth four dollars?"

"Will the coming man walk? If he will he is likely to be murdered in cold blood on the first lap, amid the cheers of the entire country. An inquisitive young lady asks: "What is the most popular color for the bride?" If we were going to marry, we should prefer a white one.

A paper in the neighborhood of Rochester advertises a church pew for sale, "commanding a beautiful view of nearly all the whole congregation." Pious old lady: "Just think, Rose, only five missionaries to twenty thousand cannibals!" Kind-hearted niece: "Goodness! the poor cannibals will starve to death at that rate."

It is said that there is no big D's, or no swear words in the Sioux tongue. When a Sioux gets mad he just yells "Heap dan!" rushes out and relieves his feelings by scalping a pale-face. "There is nothing like setting down," said a retired merchant confidentially to his neighbor. "When I gave up business I settled down and found I had quite a comfortable fortune. If I had settled up, I should have had a cent."

Grace Greenwood relates as an instance of the extravagance of New England humor, that when a young farmer's wife made her first boy's pants precisely as simple before as behind, the farmer exclaimed: "Godness, he won't know whether he is going to school or coming home!"

Snipkins refused to get his wife a new hat; soon after his little girl came in and said: "Mamma, won't you buy me a monkey to play with when you go down town?" "No, darling, wait till you are older, and then marry one, as I did," replied the grief-stricken wife, her tears bursting forth afresh.

A belated husband, hunting in the dark for a match with which to light the gas, and audibly expressing his disappointment, was rendered insane in an instant by his wife suggesting in a sleepy voice that he had better light one and look for them, and not go stumbling around in the dark, breaking things.

"Sarah," this going out incessantly I cannot have, next Sunday you must stay at home all day." "But, mamma, I have promised my aunt to spend the afternoon with her." "Sunny interceding: "Do let her go, mamma; her aunt has been made a sergeant, and has got a new coat with stripes on it, and a great long sword."

The other night, at a club, some Americans were boasting about their inventions of the wonderful machines to be found in "the states." One of them told of the well-known mining-machine which, a live pig being introduced at one end, turned out the animal in sausages at the other end. An Irishman, who was not going to have the Yankees riding roughshod over every other nation, turned on them, and said promptly: "B-dad, we've got the same machine in Ireland, only ours is more perfect and far more satisfactory, sure, for if you don't like the sausages, you can put them back into the machine, and by reversing the action they'll come out live pigs again where he went in."

A recently made benedict writes as follows concerning his wife's habits: "If there was a bedroom a mile long, and her entire wardrobe could be packed in a landbox, still you'd find a portion of that wardrobe scattered along the whole mile of dressing-room. She's a nice thing to look at when put together, but this wonderful creature is evolved from a chaos interminable of pins, ribbons, rags, powder, thread, brushes, combs and laces. If there were seven thousand drawers in your room, and you asked for but one to be kept sacred and inviolate for your own private use, that particular one would be full of hair-pins, ribbons, and soiled cuffs. Some provision, some protection in this matter, should be inserted in the marriage service."

A young gentleman and his blushing bride, who were recently married in Philadelphia, called the next week at an apartment house and were shown the flat that was to let by the loquacious person who officiates as janitor. This estimable woman, who would appear to be a good motherly soul, went on to illustrate how healthy the house happened to be. "There was Mrs. —, on the first floor; she came here a bride and went away with three children, as pretty little things as ever I saw, mem. And there was Mrs. —, the second, who had a little son born to her here, mem, and fourteen months after a little daughter. — And, mem, Mrs. —, the third floor, she was a bride, too, mem, and it was twins, mem, within a year. — If you please, mem, I'm the mother of four of the darlings!" "Thanks," said the bridegroom, from whom I gleaned this interesting anecdote; "after all, I think it would be better to get a little further up town. And he led the bride - "blushing again" - into the open air and out of the healthy neighborhood.

The government is trying to imagine the cause for the Ute outbreak. The government is blind, intentionally blind, or it would at once turn its eye upon the Indian race, a combination of heartless thieves who rob the savages of their lands and their food, and who are responsible for every Indian outbreak.

