

The Washington Statesman
Published every Saturday morning—Publication Office, Third Street, next door to Brown Bros & Co. a fire-proof book store, Walla Walla.

WASHINGTON STATESMAN
BOOK, CARD, AND JOB PRINTING OFFICE
Main street, Walla Walla, W. T.

THIBODO & BROTHERS,
Physicians, Surgeons and Midwives.
OFFICE and RESIDENCE Main Street, four doors above the Jail.

W. PHILLIPS,
HAS ON HAND a large and well selected stock of TIN WARE, manufactured under his supervision by experienced workmen.

EDWARD NUGENT,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, Walla Walla, W. T.
OFFICE, over the Bank Exchange Saloon.

WHAT CHEER HOUSE,
FROST STREET, Portland, Oregon—M. O'Connor proprietor.

F. A. CHENOWETH,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW.
OFFICE over the "Bank Exchange," next door to Cain & Nugent's office, Walla Walla.

A. J. CAIN,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW.
OFFICE with County Surveyor, north side of the creek, Walla Walla.

JOHN R. FOSTER & CO.,
Importers and Dealers in Foreign and Domestic HARDWARE, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, Mechanics' and Miners' Tools.

H. H. BLACK,
DENTIST,
Office and Laboratory,
No. 10 1/2 Commercial Street, Portland, Oregon.

GEORGE SAVAGE,
Practical Watchmaker and Jeweler,
FROM Montreal, Canada East, has commenced business in Walla Walla, next door to Mooman & Co's Express Office.

WALTER W. JOHNSON,
COUNTY SURVEYOR,
Civil Engineer and Notary Public.

HOWARD HOUSE,
FRONT STREET,
Near the Ocean Steamship Landing,
Portland, Oregon.

BRIDGES & SON,
Attorneys at Law, Walla Walla, W. T.
WILL ATTEND FAITHFULLY and PROMPTLY to Collections, and will attend the Courts in Washington Territory and Oregon.

DR. ROATMAN,
Physician and Surgeon.
LATE POST SURGEON at Fort Walla Walla.
Office at Frank's Hotel, corner of Main and Third streets. (Prac. 20, 1862.)

WALLA WALLA DRUG STORE,
JUST received at the Walla Walla Drug Store an extensive assortment of BOOT AND SHOE SHOP!

M. G. George, Highgate respectfully announces to the citizens of Walla Walla that he is prepared to make

HUMASON & ODELL,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW,
DALLAS, TEXAS.

J. W. COOK,
MANUFACTURER and Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Tents, Awnings, Wagon Covers, Collings and Sacks, Portland, Oregon.

HENRY LAW,
Import and dealer in Eastern Wagon Timber, Hubs, Spokes, Pattens, &c.

City Brewery and Bakery,
E. MEYER, Manufacturer and Wholesale and Retail Dealer in Lager Beer, Bread, Butter, Wax, Cakes, &c.

Regular Line of Stages
WALLULA!
A BROTHER'S REGULAR LINE OF STAGES leave this city regularly for Walla Walla on the arrival of the Walla Walla stage.

Millinery and Fancy Goods!
THE undersigned would respectfully call the attention of the ladies to the new stock of Walla Walla Millinery and Fancy Goods.

FANCY ARTICLES,
Ladies' and Gentlemen's Zephyr and Cochonard Goods; Ladies' Corsets; Gentlemen's Children's dresses, &c.

DRESS MAKING and Machine-sewing,
Stone on Main street, opposite the Union Hotel.
MRS. S. J. SEAMAN.

Notice to Druggists,
WE have on hand and are constantly receiving the finest qualities of

TOWN LOTS FOR SALE!
In Cain's Addition to the City of Walla Walla.
Title good, and Terms easy.

DENNISON HOUSE,
(Formerly Metropolis Hotel.)
CORNER OF FRONT AND STARK STS.
Portland, Oregon.

THE HOTEL IS NOW OPEN FOR THE REGULAR LINE OF STAGES, and will be conducted in all respects as a First Class Hotel.
KINNEY & QUINN.

COLUMBIAN HOTEL,
Corner of Front and Washington Streets,
PORTLAND, OREGON.

FIRST CLASS HOUSE, in the very center of business, convenient to the various approaches to the City, and in the immediate vicinity of all the River and Ocean Steam Landings.

CHALLENGE SALOON,
STONE & BALL, PROPRIETORS.

WINE, LIQUORS, AND CIGARS,
Pure and unadulterated Wines and Brandy, of a superior quality, for medicinal purposes.

Combination Billiard Tables,
We shall spare no pains to make the CHALLENGE Saloon, STONE & BALL, 117

Watch Repairing,
THE subscriber would inform the citizens of Walla Walla, and vicinity that he has just received a new stock of watches, and is prepared to receive their personal attention.

