YAKIMA AND THE STATE.

Interesting Items of News from Yakima and Its Suburbs.

Bits of Gossip, Facts, Fancies, Personalities, and a Hodge-Podge of Paragraphs of Every Description.

Leo Pordin, of the Wenas, is now teaching a district school at Easton, Kittitas county.

Col. W. F. Prosser and family are again home from the Sound country and the coast.

Dr. Wheelock, of Seattle, who formerly resided in North Yakima, arrived here on Monday for a few days' visit.

Kirk Dexter and wife of North Brookfield, Mass., relatives of the Howletts, arrived in the city Monday for a brief visit.

Master Lippincott, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Couter for some weeks past, left for his home at Mount Vernon, Wash., Monday.

Henry Kandle, an old pioneer of the Pacific coast, and father of County Commissioner Frank Kandle, died at his home in Pierce county, October 12, aged 77 years.

It is reported that M. S. Emily Knight has, by her exertions, secured the building of a wagon road from the west side of the mountains to the Gold Hill district, and the work is well under way.

G. A. Bailey has rented and will shortly open one of the store-rooms in the larger of the Mason, formerly Cadwell, blocks, on Second street, for the sale of sewing machines, pianos and organs.

Dr. E. E. Heg who is now located in Puget sound as the representative of an investment company, spent several days in the city this week. It is reported that J. B. Reavis will occupy his residence on the hill.

On Tuesday A. B. West shipped his own boys and those of Captain Robert Dean to London, E. A., on consentment. There were about 50 males and five cars were required in their transportation to the seaboard.

At the fourth annual session of the state council of Catholic Knights of America held at Walla Walla last week, Henry Ditter was elected vice president and North Yakima was selected as the next meeting place.

Every voter who fails to hear Hon. L. H. Flattor, at Mason's opera house Saturday evening, will have occasion to regret it. Mr. Flattor is one of the democratic presidential electoral no. 10, and is among the most fluent and brilliant speakers in the state.

North Yakima has never experienced population so rapidly as at the present time, and difficulty is being experienced to find quarters for the new comers. Notwithstanding the large number of residences built this summer, there is not a vacant house or room in the city.

While Ed Bland was riding a fraction young one Monday morning, the animal buckled so seriously that in striking the ground one of his legs was broken. Frantic with pain, the horse threw himself on his side, and was finally managed to throw Mr. Bland, who was not injured by the fall.

Messrs. J. M. Baxter, S. J. Lowe and M. G. Wills made a trip to Ellensburg, Saturday, to be present at the democratic rally, at which James Hamilton Lewis was the chief speaker. The meeting is said to be the largest ever held there by any political organization, and much enthusiasm was manifested by the audience.

It is with extreme regret that THE HERALD is obliged to chronicle the sad death, at San Francisco, on Friday, October 14, of Mrs. John B. Patton, aged 71 years. Mrs. Patton was afflicted with tumor of the stomach, and had made the trip to California in hopes of obtaining surgical relief. She lived but a few days after the operation was performed.

An important real estate deal was closed on Saturday last, when 400 acres of land belonging to J. L. Morrison, M. B. Morrison and J. H. Morrison was sold to W. B. Dudley, who is building the two-story brick block adjoining the Lewis-Engle block. The land is situated in sections 21 and 22, township 13, range 15. The sale was made through the firm of Fred B. Reed & Co. Terms private.

Dr. F. D. Buchner, a graduate of the medical department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, has decided to locate at Prosser for the practice of his profession. For the past year and a half Dr. Buchner has been the physician on the works of the Northern Pacific, Yakima & Kittitas Irrigation company, where he has been successful in his practice and well liked by those who have required his services. In locating at Prosser he does not go into an entirely new field, for his skill is already known by numbers in that section, and he realizes that the rapid development of the lower Yakima country presents to him an opportunity of building up a satisfactory and lucrative practice, such as is seldom offered.

THE PATRIOT KOSUTH AT NINETY YEARS.

He Predicts that America Will Rule the World in the Twentieth Century.

Kosuth is tolerably hale and hearty for a man of his years. Little over the medium height, his frame is his younger days must have been wiry and athletic. His eyes grow very large and lustrous when in conversation he discusses any topic which particularly interests him; but in his moments of silence and meditation they have a far away, melancholy look, which warrants one in believing that the great Hungarian patriot regrets that he is about to die without seeing the dazzling dream of his life realized.

