

THE YAKIMA HERALD.

VOL. IV.

NORTH YAKIMA, WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1892.

NO. 2.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Sept. 23, 1891.

I have resided in the Yakima Valley for 12 years, engaged in general farming, fruit and hop culture. I raise all my products by irrigation, and have never failed a single year in obtaining bountiful crops.

I farmed formerly in the State of Kansas. I find all kinds of husbandry here much more profitable than in Kansas. And as to climate, such things as blizzards and cyclones are not known. Our winters are very short, and the spring and fall are perfectly delightful. All our farmers who are industrious are prosperous and happy.

JOSEPH STEPHENSON,
President Board of County Commissioners, Yakima County.

D. E. Lesh, proprietor of the celebrated fruit farm called "Fruit Vale," swears that on one Alexander peach-tree grew, during the year 1890, five hundred and twenty pounds of peaches, which he sold for $52; that off four apple-trees twenty oz. pippins, he sold 100 boxes, 4,600 pounds, at $125. My whole orchard, between six and seven acres of peaches, apples, plums, pears and apricots, brought me, during the season of 1890, about three thousand dollars.

An ingenious bartender gives the following recipes for changing or disguising one's breath after libations: Whiskey cocktails, lemon peel or slices of bananas; gin cocktails, lemon peel, cherries or grapes; drinks containing rum, cardamon seeds; gin fizz, slice of orange; mint julep, celery; tom and jerry, orange slices or peel; whiskey straight, pineapple slices, or any fresh berries; brandy, cardamon seeds or nuts; claret, celery or parsley; beer and wines, lemon peel or fruit.

It is queer how a news item will run sometimes. All the papers throughout the state have published a paragraph about Yakima having shipped 701 bales of hops and still having 230 bales left. When this first left THE HERALD's columns the number of bales shipped was 2701, but some paper dropped the thousand figure and in that form it drifted into the column of state news and has had general circulation, the Oregonian being so taken with it that it has given it three distinct publications.

The Spokane Spokesman has just issued an illustrated souvenir edition, which is certainly a very creditable production, but the Columbia Chronicle commends it principally because it has made a good looking man out of Thomas C. Griffiths. It's true that Tom can't come into the category of professional beauties along with J. Kennedy Stout, Allan Weir and T. Henderson Boyd, but then he doesn't always depend upon winning his law cases by frightening the jury with an exhibition of his face.

There are rumors afloat of fraud concerning the American Building & Loan Association of Minneapolis, an organization of national reputation and allied assets of $11,000,000. The American acquired a great many stockholders in North Yakima and throughout Washington, but local stockholders becoming alarmed at dilatory tactics applied for withdrawal, which all managed to do, with an exception, with small loss. It has for some time been considered that somewhere within the association a giant stockpile was being operated, and stockholders who could learn nothing of the affairs, obtain no loans, and received no dividends, have applied for an official and thorough inspection by the state bank examiner.

There is a lake about one mile wide by two miles long some distance from the borax beds in Douglas county, says the Ellensburg Localier, which has been a great resort for the Indians when afflicted with eruptions or skin diseases of any kind. It is called by the Indians "Big Pe Lake." The water is yellowish tinge, but is very clear. A person can see to the bottom of it where it is thirty feet deep. There is something peculiar about it; the surface reflects images equal to a mirror, and magnifies objects many fold. It will magnify a child to the proportions of a giant. Its magnifying power is wonderful, our informant says. The hand or foot reflected from the lake's surface is magnified most astonishingly. This lake has been used by the Indians from time immemorial and is still utilized for the purposes named. There is no doubt that from its healing properties it will be taken up and some day become a great watering place.

The World's Fair Commissioners and the Stock Breeders of Washington will Meet in Yakima on That Date.

February 16th promises to be a gala day for North Yakima, and the hotel accommodations of the city will probably be taxed to the utmost to care for our guests.

In his printed call Dr. Blalock says: "All breeders will be interested in this, but there are other matters that will interest them as much or possibly more than an exhibit at the World's fair."

Mr. Joseph Baxter, while at Walla Walla recently, had a talk with Dr. Blalock regarding the convention, and that gentleman informed him that he had reason to believe that there would be in the neighborhood of three hundred visitors present besides the commission.

DESERT LAND PRICES DROP.

The Secretary of the Interior Holds That the Price of All Desert Lands is $1.25 Per Acre.

Heretofore all desert lands within the railroad limits have been held at $2.50 per acre, and those filing have been obliged to make an initial payment of 50 cents per acre, although in the majority of cases this payment has been made under protest, those filing claiming that the lands were not double minimum lands and that the railroad grants did not affect desert lands.

A few days ago the local land officers received a letter from the department, under date of Jan. 13, 1902, in which the honorable secretary sums up as follows: "After a careful consideration of the matter, I have concluded that the amount of money to be paid in acquiring title to desert lands under the act of March 3, 1877, as amended by the act of March 3, 1891, is one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre without regard to the situation of the land in relation to the limits of railroad grants."