The Bachelor's Advice,
If determined to marry, why let it be. But first tarry a moment and listen to me.

Division of the Territory,
It has been pretty well understood in Olympia for the past month, that a scheme had been concocted by a few officials and citizens of Olympia during the last summer.

A Greek Revoltion,
The King of Greece has retired from business, not by his own choice. He and his Queen left Athens for a short tour in the country.

The Last Days of Queen Elizabeth,
Queen Elizabeth dies, and dies of grief. It has been the fashion to attribute to her—

The "Prairie Motor,"
Where is the Steam Wagon? Will the Nebraska City News put us? We Peakers are getting anxious to see it.—Rocky Mountain News.

General Banks was born at Waltham, Massachusetts, on the 30th January, 1861. His parents were poor operatives who worked in the mills.

At the close of Mr. Bank's term in Congress he withdrew from public life, and after spending some time in retirement at Waltham, accepted the post of Superintendent of the Illinois Central Railway.

Illinois stands out prominent as the nativity of the officials here, and a representative of Illinois suddenly appears solicitous for the welfare of this region.

The London Star says of the President's proclamation: "It is indubitably the great feat of the war—the turning point in the history of American civilization—

The London Illustrated News says of it: "The tone of this Proclamation, the circumstances under which it was issued, the conditions upon which it was to take effect, and the party views which it is understood to represent, compel us to regard it as an instrument of far-reaching importance."

One of the most remarkable circumstances attending the fortunes of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was the tranquility in which their after lives were passed, and the late period to which they were protracted.

Most of the signers of the declaration of American independence lived to a good old age, crowned with civil honors bestowed by the gratitude of the republic, and some of them perished by mere decay of the powers of nature.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract. Nor do those about answer to specifications, in many important respects.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

THE MONITORS.—The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

General Banks was born at Waltham, Massachusetts, on the 30th January, 1861. His parents were poor operatives who worked in the mills.

At the close of Mr. Bank's term in Congress he withdrew from public life, and after spending some time in retirement at Waltham, accepted the post of Superintendent of the Illinois Central Railway.

Illinois stands out prominent as the nativity of the officials here, and a representative of Illinois suddenly appears solicitous for the welfare of this region.

The London Star says of the President's proclamation: "It is indubitably the great feat of the war—the turning point in the history of American civilization—

The London Illustrated News says of it: "The tone of this Proclamation, the circumstances under which it was issued, the conditions upon which it was to take effect, and the party views which it is understood to represent, compel us to regard it as an instrument of far-reaching importance."

One of the most remarkable circumstances attending the fortunes of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was the tranquility in which their after lives were passed, and the late period to which they were protracted.

Most of the signers of the declaration of American independence lived to a good old age, crowned with civil honors bestowed by the gratitude of the republic, and some of them perished by mere decay of the powers of nature.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

General Banks was born at Waltham, Massachusetts, on the 30th January, 1861. His parents were poor operatives who worked in the mills.

At the close of Mr. Bank's term in Congress he withdrew from public life, and after spending some time in retirement at Waltham, accepted the post of Superintendent of the Illinois Central Railway.

Illinois stands out prominent as the nativity of the officials here, and a representative of Illinois suddenly appears solicitous for the welfare of this region.

The London Star says of the President's proclamation: "It is indubitably the great feat of the war—the turning point in the history of American civilization—

The London Illustrated News says of it: "The tone of this Proclamation, the circumstances under which it was issued, the conditions upon which it was to take effect, and the party views which it is understood to represent, compel us to regard it as an instrument of far-reaching importance."

One of the most remarkable circumstances attending the fortunes of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was the tranquility in which their after lives were passed, and the late period to which they were protracted.

Most of the signers of the declaration of American independence lived to a good old age, crowned with civil honors bestowed by the gratitude of the republic, and some of them perished by mere decay of the powers of nature.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

General Banks was born at Waltham, Massachusetts, on the 30th January, 1861. His parents were poor operatives who worked in the mills.

At the close of Mr. Bank's term in Congress he withdrew from public life, and after spending some time in retirement at Waltham, accepted the post of Superintendent of the Illinois Central Railway.

Illinois stands out prominent as the nativity of the officials here, and a representative of Illinois suddenly appears solicitous for the welfare of this region.

The London Star says of the President's proclamation: "It is indubitably the great feat of the war—the turning point in the history of American civilization—

The London Illustrated News says of it: "The tone of this Proclamation, the circumstances under which it was issued, the conditions upon which it was to take effect, and the party views which it is understood to represent, compel us to regard it as an instrument of far-reaching importance."