When I asked him, says a Boston Transcript correspondent, if he believed in the durability of the Austrian empire, the old man shook his head in the negative and said:

"The Austrian empire cannot hold together for more than another generation. It is made up of the most conflicting elements. Races and religions of different kinds, and habits and religions of a diametrically opposite character can no more be blended into one than can oil and water. We have, for instance, the dull, plodding, phlegmatic German-Austrian, who sees his only patch of paradise in the smoke of the pipe as he smokes and the blonde color of the lager that he drinks; the Teutic, who is not headed and enthusiastic; the Bohemian who is careless, the devil-may-care fellow, and the Hungarian, who shares a few of the qualities of the others, but who is, nevertheless, as distinct from any of them as chalk is from cheese. Believe me, the Austrian empire will fall one day, like the old Roman empire to pieces."

"And what to your mind will come in for its spoils?"

"Hungary, whose population is mostly Magyar blood, with a pretty fair infusion of Serbian and Slavonian, will, of course, throw off the Hapsburg yoke and form itself into an independent republic. Bohemia and Telegueland will follow suit, while Austria Germany will naturally become part and parcel of the great German empire."

"Do you believe that republicanism is making serious headway in Europe?"

"Certainly I do. France has now made up her mind to remain a republic for all time. Switzerland has been a republic from almost time immemorial. Spain and Portugal will yet form an Iberian republic. Italy will soon rid herself of the Savoy dynasty, for Cavallotti and his brother republicans are becoming more and more powerful in this peninsula. As for England, the radical element in that country will eventually put the Guelphs on the shelf."

Asked for his opinion of America and the American Kosuth said: "I believe that the onward march of humanity is toward the west. The United States in the twentieth century will practically rule the world—not in the political or moral sense of the term. The Americans themselves are a wonderfully progressive people, and if the millennium should ever come they certainly will be the first to reach it."

The old man's eyes sparkled with lambent fire while he spoke thus. He expressed himself in the purest French, interpolated with an odd sentence or two in English. In conclusion it need only be added that in spite of several drawbacks in his character his civility, instincts, his career of self sacrifice and unswerving loyalty to the land of his birth make him one of the most unique and interesting figures in modern history.

In closing the speaker said he would rather give money in the hands of a burglar to bribe a watchman to rob a bank than to contribute money to be placed in the hands of Qu. Martin or Hackett to be used in politics.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. 37-1m

DR. PRICE'S BAKING POWDER.
Supplying the Army, Navy and Indian Department.

Chicago Letter-Opener: The purchasing agents of the United States government have ordered nearly 100,000 pounds of Dr. Price's baking powder in the first five months of this year, 1892.

The government expresses great care in selecting its supplies of all kinds, rejecting everything that is not of the best, and the very fact that it has adopted Dr. Price's baking powder is proof that it has found it the best of baking powders. Dr. Price's is peculiarly adapted for export, as neither long sea voyages nor climatic changes affect it, this brand keeping fresh and sweet for years while other baking powders deteriorate rapidly.

It is guaranteed to the government to be a pure cream of tartar powder, free from ammonia, alum or other harmful substances, and it is also the only baking powder prepared by a physician of high standing.

WAYNE M'VEAGH SPEAKS.

He Says He Can no Longer Support the Republican Ticket.

Prevailing Use of Money for Baiting Corruption Purposes—The Party Making the Poor Poorer and the Rich Richer.

One of the largest political meetings of the campaign was held in Philadelphia, October 15, under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic association, which invited Wayne MacVeagh, formerly attorney general under President Garfield, to make an address. MacVeagh was introduced by President Thompson, of the association. MacVeagh said, in part, that up to the present time he has not felt at liberty to vote for any but republican candidates. In 1876, he believed, Tilden was entitled to the electoral vote of Louisiana, but President Grant, Secretary Chandler, Secretary Cameron, General Sheridan, and command of the troops in the state, and Secretary Robeson, with gunboats in its waters, were deeply interested in the election. United States Marshal Peckard was seeking the governorship with a host of deputies at his command, and yet when the polls closed Tilden had 7,000 votes more than Hayes. The speaker objected to this. He had watched with pain the steady growth of the corrupt use of money in politics. He was convinced unless the republican party was checked it would make the poor poorer and the rich richer, more corrupt, selfish and less patriotic. There was too much truth, he said, in the rumor that the election of 1888 had been bought. There is no way of accounting for the action of the republican party for the last four years other than the bargain and sale of legislation. He did not see how any man in his right senses thought it wise to inflict upon the poor the awful burden of the McKinley bill, or to debauch voters by offering them pensions, or to impoverish the taxpayer by buying masses of silver for which there was no use, or to insult a small, weak sister republic like Chile by sending such a diplomat as Patrick Egan, or to threaten her with war without waiting to translate her apology.