The official Reclamation was to-day safely passed. The council having confirmed the entire list of officers nominated by the governor, and while this was the most important proceeding of the day to the immediate parties interested, the "apportionment bill," as it has finally passed both houses, is a matter of infinitely superior moment to the people throughout the territory. I therefore give it to you at large.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its approval by the governor. FORTUNE FAVORS THE BRAVE. - During our absence below we had the pleasure of meeting many young friends with whom in the late Indian wars, CHERRY Y INDIANS. A strong active girl to assist in the care of small family. Apply at the STATESMAN OFFICE.

WATER. A strong active girl to assist in the care of small family. Apply at the STATESMAN OFFICE.

PICTURES. A fine and large stock of pictures are now on exhibition at the Art Gallery.

THE RACE. Today the attractions at the race track will be immense. It will be the largest race of the season between the best crabs of the country.

SHIRTS. We have to acknowledge the receipt from our kind friends Mrs. J. F. Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. A. Reeves Ayres the handsome presents of a silver and glass pickle stand and a magnificent silver fruit basket.

RECEPTION. On Tuesday last some 3000 people met at the bridge of Frank Orrell's covered wagon and stole a sack which was supposed to contain money. The deed carried its own retribution with it as the sack was filled with bouquets.

SEE HERE. John Maguire arrived here with six troops of Pin (be) fores, and, judging from the jammed houses he is receiving tonight, he will find a fortune ere long. Success attend you long time and know what they want.

CONVENTION. In our last issue in connection with our notice of the Unmulla House we said that it was furnished by Messrs. Schindler & Co. of Portland, we apologize to the Unmulla Furniture Company for our mistake as the hotel was furnished by them.

POPULAR LECTURES. Dr. J. Simms, the eminent reader of character, is delivering a course of lectures at the City H. H. and will continue as follows: To-night (Saturday) on the human face. Monday night his closing lecture will be on love, marriage and matrimony. All should hear these valuable lectures.

SISTERS FAIR. The Sisters here wish to inform the people that the fair, in aid of St. Mary's Hospital, will open on the 1st of December, and will continue five successive evenings in the City Hall. All who intend to patronize the fair are requested, as a favor, not to wait, if possible, till the last evening so that the fair may not be protracted beyond the specified time.

MERCHANTS EXCHANGE. The establishment and success of the Merchants Exchange at Portland is very significant as showing the superiority of that city over every other town on the northwest coast. The Exchange was established by Col. Farish and was a success from its inception. The room is one of the largest in the city and is literally lined with newspapers from all parts of the civilized world. Any respectable trader or merchant from the upper country who is desirous of visiting this institution will give a card of allusion by applying at the STATESMAN OFFICE.

H. M. S. LINDVOLD. A comic opera of the brightest kind of music composed by Arthur Sullivan, promises to draw full houses for the City Theatre for just so long a time as the manager chooses to produce it. The music is said to be the finest of the kind, and is well fitted to the stage and is very creditably rendered by a powerful company. It occurred to us in the representation we witnessed, that the theatre was permitted to overshadow the music; we like under the impression that music is the soul of opera, comic or otherwise, that the object of the theatre is to give expression and emotion to the music, and that the orchestra is present to assist in producing an effective impression. The songs and parts allotted to the various artists of the troupe were executed with marked ability and were frequently rewarded with long and loud applause.

THE RACES. Contrary to expectation the weather last Saturday turned out to be good; in consequence Mr. Thos. Collins, the energetic proprietor of the race track determined that the trotting match between "Glasford," "Black Boss," "Bell Foster" and "Billy Leap" should come off. The track was well attended by our racing men and many prominent citizens. Great excitement prevailed at the stand. "Glasford" was the favorite at first, but after the first heat, which was won by "Black Boss," the track was won by "Billy Leap" in three straight heats. Time, 2:31; 2:31; 2:29.

MUSIC BATH CHAIRS. After an absence of sixteen years, John Kelly, the California pianist and gifted violinist gave one of his formidable vocal and instrumental entertainments at the City Hall on Monday evening last, and a crowd of lions fully attested that the fame of his achievements had long preceded his arrival, while the frequent and long continued applause with which he was greeted on his appearance testified to the kindly feelings with which he is regarded by the people of this city, and to the fact that his hand has lost none of its old-time cunning. The entertainment was a feast for the soul, as it must necessarily be when the performer thinks and speaks to the hearts of his hearers. We regret that the gifted Professor will perform again in our city to accommodate the many lovers of good music and the great number who were unable to gain admission on the last occasion.