Assistant Commissioner Stone notifies the register and receiver that they will be governed by these instructions, but does not say what action shall be taken regarding those who have previously filed, or whether the excess payment shall or shall not be allowed on future payments.

Banker Moffat, of Denver, an uncle of the owner of the Hotel Horton, Ellensburg, has struck it rich in the "Holy Moses" mine at Creede, Col., and has been offered a million dollars for his find.

Richard Strobach is most ingenious in his deductions, he having come to the conclusion that N. P. locomotive No. 571 is a "hoodoo," because the numbers 5, 7 and 1 added together result in the unlucky 13.

J. L. Smith returned from Tacoma Thursday, and reports that the ditch work is moving along very smoothly, and that the 25-mile contract will be completed and ready for turning in the water by the 15th of March.

Col. L. S. Howlett was confirmed as register of the land office on Thursday. The good news was telegraphed the colonel by his old newspaper associate, who heartily congratulated him upon his success.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of the enterprising agricultural implement firm of Fawcett Bros., who now have on the road a car load of Utah alfalfa seed and a car load of the celebrated Rice coil-spring buggies, on which an absolute guarantee is given.

The case of the State vs. Allen Sattwell, the Indian charged with the murder of another Indian in the hop-fields, last summer, is now being heard before Judge Graves. Rochford and Newman are for the prosecution and J. G. Boyle for the defense. Twenty-three witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Although this is the year when woman proposes and man is disposed of, the marriage licenses issued in Yakima county for January were extremely meagre in number. The girls had better stir themselves if they want to make a good record, for the start indicates either a want of tact or a lack of push, and perhaps both.

The telegraphed report that F. S. Woodward was a candidate for the registration of the Yakima land office was an error. Mr. Woodward, while in Washington, endeavored to assist Col. Howlett in his candidacy, and in this way his name got twisted into that of an aspirant for the office in the dispatch sent to the Oregonian.

Fred R. Reed, in detailing the success of the Land company's artesian well No. 3, tells the Tacoma Ledger that "the jack rabbits and coyotes are paralyzed and wear a mixed look and a life preserver, while those who have grown wrinkled and bow-legged carrying Yakima's banner take on a jag of artesian water and thank God for these flowing blessings."

C. W. Henry & Co. have sold their lumber yard and business to the Buckley Lumber Co., of Buckley, Wash. W. P. Sergeant, the president of the company, was in the city Wednesday getting acquainted with the trade and the wants of this section and will soon send over a manager to take charge of the business, which will in the meantime be conducted by Mr. Henry.

Attorney Sively has maintained in regard to desert lands that parties who have made entries under the old law could prove up under the new by simply following the provisions of the new law up to the time proof is offered and without making expenditures as provided by this new law for the time he held the land under the old. The department notified him this week that the commissioner would hold this view of the question.

L. D. Lane, of Kiona, was in the city Wednesday and reports that the Horse Heaven and Kiona sections are anticipating great prosperity this year. The crops and prices during 1891 were never better, and this year there will be a largely increased acreage. Mr. Lane has been farming the Beard place for several years past, and says that he will have 1000 acres in grain this year and 2240 acres under cultivation before the end of the season, while the Kelso Bros. will have from 1500 to 1800 acres in crop.

Col. H. D. Cock entered upon the duties of city marshal Wednesday. Fred Rowe, who has so faithfully served the city as deputy marshal, tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and the vacancy was filled by the appointment of A. W. Ryan. Mr. Ryan is a man of splendid physique, who recently removed here, with his family, from Seattle, where he was on the staff of Sheriff Woolley. Marshal Cock and Assistant Marshal Ryan comprise a force that is a credit to Yakima, and evil doers had better keep exceedingly shady while they are around.

For it is in the Name of Sweet Charity That the Light Fantastic Will be Tripped Next Tuesday Night.

Switzer's magnificent hall, one of the best in the state, promises to contain such a crowd of merry makers on Tuesday night of next week as has never been gathered together in Yakima before.

The executive committee having the arrangements in charge consists of John Reed, S. C. Henton, J. C. Liggett, Phil Ditter, J. H. Greer and Fred R. Reed, and their names are a sufficient guarantee that nothing will be left undone that would contribute to the enjoyment of those who will be present.

C. H. Leadbetter, of the Yakima & Kennewick Irrigating Co., and C. E. Lum, secretary of the Del Haven irrigation district, were in the city the first of the week. Mr. Lum informed THE HERALD that the company in which Mr. Leadbetter was interested had from thirty to forty men employed on ditch work, besides having two corps of engineers in the field.