One of the most remarkable circumstances attending the fortunes of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was the tranquility in which their after lives were passed, and the late period to which they were protracted.

Most of the signers of the declaration of American independence lived to a good old age, crowned with civil honors bestowed by the gratitude of the republic, and some of them perished by mere decay of the powers of nature.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

General Banks was born at Waltham, Massachusetts, on the 30th January, 1861. His parents were poor operatives who worked in the mills.

At the close of Mr. Bank's term in Congress he withdrew from public life, and after spending some time in retirement at Waltham, accepted the post of Superintendent of the Illinois Central Railway.

Illinois stands out prominent as the nativity of the officials here, and a representative of Illinois suddenly appears solicitous for the welfare of this region.

The London Star says of the President's proclamation: "It is indubitably the great feat of the war—the turning point in the history of American civilization—

The London Illustrated News says of it: "The tone of this Proclamation, the circumstances under which it was issued, the conditions upon which it was to take effect, and the party views which it is understood to represent, compel us to regard it as an instrument of far-reaching importance."

One of the most remarkable circumstances attending the fortunes of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was the tranquility in which their after lives were passed, and the late period to which they were protracted.

Most of the signers of the declaration of American independence lived to a good old age, crowned with civil honors bestowed by the gratitude of the republic, and some of them perished by mere decay of the powers of nature.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

The new Monitor is not up to time. They should all have been off long ago, according to contract.

Militar Correspondence.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 31st, 1862.

I gave you in my last some intimations of the existence of an organized band of conspirators in this delectable town, and of their secret efforts to effect a division of the Territory. Since that writing, I have become fully convinced of this fact; and from what I have learned of the advances made in this direction, from different sources, I here give it as my opinion that the chances are at least even for a division of the Territory at the present session of Congress...

The Coville Mines.

These mines, which have for the past few years been regarded as of little consequence or worth, seem to be becoming more worthy of consideration. On the Columbia river especially, from Fort Okanagan to the mouth of the Pen d'Oreille, miners have been doing remarkably well the past season. It will be remembered by the early miners of that country that it was thought after the top dirt had been skimmed off, and contrary to this theory was the formation of all other mines, men have worked there until the past season in this belief...

Emancipation Proclamation.

By the President of the United States, 1862. WHEREAS, On the 22d day of September, 1862, a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing among other things the following—to wit: That on the 1st day of January, 1863, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall be in rebellion against the United States, shall, henceforth and forever, be free, and the Executive Government of the United States, including the Military and Naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or act to oppress such persons, or any of them, in any effort they may make for their actual freedom...

Another Dodge.

The Lewiston cliquetags represent, in their memorial to Congress, praying for a division of the Territory, that the counties east of the Cascades have "much more than one-half of the entire population of the Territory, and but one fifth of the representation, there being but seven members of the house and three councilmen to represent us in the Legislature."

True to the letter; but if all the representatives elected had gone, like honorable men and taken their seats in the Legislature, the upper counties would have had just one third of the representation in that body.

THE PROTEST.

The following is a copy of the protest drawn up by members of the Legislature and forwarded to Washington:

OLYMPIA, Tery Washington, Dec. 25, 1862. To the Hon. Chairman of the Committee on Territories in the Senate and House of Representatives in Congress of U. S.

WHEREAS, we learn through the Oregonian, that the question of dividing this Territory is agitated in Congress, we the undersigned members of the Legislature Assembly, hereby protest against it, as it is in opposition to the wishes of the people, and the population will not justify it; the last vote being 6164.

MEMBERS OF ASSEMBLY: J. D. Potter, A. B. Andrews, H. M. Chase, Samuel D. Smith, T. M. Reed, James Leab, Ferguson, J. Foster, N. Northrup, Allan Briggs, B. R. Stone, James A. Orr, Jos. J. Fisher, W. W. Humington, J. T. Bagley, W. T. Weed.

MEMBERS OF COUNCIL: John A. Simms, R. Bledsoe, J. M. Siro, Paul R. Hubbs, J. M. Reed, Hiram Cochran.

A POLY.—The town of Lewiston boasts of one of those specimens of "refined insanity" who writes poetry. The following is a sample of his grinding, taken from the Carriers Address to the patrons of the Age:

"The Nez Perces wrote, in angry words Through the Indian Agents, generally, Tale-fact man, must leave our country, This is an Indian Reservation."

LEGISLATIVE.—A report reaches us through the Portland papers that there is a prospect of the removal of the Capital from Olympia to Vancouver; also that the Legislature has passed a law making it a punishable offense with six months imprisonment to any one convicted of having greenbacks.

HEARD OF REFORM.—A Universalist paper bearing the above title has lately been established at Eugene city.