ANOTHER DARING ROBBERY. It is very evident that the thieves of our city can carry on their depredations with impunity, and escape the consequences of their misdeeds for all the efforts that is made to stop them. Our guardians of the peace act as though they think that molesting these bold robbers is interfering with the liberty of the subject, and fear to arrest them for fear of being indicted themselves. On Monday night last, some of them entered the gunshop of our worthy citizen, C. Schumacher, by means of the skylight; they first removed a pane of glass and used a rope to facilitate their descent. Although spring guns were set, the thief or thieves knew it so well that they avoided them by stepping over them, and they took themselves to all they wanted. They took twenty-five new revolvers, and eight or ten dollars in silver; after this "clean up," they unfastened the back door and quietly walked away. Mr. Schumacher was expecting this robbery for some time, and set his traps for them; he knew his parties were proceeding around for a chance and was ready for them, and had intended to change the position of his spring guns, but neglected to do so. Next day he laid information and told the known to the parties, but for some reason or other, after they were arrested, they were merely telegraphed to Wainwright and Dayton to search the men. If our officers and Dayton to search in a thorough manner without fear or favor, the best thing they can do is to resign in favor of some one else.

HAPPY HEARS. The wedding at St. Paul's church on Thursday night was probably the grandest affair that ever occurred in Walla Walla, which is fast attaining a celebrity for the style and taste in which our weddings are gotten up. At an early hour the church was filled with the most fashionable ladies of the city, so much so that the gentlemen had to stand. At the appointed time the bridal party, consisting of the high contracting parties, Lieutenant W. H. Miller, of the 1st cavalry, and Miss Annie Abbott; the father and mother of the bride; our handsome, manly friend Lieutenant F. Edwards and Miss Sweeney made their appearance. The groom was dressed in full uniform as was his right hand man. The bride wore a peach blossom silk dress, en Princesse, panier basque; head dress of orange blossoms and lilies of the valley, and was enveloped in a bridal veil; as she walked up the aisle, leaning on the arm of her father, she looked one of the fairest of the daughters of Eve. The bridesmaid was dressed in the purest white, and looked perfectly beaming. The groom's eye beamed with joy and he was proud of his conquest of one of the fairest of Walla Walla's daughters. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the house of the bride's parents and were visited by most of the principal citizens with their wives and daughters. The military were in full force and in full uniform; all who were not on duty at the fort were present, beside many others who are here in attendance on military business. The presents were numerous and costly, and comprised everything useful and ornamental; from the nearest relatives of the groom came a silver gift card case, tea, table, cream, sugar spoons, and jewel case; General and Mrs. Forsythe, very handsome silver jolly bowl and spoon; Lieutenant and Mrs. Knox, set silver forks; Mr. and Mrs. A. Reeves Ayres, set silver spoons; Mr. and Mrs. P. Johnson, set silver spoons; W. R. Hall, U. S. A., dessert set; Mrs. J. F. Boyer, silver card tray; Lieut. and Mrs. Upham, silver punch bowl; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Small, silver pitcher; C. S. Boyer, castor stand; Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Reynolds, two picture frames; W. V. Hubbard, better dish; officers 1st cavalry, silver tea set; W. McAllister, French clock; Mrs. Shelton, cake basket; Dr. Town, silver extra pitcher and pickle jar; Dr. and Mrs. Manning, pair silver goblets; Mrs. Whitman, pair napkin rings; Capt. and Mrs. Harris, berry spoon; Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, cake bell; Capt. Fosse, silver pie spoon; Mrs. Quinn, soup ladle; Lieut. F. Edwards, set silver tea spoons; Miss M. Putnam, pair vases; Mrs. J. P. Abbott, double silver spoon holder; Mrs. Putnam, fruit dish; Mr. Kirkman, china tea set; Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg, bronze inkstand; Lieut. and Mrs. Boutelle, gilt inkstand and candlesticks; Dr. Nichols, set, table knives; Mrs. H. Keweenaw, writing case; Miss Lizzie Clarke and Annie Hill, Dore's illustrations of Tennessee; Rev. Dr. Wells, prayer book; Mayor and Mrs. Keeler, pair vases; Lieut. and Mrs. Woodworth, tea pot; Lieut. W. H. Miller, gold cane set; Capt. and Mrs. Auliff, clock; Dr. Day, looking glass and box perfume.