Mike, a Polisher, and Randall Williams, colored, with their white wives, were up before Justice Gardner on Saturday last for disorderly conduct. They are a tough crowd, and were in a dirty mess at Paetow's saloon on Front street. They were all drunk, and one of the women had her clothes torn off, and if reports are true there was some doings in old Paetow's place as to warrant the revocation of his license and his arrest under the ordinance to suppress houses of prostitution. Judge Gardner fined the men $10 each, reprimanded the women, and gave Paetow a scolding that made him turn white around the gills.

Last week, in recounting the experience of Hindoo John, the shepherd, who came to town and quickly parted with his fortune of $125, THE HERALD reported under an "elegant jag." The intelligent compositor put it in type "jag," and so it remained until half of the papers were printed, when the error was discovered and corrected. Of course the scribe was furious, and was planning a fearful death for the printer, when the thought struck him that perhaps it was not such a frightful "bull" after all, as most jags are derived from jugs. This, and this only, saved the typo's life.

The Sewerage System to be Extended—Yakima Now Has a New Marshal—Other Business Transacted.

A communication was received from the secretary of the Salt Lake Irrigation convention asking the council to adopt resolutions indorsing the platform of the convention, which petitions congress to grant in trust to state and territories needful of irrigation all non-mineral government lands for the purpose of developing irrigation so as to render lands now arid fertile and capable of supporting a population. The council appointed Mayor Wood and Clerk Rodman a committee to prepare the resolutions.

Under the head of unfinished business, the report of the committee on police was called up, and, on motion of Cox, was adopted, Carpenter, Cox, Miller and Needham voting in favor, and Bartholet and Reed against. Mr. Cox then asked the mayor to declare the office of marshal vacant and call for a new election. Mr. Reed wanted the attorney's opinion as to the legality of the proceeding.

The clerk then read the following: To the Mayor and City Council: I hereby tender my resignation, to be accepted as soon as my successor has qualified. BEN McMURRAY.

On motion of Cox the resignation was accepted, and he proceeded to nominate H. D. Cock for the position. Bartholet nominated P. A. Stanton, and Carpenter nominated J. M. Henderson. On the first and second ballots each candidate received two votes. On the third ballot Henderson lost one and Cock gained one, and thus it stood until the 52d ballot, when Reed withdrew from Stanton and cast the electing vote for Cock.

Before adjournment the matter of the meeting of the World's Fair commission and the stock breeders' convention on the 16th inst. was brought up, and the mayor was authorized to make all the arrangements necessary for the reception and entertainment of the visitors.

C. H. HOLTON GETS AN OFFICE.

He Will Shortly Go Ahead as Commercial Agent in the Consular Service of the United States.

THE HERALD learns, through a private letter, understood to be from Capt. Chas. M. Holton, and received by a gentleman on the Sound, that he had at last been appointed to government office. The office which he has been seeking, and for which he has received the appointment, is that of commercial agent in the consular service at Swansea, Wales.

Captain Holton received the indorsement of the Washington delegation for this office, but it is understood that his success is largely due to the active efforts of Senator Dolph, of Oregon, for whose committee Capt. Holton has for several seasons officiated as clerk. Swansea is a town in South Wales, that has come into some prominence on account of its coal, which is peculiarly adapted to smelting, and three-fourths of the smelting of Great Britain is done there. The Butte, Montana, copper ores are also sent there in large quantities. Capt. Holton will leave for Swansea in a few weeks, he having made arrangements with L. E. Sperry to continue as manager of his paper, the Yakima Republic.

Milk dealers are greatly perturbed, and a milk war is liable to ensue. A. Frederick had secured W. D. Beck's Holstein cows for the purpose of selling milk. He asked various dairymen what price they were delivering milk at, and was told twenty cents per gallon. On this basis, or twenty cents for a dollar, Mr. Frederick made contracts, not knowing that the gallon price was only to large consumers, and that to families tickets were sold at the rate of 16 quarts for $1. Now that Mr. Frederick has entered the arena on this basis, he does not propose to go back on it, as his card in this issue of THE HERALD indicates. What the other dealers will do to meet this cut has not as yet been announced.

You can never tell what a slight cold may lead to; it is best, therefore, to give yourself the benefit of the doubt, and cure it as soon as possible with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A day's delay, sometimes an hour's delay, may result in serious consequences.

Hot Griddle Cakes.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder possesses a peculiar merit not approached by that of any other baking powder. It produces the hot buckwheat, Indian or wheat cakes, hot biscuit, doughnuts, waffles or muffins. Any of these tasteful things may be eaten when hot with impunity by persons of the most delicate digestive organs. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder leavens without fermentation or decomposition. In its preparation none but the purest of cream of tartar, soda, etc. is used, and in such exact equivalents as to always guarantee a perfectly neutral result, thereby giving the natural and sweet flavor peculiar to buckwheat and other flour that may be used, the natural flavor so much desired and appreciated by all. The oldest patrons of Dr. Price's powder tell the story, that they can never get the same results from any other leavening agent, that their griddle cakes, biscuits, etc. are never so light and never taste so sweet or so good as when raised with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.