PORTLAND CORRESPONDENCE.

PORTLAND, Jan. 11th, 1862.

ED. STATESMAN.—I had hoped that the title of "Regular" would have made me more attentive to the duties of a correspondent, and prevented me from omitting to write last week's but for reasons which are not interesting to the public it was neglected. Prefacing this letter, thus, and assuring your readers that they may depend upon my regularity hereafter—if they take any interest in what I write them—I shall plunge into the middle of things giving you an account of the HORRIBLE MURDER OF R. F. KENDALL.

The circumstances attending the difficulty between the elder Howe and Kendall may not be familiar to your readers, and I will recount them to give a proper appreciation of what followed: Some time during the month of October or November some person attempted to fire the buildings of the Puget Sound Agricultural Company, in Lewis county. This offense was laid at the door of Horace Howe, by Kendall, in language more pointed than eloquent. On the 20th December Howe went to Olympia, attended by Kendall with an ex-goad, and was shot, Kendall was plainly wrong in his statement about Howe. Howe was wrong in attacking Kendall, without asking for satisfaction, and Kendall acted in self-defense in shooting him. The balance of the awful affair is best told in the language of the Olympia correspondent of the Oregonian:

OLYMPIA, Jan. 7, 1862. A sad and lamentable death took place in our town to-day, resulting in the death of R. F. Kendall, Esq., editor of the Oregonian. It is the regret of all who were present at the funeral, that the cause of the fatal result was not ascertained. It is believed that the fatal result was the result of a quarrel between the two gentlemen, which was the result of a quarrel between the two gentlemen, which was the result of a quarrel between the two gentlemen...

YOUR LEWISTON CORRESPONDENT.

The degree of credit attached to the statements of your Lewiston correspondent is easily understood. I do not wish to be thought unfriendly to that institution, for I am not; but it is a matter of course that I will not be misled by the statements of a correspondent who is not known to me, and who is not known to me, and who is not known to me...

THE OREGON PRESS AND ITS DOINGS.

The quarrel between the Oregonian and Statesman is progressing with a few days of delay on both sides. It may be a luxury for the combatants to express their opinions so freely of each other, but I am sure it is neither entertaining or instructive. The Bush-Pearne case is a most interesting one, and I am sure it will be read with interest by all who are interested in the future of the Territory.

PROTEST AGAINST DIVISION.

The following is a protest against the division of this Territory, which has lately been introduced in the House:

"Your memorialists—the Legislative Assembly of Washington Territory—would respectfully represent, that we have learned with deep regret that a Resolution has been introduced in the present Congress having for its object the division of our Territory, and we hereby protest against such an act, deeming it unwise and unnecessary, and opposed to the wishes as well as to the present and future interests of the people of Washington—and further, we hope that any bill which may pass during this session, having such object in view, will not receive the signature of His Excellency, the President, for that your memorialists will ever pray, &c., &c."

EXAGGERATION.—We take it for granted that any statement which multiplies the true figures in regard to anything by two or more, is false. Upon this hypothesis we condemn the memorial of some citizens of Lewiston, who have petitioned Congress to divide Washington Territory. It is signed by citizens who we know are not true, and who read out of the Territory, so it is said. The memorial sets forth that the eastern half of the Territory has at this time twenty-five thousand people, which we know is not true, and in that section by next August, which we are pretty sure will not be true, and we know as much about the future as anybody, which is just nothing at all. The Congress of the United States will show wisdom by not taking any notice of a document drawn in the same spirit of truthfulness which dictated the statements about millions of pounds of gold coming out of the Nez Perces mines yearly.—Oregonian.

DEAD.—Looking Glass, one of the chiefs of the Nez Perces Indians died on the 6th inst. at the Lapwai Agency. This chief is the one that has created most of the disturbances that have existed in that tribe during the past few years, and by his death it is probable that these differences will be settled.

Mexican News.

The news from the city of Mexico to the 18th of November is to this effect:

The only success that has signalized the arrival of Gen. Forey in our territory is the occupation of Jalapa by a part of the invading hosts. Jalapa, distant from the centre of operations, was never to be defended, and was therefore readily occupied without any further resistance than that offered by a handful of heroes on the road. From Arizona no movement has been effected, but Gen. Forey has issued proclamations representing that there exists no more general and disorganizing sentiment in the Empire. It appears that the warlike spirit of Forey has been much diminished on witnessing the resolution of the Mexican Congress.

THE BATTLE OF MURFRESBORO.