On the tariff question MacVeagh said that less than 12 per cent of the laborers of Pennsylvania could see employment in protective industries while the other 88 per cent had to pay a bonus on almost everything they eat or wear. Owing to the collapse of trust and smaller evils the American farmer each year found himself poorer than in Ohio and Pennsylvania land is worth less than one-half what it was twenty years ago. Long men are obliged to pay artificial prices for sugar on account of our tariff kept alive by the McKinley bill, and what was true of the McKinley bill and the great group of gigantic monopolies was also true of reckless session legislation. The speaker did not object to just pensions.

In closing the speaker said he would rather give money in the hands of a burglar to bribe a watchman to rob a bank than to contribute money to be placed in the hands of Qu. Martin or Hackett to be used in politics.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. HERALDINGS.

Did you see the enlarged portrait of Hon. H. J. Snively made by E. E. James?

Small pictures of all kinds are enlarged to any size or style by E. E. James, at bottom prices. Give him your orders now for the holidays.

Several warrants have been issued of late for persons charged with stealing horses. The logical conclusion is that some one is going to get into trouble.

The Colfax correspondent of the Spokane Review says that Mrs. John Muir, nee Miss Minnie Holt, of North Yakima, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hamilton of that place.

The syndicate, of which Edward Whitson is trustee, is building four handsome cottages on the blocks north of Yakima avenue, between Third street and Natchez avenue. They are being built for sale on easy terms, and two have already been sold.

The contest case of George W. Carey against the Curry heirs, which has been pending in the land office in various forms since 1845, was re-opened Tuesday morning, the decision of ex-Regis-ter Krutz having been reversed and a new hearing ordered by the department.

Several propositions have been received from Spokane by Phil Stanton for the privilege of selling pools on the track during the forthcoming races. Among the bidders is Billy Ayers, the well known pool auctioneer, who only loses on those tracks where plenty of sport is promised.

The women have already begun to make arrangements for a grand masquerade ball to be held on Christmas eve. They propose to make it the greatest entertainment of the kind ever given in central Washington, and for this reason they are beginning their preparations early, so as to give every one ample time to get up novel and dazzling costumes.

The United States court will convene at Walla Walla November 10th, and a deputy marshal from Spokane was here last week subpoenaing jurors, and among others the editor of THE HERALD had the misfortune to be caught in the toils. Yakima county will furnish fifteen jurors for trial under the charge of selling liquor to Indians.

You often see "State of Washington, County of Yakima, ss." It is to be found at the beginning of acknowledgments and other legal documents, but not one in a dozen can tell you what that ballistic "ss." is for. To be short and to the point, the abbreviation is a contraction of the Latin word "scilicet," which is also a contraction, having originally been written as "scilicet," neither of which, you will note, has more than one "s." The word "scilicet," or in its abbreviated state, is equivalent to the old English "to-wit," still widely used, the design of both being simply to call particular attention to what follows.

The state board of horticulture has decided to remove its headquarters from Tacoma to Seattle. Among the amendments to the state law proposed by the board is one abolishing the state inspector and appointing three additional inspectors, making nine in all. One of the new inspectors is to be from west of the mountains and two from east of the mountains. Each inspector is to have the same powers in his district as the state inspector now has. All new stock will be inspected, and none will be allowed to be sold without the seller having a certificate of inspection.

A gigantic enterprise to irrigate the Big Bend country and to shorten the Columbia river 100 miles has been started at Spokane. The scheme is to divert the water from the Columbia river into the Grand coulee, re-entering the Columbia just below Priest rapids. This will make a ship canal of sixty miles, but the cost will be only $300,000. The natural formation of the Grand coulee, which is one known to have been the Columbia river bed, makes the project feasible. With the Grand coulee thus turned into a navigable river, it is estimated that 2,000,000 acres of dry land to the south and west, for a distance of sixty miles, can be easily irrigated.