THE MAGUIRE TROUPE. During the stay of the company in the city, Mr. Maguire will produce all the latest novelties, both dramatic and operatic. Among the dramatic productions will be produced the great comedy in five acts, by Bronson Howard, entitled "Sarotoga," which had a run of over 200 nights at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, New York. The "Celebrated Case," which is the most powerful drama ever presented to the public will, we are informed, be put on the stage in a most superior style. The burlesque of "Pocahontas" and other first-class novelties are ready, and we are assured that they will eclipse anything ever presented here. Mr. Maguire has brought the scenery from the New Market Theatre for every piece to be produced. Judging by the superior manner "Pinafore" was presented we anticipate a treat of no ordinary character in what is to come. Mr. Maguire is at a very heavy expense, and if he is satisfied with the present engagement he intends to frequently visit Walla Walla in the future, bringing always the very best attractions. Portland gives him the credit of being the most enterprising manager that ever controlled a theatre in that city, and it is to be hoped that our citizens will appreciate his coming to Walla Walla with so large and talented a company, by giving him large houses during his present engagement.

COURT MARTIAL. The court martial ordered to convene at Fort Walla Walla for the trial of Captain Aaron S. Daggett, Captain Charles Keller and 2d Lieutenant William F. Turner, 2d U. S. Infantry, met at 10 a. m. on Thursday, Nov. 20th, with the following officers as members of the court: Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander Chambers, 2d Infantry, president; Lieutenant-Colonel James W. Forsyth, 1st cavalry; Major Francis W. Saville, chief quartermaster; Major William M. Graham, 4th artillery; Captain Thomas McGregor, 1st cavalry; Captain Moses Harris, 1st cavalry; First Lieutenant Fred H. E. Elstein, 2d Infantry, Judge Advocate of the court; Major Throckmorton, 4th artillery, is on his way to take the place of Major Patrick Collins, deceased; John W. Cochran, stenographer of the court.

CIRCUMSTANCES may require us to give up many of the burlesques, and even the comedies to which we have been accustomed; but there can be no excuse for not providing ourselves and those dependent on us with a remedy for those insidious attacks of disease to which all are liable. Fress's Compound Tea not only cures many diseases, but is excellent as a preventative in malarious and other derangements of the system.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE. By a notice in our columns it will be seen that the Walla Walla county's Institute will convene at Watsburg, December 3d. It is the duty of all teachers to attend. The people of Watsburg have kindly offered to entertain teachers free, so there is no excuse left for non-attendance.

A PRESENT. We have a friend in Boise City called Bill Nye, who occasionally remembers us by sending us such things as a box of prime cigars. This time he changed his programme and has our most effusive thanks for a handsome china vase containing an allegory of the dim future.

FESTIVAL. A festival will be given by the ladies of the M. E. Church (South) at the corners of Fourth and Sumach streets on Thursday evening, Nov. 28. Lunch and supper at 10 a. m. the day following. Admission free, including supper, 50 cents. The same is for the benefit of the church.

YOU won't need a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner if you buy a pair of those celebrated gloves bearing the brand Mills, Leak & Co., for sale at Adams Bros., because you will be happy without it.

FEW AHEAD. It is reported that as soon as the Pinafore troupe has completed its engagement here, an amateur peleanian exhibition will be given by some of our male and female walkists.

BALLOON ASCENSION. On Sunday, Nov. 30th, for the first time in our history a balloon ascension will take place at the Fair Grounds. With a grim grin of humor the balloons announced a valiantly by force going up.

SPOTT & FELDMAN have just received the largest and finest stock of crockery, China ware, vases, fancy lamps, Christmas and New Year presents that were ever shipped to this country.

THE handsome complexion of Walla Walla's many beautiful ladies is due to the fact that Pluider's Oregon Blood Purifier is sought roundly in every household.

DUSENBERY BROS. have winter suits at all prices.

AN OVERSIGHT. By an oversight the advertisement of Mrs. Jesse Cameron Ayres when first inserted was left unnoticed. Our lady readers will please refer to her card in another column. Mrs. Ayres comes highly recommended as a first class article.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

A FURNISHING BUSINESS. The amount of furniture sold at the sales-room of Evertz & Abel, opposite the St. Louis Hotel, is really amazing; on a single day, tons from all parts of the country were ordered, and loading up-furniture for the country, while trucks and drays are kept busy delivering to city customers. The reason is they always keep such a stock that everybody is suited at bottom prices.