The following is the substance of intelligence from Murfreesboro, Jan. 11, 1862:

The Federals encountered the rebels on the 30th ult., and after heavy fighting, the rebels were driven back. We captured 100 prisoners, and lost 70 killed and wounded. At daybreak the 31st the fight was renewed with great fury. General McCook's corps was opposed by the rebels, and after a long and hard fight, McCook retreated two miles. He soon rallied, but was again driven back at night. One report says he was again driven on this side of the river, and another says he was driven on the other side of the river. The Federal loss is heavy. Among the killed are General Sherman, Col. Kell, Parmer and Jones; Lieut. Cook, Garcesh Jones.

ANOTHER MAIL HUMBUNG.—The new mail arrangement between this city and Vancouver is another unmitigated humbug.

We have had two arrivals of this mail in this city, bringing mail matter only from the Vancouver office. If it is to be a "strict construction" concern, and have no connection with any other than the Vancouver office it can be of no benefit either to that or this place, and the sooner it is abolished the better. Connecting it with the mails from Portland, it would be an improvement upon our semi-monthly arrangement from the Dalles; but as it is, it is as useless as the "fifth wheel" to a wagon; for alternate week it will arrive here, or about the same time that the mail does from the Dalles. We have made diligent inquiry as to the origin of this new mail establishment, and can only conclude that granny Wallace has received a letter from some aspiring contractor, and with characteristic energy sought to reward a friend by the establishment of the route.

GREAT CONSOLATION.—The Sacramento Union would have its readers derive consolation from the late Federal defeat at Fredericksburg.

In a leader on the subject it says: "We can see cause for encouragement rather than for depression in that bold, but unavailing fight at Fredericksburg." The Union, it will be remembered, has been one of McClellan's worst traducers, and it is evidently, in this, trying to make up a favorable case for Burnside. A few more such defeats as that would crush out the hope of conquering the rebels, and leave the very refreshing consolation that we had failed in restoring the Union, not for want of men and money, but because our Napoleonics Generals always gave us the enemy to erect fortifications and concentrate all their available forces before they attempted to "bag them." We can see no cause for encouragement in that defeat, if Burnside did command.

SHOOTING AT FLORENCE.—Henry Talbotte, Letter known as "Cherokee Bob," and a man named William Wilby were shot in Florence on the 2d instant by two men named John D. Williams and O. Robbins, on whom they made an assault with intent to kill. Williams and Robbins had an examination before Justice Rand and were acquitted. Wilby received fourteen balls in his body and was killed in the affray. Talbotte received five balls and died two days afterward.

THE OREGONIAN SAYS THE EDITOR OF THE GOLDEN AGE HASN'T "BRAINS" ENOUGH FOR HIM TO BE WRITTEN-UPON.

Just our opinion—we have discovered the "singularity" of Washington Standard.

A VERY SINGULAR DISCOVERY.

We had never suspected the editor in question of having any of the substance alluded to at all.

LIGHT FALL OF SNOW.—The fall of snow throughout the mountains of the upper country has been much lighter this winter up to the present time than usual. Navigators are beginning to apprehend that they will have low waters on this account next season.

MORE CAVALRY.—Gov. Gibbs of Oregon, in accordance with an order from Gen. Wright, has issued a proclamation calling for six additional companies of cavalry, required to complete the first regiment of Cavalry, Oregon volunteers.

Late Eastern News.

Dates to Dec. 20th.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 27th.—Thirty-eight of the condemned Indians were hung at Mexico City, in the presence of a large number of spectators. Everything passed off in an orderly manner.

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—The Press publishes that reports to be received from the station of Jeff Davis. He declares Gen. Butler a felon, deserving capital punishment, and orders that he no longer be considered as created as a public enemy, but as a private individual, and that he be treated as such.

New York, Dec. 28th.—The Rooms, from N. W. Orleans, 18th inst., arrived. The North Star, with Gen. Banks and staff, arrived on the 14th. The news transmitted on the following day that Gen. Butler had been surprised, and occasioned almost surprise among all classes. On the 16th, Banks issued an order assuming command of the Department of the Gulf, and the news of the capture of the rebel staff was received on the 20th, for New York.

Gen. Banks acts with characteristic energy.

Fifty thousand troops who accompanied him landed at Baton Rouge, La. The remainder of the expedition would be sent forward as soon as arrived. Two steamers with cargoes of sugar were captured by an expedition that attacked the rebel steamer Relief, from Mobile, arrived with a cargo of cotton at Havana. She is reported to have been captured by a crew of 100 men, running past the blockaders during the night.

New York, December 28th.—The steamer Ariel arrived from Aspinwall. She brought no special news, but she had captured the rebel steamer Gen. Butler, Dec. 25th. The capture of the flag-ship Lancaster, Pacific Squadron, has been promoted to the rank of Commodore.

Dates to Jan. 1st.