Ira M. Krutz was on Saturday last disbursed from practicing in the U. S. land court of this district through a written notification signed by the register and receiver. The charge under which the disbursement was made was that he had altered the official records of the office after his removal as register, and the specific instance was in the coal land cases, wherein he joined Receiver Hare in signing an opinion against the N. P. coal company, and subsequently, when no longer an official, removed his name from the document and wrote a dissenting opinion favoring the company's claim. Mr. Krutz was wild over the disbursement, and threatened the officers with personal and political vengeance.

Professor George S. Ricketts and wife, of Goshen, Indiana, who were on their way to the coast in search of health and relaxation from educational cares, have been spending a few days in the city this week, having been attracted here by favorable reports of climate and productions which they heard on the coast. Professor Ricketts says that Indiana is a sure democratic state this year and he estimates the plurality for Cleveland at 10,000. He claims that three factors will contribute to this result. First, dissatisfaction with Harrison and the republican administration; second, the powerful influence being exerted by Judge Greenham; and third, the adoption of the Australian ballot system, which will prevent any further crimes of the Dudley "blocks-of-five" pattern.

The rotary well machinery is now being used to deepen the well where flowing water was struck. By going an additional fifty feet the managers confidently expect to gain a greatly increased volume of water. The machine of the Yakima Land Co. is at present sinking a well about half a mile east of the Moxee store. It is down over three hundred feet and is encountering quicksand of a moist character, which has to be pumped out. Mr. Scudder feels satisfied that flowing water will be secured at that point, which is one which the government geologists strongly recommended as showing every indication of being in the artesian basin. Mr. Scudder says the experiment of boring has been a costly one, owing to lack of knowledge of the country and the machinery best adapted to this work, but the experience has been gained, and when water is struck in the present well it will demonstrate that the entire property of the company is within the artesian belt, and then they will purchase a machine which will enable them to sink the wells cheaply and successfully.

James Curran, of this city, was in Walla Walla last week attending the session of the Catholic Knights of America. He witnessed a "red republican blow-out and torchlight procession," and counted exactly thirty-eight torches in line. Friday was the day for democracy, and over five hundred loyal democratic torch bearers, with three bands, Roman candles, banners and transparencies, greeted Hon. H. J. Snively. The immense hall of the court house was inadequate to accommodate a third of those who desired to hear Mr. Snively, so Hon. H. S. Blandford and J. L. Sharpstein addressed the clamoring crowds on the outside. It is said to have been the greatest political demonstration ever held in eastern Washington, and Mr. Snively's speech was greeted by frequent applause and cheering.

A couple of weeks ago THE HERALD chronicled the fact that some men with flasks and a keg of whiskey were doing a land office saloon business from a wagon on the reservation, and that hundreds of intoxicated Indians was the result of the traffic. The man who furnished the team and wagon was captured, but as he took no part in the sale of the liquor, or did not share in the profits, he is simply being held as a witness, while a warrant is out for Jack Anderson, the chief conspirator. Anderson's stock-in-trade was a fifteen gallon keg of whiskey, and he is said to have made a fair start on the road to fortune—or McNeil's island.

W. A. Burgett, who claims Yakima as his home, and says he has resided here for eight or nine years, was arrested at Walla Walla last Friday night. He carried a big 45-caliber revolver, with which he threatened to shoot the officer. Burgett had a seed-bag at the time the officer pounced upon him, and it is supposed he was in waiting for some wayfarer. He is now in jail in default of $2500 bonds. D. E. Lesh and E. F. Benson, of Yakima, C. L. Dawson and J. W. Stewart, of Tacoma, have formed a co-partnership under the name of Lesh, Benson, Dawson & Co. for the sale of the Northern Pacific, Yakima & Kittitas Irrigation company's lands and to do a general real estate business. They have opened an office in the Hotel Yakima building and also one at 1219 Pacific avenue, Tacoma.

The races begin on Wednesday of next week, and a big time is predicted for Yakima. There will be many fast horses here, and it is expected that the town will be full of strangers. The opening day has been set aside as ladies' day, when the gentle sex will be admitted to the grounds free, and Saturday will be children's day. Mr. Sam Vinson has been named for president of the association, and J. D. Cornett for treasurer.

At the county democratic convention, Thomas G. Redfield was nominated for the office of justice of the peace of North Yakima precinct, but Mr. Redfield finding that his business requires all of his time and attention has declined the nomination, and the central committee has nominated Orlando Beck for the vacancy, and it is proposed to make him the next justice of the peace from the second ward.

George A. Matheson was married at the residence of J. T. Foster, Wednesday afternoon, August 19, to Miss Korah E. Stobie. Mr. Matheson is of the firm of Stobie & Matheson, contractors on the N. P., Y. & K. L. company's canal, and has many friends in this city and throughout the northwest. Rev. J. T. Eshelman officiated.