TEX SALOON. This fashionable resort is one of the nicest saloons in the city. Superintendent Jerome takes pleasure in waiting on and supplying his customers with the best liquors and cigars. Tex himself is our beau ideal of a jolly host and his popularity is to be envied.

SAN FRANCISCO RESTAURANT. The excellent meals which are supplied to the public at this famous restaurant fully accords with the city's great popularity. Strangers visiting the city should give it the first call. No trouble or expense is spared to obtain the best articles of food in the country. The same old prices, three meals for one dollar.

THE GUN SALOON. The cool weather induces many of our citizens to visit the city, Ed. Williams' Gun Saloon is crowded, and Mayor Domo, the celebrated Charlie Abrahams, is smiling as a basket of chips. The success of Ed is owing to the fact that he serves up nothing but the best cigars and liquors, including the J. H. Outer whiskey. The best billiard tables in town.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

ADVANCING IN YEARS, SICKNESS, CARE, Disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. Ayer's Hair Vigor, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth; and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus, healthy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stabilized; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hairs resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmonious. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clear and healthy. Under conditions, diseases of the scalp are impossible. As a dressing for ladies' hair, the Vigor is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft texture and richness of tone it imparts.

AGRICULTURAL MACHINERY!

THE CELEBRATED BAIN WAGONS.

The Leading Wagon of the United States and the Best Wagon Made.

The great and constantly increasing popularity of the Bain Wagon is due to the extra care taken in selecting material, the thorough seasoning of all the wood before using, the rigid inspection to which the work is subjected at its various stages, the employment of nothing but the best skilled free labor, (no convict labor being used), in discarding piece work and paying mechanics by the day, thus insuring honest work and producing a wagon which for strength, durability, and lightness of draft, is unequalled by any other wagon made.

THE CELEBRATED EUREKA GANG PLOW

Has won itself the first place over all opposition; has been successful in more plowing contests, and has met with a more extensive sale than any Gang Plow ever invented.

Its success is due largely to its thorough construction, its heavy wrought iron beams, strong frame, and wheels that enable it to stand a heavy pull. Its Double Lever and Land Gauge makes it the plow for general work and hillside, slip share, employing but one bolt with a big slot to fasten it on is easily got at, and has proven highly satisfactory.

SULKIES.

We have a large stock of both Evans and Garden City Sulkies that must be sold. They are too well known to need further description.

WALKING PLOWS.

The Western Queen still has the lead for breaking sod, and as a turf and stable plow the Scotch Cipper is the best ever brought to this market, and never fails to give satisfaction.

Our Moline and Garden City Stubble Plows have long been the favorites, and we have some improved styles this season.

BROAD CAST SEEDERS.

The MONITOR has an adjustable force-feed; sows all kinds of grain with equal regularity and exactness; never chokes or clogs. We still continue to carry a stock of the SUPERIOR Seeder, which is first class in every respect.

THE MONITOR AND SUPERIOR DRILLS.

Both the MONITOR and SUPERIOR are especial favorites with the farmer who cultivates highly.

HARROWS.

LaDow's Jointed Pulverizer and Bayless' Patent Wheel Harrows, both of Steel Discs and improved pattern, are working their way through the land at an astonishing rate. We have recently reduced the price on Bradley's Reversible Harrow, Scotch and Moline Harrows always on hand.

"Mansfield" Portable and Stationary Steam Engines.

These Engines combine lightness with ample power, and economy of fuel and water in the greatest degree, being the only Portable Engine manufactured in the United States having Steam Jacket and Balance Valve. For mechanical construction, accessibility of all its parts, regularity of speed and thorough workmanship, THIS ENGINE HAS NO RIVAL IN THE WORLD.

THE NEW ECONOMIZER ENGINE.

In Agricultural Engines which require frequent removals, it becomes an object of great importance to have as little weight as possible to transport, and yet have the material of sufficient strength, and put together with skill to withstand the hardships to which they are subject, and especially the Thruster's Engine, which is probably subjected to more abuses than almost any other class of engine, as they are moved very often and over all kinds of roads. In these respects the manufacturers of this Engine have taken great pains to build an engine and boiler that will stand the test for years. We invite competition with those of other makers.