The following is the substance of intelligence from the battle of Murfreesboro, Jan. 1, 1862:

The Federals encountered the rebels on the 30th ult., and after heavy fighting, the rebels were driven back. We captured 100 prisoners, and lost 70 killed and wounded. At daybreak the 31st the fight was renewed with great fury. General McCook's corps was opposed by the rebels, and after a long and hard fight, McCook retreated two miles. He soon rallied, but was again driven back at night. One report says he was again driven on this side of the river, and another says he was driven on the other side of the river. The Federal loss is heavy. Among the killed are General Sherman, Col. Kell, Parmer and Jones; Lieut. Cook, Garcesh Jones.

THE SUPREME COURT HAS DECIDED TO FORM AN ARMY FOR THE CENTRE AND ONE FOR THE RESERVE.

and has given Gen. Comstock the command of the former and Gen. Daboll the command of the latter. These two military positions are actively engaged organizing the said bodies.

ANOTHER MAIL HUMBUNG.—The new mail arrangement between this city and Vancouver is another unmitigated humbug.

We have had two arrivals of this mail in this city, bringing mail matter only from the Vancouver office. If it is to be a "strict construction" concern, and have no connection with any other than the Vancouver office it can be of no benefit either to that or this place, and the sooner it is abolished the better. Connecting it with the mails from Portland, it would be an improvement upon our semi-monthly arrangement from the Dalles; but as it is, it is as useless as the "fifth wheel" to a wagon; for alternate week it will arrive here, or about the same time that the mail does from the Dalles. We have made diligent inquiry as to the origin of this new mail establishment, and can only conclude that granny Wallace has received a letter from some aspiring contractor, and with characteristic energy sought to reward a friend by the establishment of the route.

GREAT CONSOLATION.—The Sacramento Union would have its readers derive consolation from the late Federal defeat at Fredericksburg.

In a leader on the subject it says: "We can see cause for encouragement rather than for depression in that bold, but unavailing fight at Fredericksburg." The Union, it will be remembered, has been one of McClellan's worst traducers, and it is evidently, in this, trying to make up a favorable case for Burnside. A few more such defeats as that would crush out the hope of conquering the rebels, and leave the very refreshing consolation that we had failed in restoring the Union, not for want of men and money, but because our Napoleonics Generals always gave us the enemy to erect fortifications and concentrate all their available forces before they attempted to "bag them." We can see no cause for encouragement in that defeat, if Burnside did command.

SHOOTING AT FLORENCE.—Henry Talbotte, Letter known as "Cherokee Bob," and a man named William Wilby were shot in Florence on the 2d instant by two men named John D. Williams and O. Robbins, on whom they made an assault with intent to kill. Williams and Robbins had an examination before Justice Rand and were acquitted. Wilby received fourteen balls in his body and was killed in the affray. Talbotte received five balls and died two days afterward.

THE OREGONIAN SAYS THE EDITOR OF THE GOLDEN AGE HASN'T "BRAINS" ENOUGH FOR HIM TO BE WRITTEN-UPON.

Just our opinion—we have discovered the "singularity" of Washington Standard.

A VERY SINGULAR DISCOVERY.

We had never suspected the editor in question of having any of the substance alluded to at all.

LIGHT FALL OF SNOW.—The fall of snow throughout the mountains of the upper country has been much lighter this winter up to the present time than usual. Navigators are beginning to apprehend that they will have low waters on this account next season.

MORE CAVALRY.—Gov. Gibbs of Oregon, in accordance with an order from Gen. Wright, has issued a proclamation calling for six additional companies of cavalry, required to complete the first regiment of Cavalry, Oregon volunteers.

Late Eastern News.

Dates to Dec. 20th.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 27th.—Thirty-eight of the condemned Indians were hung at Mexico City, in the presence of a large number of spectators. Everything passed off in an orderly manner.

Philadelphia, Dec. 28.—The Press publishes that reports to be received from the station of Jeff Davis. He declares Gen. Butler a felon, deserving capital punishment, and orders that he no longer be considered as created as a public enemy, but as a private individual, and that he be treated as such.

New York, Dec. 28th.—The Rooms, from N. W. Orleans, 18th inst., arrived. The North Star, with Gen. Banks and staff, arrived on the 14th. The news transmitted on the following day that Gen. Butler had been surprised, and occasioned almost surprise among all classes. On the 16th, Banks issued an order assuming command of the Department of the Gulf, and the news of the capture of the rebel staff was received on the 20th, for New York.

Gen. Banks acts with characteristic energy.

Fifty thousand troops who accompanied him landed at Baton Rouge, La. The remainder of the expedition would be sent forward as soon as arrived. Two steamers with cargoes of sugar were captured by an expedition that attacked the rebel steamer Relief, from Mobile, arrived with a cargo of cotton at Havana. She is reported to have been captured by a crew of 100 men, running past the blockaders during the night.

New York, December 28th.—The steamer Ariel arrived from Aspinwall. She brought no special news, but she had captured the rebel steamer Gen. Butler, Dec. 25th. The capture of the flag-ship Lancaster, Pacific Squadron, has been promoted to the rank of Commodore.

Dates to Jan. 1st.

The following is the substance of intelligence from the battle of Murfreesboro, Jan. 1, 1862:

The Federals encountered the rebels on the 30th ult., and after heavy fighting, the rebels were driven back. We captured 100 prisoners, and lost 70 killed and wounded. At daybreak the 31st the fight was renewed with great fury. General McCook's corps was opposed by the rebels, and after a long and hard fight, McCook retreated two miles. He soon rallied, but was again driven back at night. One report says he was again driven on this side of the river, and another says he was driven on the other side of the river. The Federal loss is heavy. Among the killed are General Sherman, Col. Kell, Parmer and Jones; Lieut. Cook, Garcesh Jones.

THE SUPREME COURT HAS DECIDED TO FORM AN ARMY FOR THE CENTRE AND ONE FOR THE RESERVE.

and has given Gen. Comstock the command of the former and Gen. Daboll the command of the latter. These two military positions are actively engaged organizing the said bodies.

ANOTHER MAIL HUMBUNG.—The new mail arrangement between this city and Vancouver is another unmitigated humbug.

We have had two arrivals of this mail in this city, bringing mail matter only from the Vancouver office. If it is to be a "strict construction" concern, and have no connection with any other than the Vancouver office it can be of no benefit either to that or this place, and the sooner it is abolished the better. Connecting it with the mails from Portland, it would be an improvement upon our semi-monthly arrangement from the Dalles; but as it is, it is as useless as the "fifth wheel" to a wagon; for alternate week it will arrive here, or about the same time that the mail does from the Dalles. We have made diligent inquiry as to the origin of this new mail establishment, and can only conclude that granny Wallace has received a letter from some aspiring contractor, and with characteristic energy sought to reward a friend by the establishment of the route.

GREAT CONSOLATION.—The Sacramento Union would have its readers derive consolation from the late Federal defeat at Fredericksburg.

In a leader on the subject it says: "We can see cause for encouragement rather than for depression in that bold, but unavailing fight at Fredericksburg." The Union, it will be remembered, has been one of McClellan's worst traducers, and it is evidently, in this, trying to make up a favorable case for Burnside. A few more such defeats as that would crush out the hope of conquering the rebels, and leave the very refreshing consolation that we had failed in restoring the Union, not for want of men and money, but because our Napoleonics Generals always gave us the enemy to erect fortifications and concentrate all their available forces before they attempted to "bag them." We can see no cause for encouragement in that defeat, if Burnside did command.

SHOOTING AT FLORENCE.—Henry Talbotte, Letter known as "Cherokee Bob," and a man named William Wilby were shot in Florence on the 2d instant by two men named John D. Williams and O. Robbins, on whom they made an assault with intent to kill. Williams and Robbins had an examination before Justice Rand and were acquitted. Wilby received fourteen balls in his body and was killed in the affray. Talbotte received five balls and died two days afterward.

THE OREGONIAN SAYS THE EDITOR OF THE GOLDEN AGE HASN'T "BRAINS" ENOUGH FOR HIM TO BE WRITTEN-UPON.

Just our opinion—we have discovered the "singularity" of Washington Standard.

A VERY SINGULAR DISCOVERY.

We had never suspected the editor in question of having any of the substance alluded to at all.

LIGHT FALL OF SNOW.—The fall of snow throughout the mountains of the upper country has been much lighter this winter up to the present time than usual. Navigators are beginning to apprehend that they will have low waters on this account next season.

MORE CAVALRY.—Gov. Gibbs of Oregon, in accordance with an order from Gen. Wright, has issued a proclamation calling for six additional companies of cavalry, required to complete the first regiment of Cavalry, Oregon volunteers.

Excise Tax.—The amount of monthly tax returns for the month of December, in the city of Walla Walla, by manufacturers, butchers and others, is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Includes Harmon and Suddley ($111.05), Cabinet Ware (8.25), Lin Ware (6.00), Lager Beer (41.00), Shattered animals (32.80), Auction sales (65), Total ($108.40).

POST OFFICE AT AUBURN.—The necessary fixtures for a post office, at Auburn, have been received by the Postmaster in this city, and forwarded to that place. Mr. W. F. McCrary has received the appointment of Postmaster. No notification has yet been received in relation to the route—whether from this city or the Dalles.

NEW MAIL ARRANGEMENT.—Postmaster Kelly informs us that he will hereafter receive a weekly mail from Vancouver—the new contract for this service having gone into operation. The contract has been sub-let by Capt. Knighton to Wells, Fargo & Co. The first mail arrived on Friday last.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—We notice a very decided improvement in the editorial department of the Oregonian lately. Why don't the publisher hoist the name of the editor, that the world may know who is entitled to the credit? We rather suspect from the ring of the articles, that our old friend Henry Miller has something to do with them.

THE REMONSTRANCE.—By private advices from below we learn that the remonstrance gotten up by the members of the Legislature was probably telegraphed to Washington a week ago.

PASSENGER SHIPS.—A line of passenger ships has been established between Victoria and Liverpool.

SNOW FELL TO THE DEPTH OF SIX INCHES AT OLYMPIA ON THE 2d INSTANT.

HETTY.—The wife of one of the editors of the Portland Commercial presented him on the morning of the 8th inst., with a son weighing fifteen pounds.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—Work was commenced on the Pacific Railroad at Sacramento on the 2d January.

HIGH WATER.—At last accounts from below, the Willamette river was so high that boats could not run on the upper river, and the people were fearful of being visited by another flood.

SNOW AT THE DALLES.—Snow fell on the Dalles last week to the depth of eight or ten inches to two feet. At that time we of the Walla Walla valley were enjoying a weather almost as pleasant as summer.

RAIN IN THE WILLAMETTE.—Unusually heavy rains have been falling in the Willamette during the past few weeks.

MARRIED.

KING—WILBY.—In this city on the 17th inst. by L. J. Root, J. P. Wm. King and Catherine A. Wilby.

DIED.

PAIN.—At the residence of B. B. Baker, near the City, on the 16th inst. Mrs. Alvira, wife of W. B. PAIN, of Portland, Oregon.

Canned Fruit.—Phillip Pitt has a choice variety of Canned Fruit—consisting of Apples, Peaches, and berries of every description—put up in Oregon, and will sell them at 50 per cent cheaper than they can be purchased elsewhere.

Agency Notice.

THE undersigned hereby appoints W. J. TERRY as his agent for the U. S. Marine work, on Walla Walla, in Lewiston, Colville and Hellegott, and from Lewiston to the Willa, Eugene, and Elk City—failing whatever he has done or may do.

WALLA WALLA, JAN. 17, 1862.

L. MULLAN, JOHN DOVELL.

HAMILTON & COULSON.

Attorneys and Counselors at Law, WILL attend the Courts in Washington and Oregon. Office G. S. King's brick building, Front st., Portland, Oregon. [Jan. 17, 1862.]

Notice.

ALL persons knowing themselves indebted to JOHN DOVELL, for Marine work, are requested to call and make immediate payment, and save costs.

W. V. BROWN is authorized to transact business in my name during my absence. He may be found in the Daguerrian building over the shop, [Jan. 17, 1862.] JOHN DOVELL.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late J. H. BROWN, late of the County of Walla Walla. All persons holding demands against said estate are requested to present them to the undersigned within one year from this date or they will be forever barred; and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment. ISAAC LANSKILL, Administrator. [Jan. 17, 1862.]

Change of Partnership.

NOTICE is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between Dwight Goodrich and Robert Love, in the name and style of B. Goodrich & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Robert Love having sold his interest to J. B. Nunneley and Dwight Goodrich, who will continue the business under the name and style of B. Goodrich & Co., as heretofore. Accounts due the old firm are to be paid to the new firm, who also assume the liabilities of the old firm. DWIGHT GOODRICH, J. B. NUNNELEY. [Walla Walla, Jan. 15, 1862.] 544

Ordinance No 15.

AN ORDINANCE regulating fire alarms. The people of Walla Walla do hereby enact as follows: Sec. 1. Any person convicted of giving or causing a false alarm of fire within the city limits, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in a sum not less than five dollars ($5) nor more than twenty-five dollars ($25). This ordinance to be in force from and after its passage, this 6th day of January, 1862. T. REEVE, Mayor. Approved: E. B. WURTZMAN, Mayor.

SUBSCRIPTION IS INVITED.

The Exchange READING AND NEWS ROOM, WHICH IS NOW OPEN At the ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL, Government St., Victoria, V. I.

NEWSPAPERS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE GLOBE, including the Commercial and Mercantile Information, etc., sent by express, and by mail, at the lowest rates. SMOKING AND CHESSROOM, Etc.

Terms of Admission.

Annual Subscription, $24; payable quarterly. For one month, only $5. For one day, only 50 cents. All payable in Advance. [Jan. 10, '62.] H. F. HEISTERMAN, Prop.