On Tuesday the registration books of the city showed 527 voters. This number, it is believed, will be increased to upwards of 600, which will be the greatest registration by 200 votes ever made here. The vote of the county is sure to exceed 1,400, and will probably be nearer 1,600. Two years ago the vote cast was 1,050.

Local hop buyers are quoting hops at 20¢@22¢, but there seems to be no disposition to sell. On London consignments 17 cents per pound is advanced, and it costs $3.30 per ton for transportation with insurance added. The market is stiffening all over, notwithstanding the alleged combine of buyers to bear the prices.

Marshal Henderson today removed the star from the breast of Officer Yeates. Mr. Yeates was one of the best police officers Yakima has ever had, and his deportation was without cause other than political. What has Mr. Weed to say now about "summary proceedings?"

During the present term of the superior court naturalization papers have been filed to E. J. Hamacher, Lewis Anderson, Michael Probach, John Richards, Claus Timm and William S. Mills.

Columbus day will be observed at the various schools of the city and county, Friday afternoon, with an impressive program. Patrons and friends of the schools are invited to be present.

The cards are out for the marriage of Miss Florence E. Witham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Witham, to Lewis A. Torson. The ceremony will take place this evening.

ARRIVED LAST NIGHT.

Professor Seward, the Celebrated New York Optician, at the Earlhotel.

The celebrated scientific optician, Professor Seward, of New York City, who has been expected here for some time has arrived and can be consulted at the Bartholot hotel during the next four or five days. Professor Seward has been making a tour of the north Pacific coast and has met with a grand success in every city he has visited. He is now on his return to New York, and can remain here a few days only, so that those who desire to have their eyesight carefully tested and fitted with proper glasses should take advantage of this unusual opportunity and call upon the Professor at once. Professor Seward stands at the head of his profession, and will probably not visit the Pacific coast again for many years. Professor Seward's work is endorsed by leading oculists and physicians throughout the United States. Among the home citizens who have had glasses and hearing and cheerfully recommend Professor Seward are Hon. T. M. Reed, State Auditor, Gen. Wm. McMicken, Olympia, Ellensburg, Dr. B. S. Scott, A. H. Stullfelt, editor Capital John F. Lloyd, F. S. Ross, D. J. Schnebly, editor Localizer, Dr. O. J. Croup, Dr. Woodworth and C. V. Warner; Tacoma, Dr. H. P. Tuttle, Dr. C. Van Winter, Dr. M. M. Dodge, Judge Galusha Parsons, Judge J. C. Stallcup, Judge Henry Ford, Allen C. Mason, W. B. Blackwell, president Tacoma National bank, Col. J. W. Pinkerton, Major Alfred Whyte, Senator Charles E. Claypool, and a thousand others equally well known, including those of Portland, Seattle and British Columbia.

Professor Seward has stopped here upon the assurance of Mr. J. T. Kingsbury and others that the citizens of North Yakima would be alive to their own interests and would take advantage of the opportunity so rarely offered. Office hours will be from 10 to 12 and 1 to 4 at the Bartholot hotel.

A Welcome Arrival. We are pleased to note the arrival at the Bartholot hotel of the eminent scientific optician of New York city, Professor F. D. Seward, who has been doing a grand work on the Pacific coast. He comes highly recommended by the most prominent citizens of the state and has stopped here at the urgent solicitation of our leading citizens. Professor Seward does not treat diseased eyes, but rather corrects all optical defects, as well as to assist failing sight. It is claimed that twenty cases of headache were cured by glasses alone in Olympia and a like number in Tacoma. Professor Seward's test case was made for his special use, and is said to be the most complete and finest in the world. Professor Seward arrived last night. He will remain until Monday or Tuesday. No doubt a great many will take advantage of this opportunity to have superior glasses properly adjusted.

Al. Katz says that there is little doubt now but what work on the N. P., Y. & K. Irrigation canal will be resumed by the first of the coming month. This is good news, and will contribute much towards the general prosperity of this section.

The democrats have been holding very successful meetings throughout the county, and T. M. Vance has been winning votes and golden opinions wherever he has held forth.

The body of Mrs. J. R. Patton was brought here from San Francisco Tuesday night and the funeral was held from the family residence this afternoon. F. S. Woodward received 500 feet of eight inch iron pipe Tuesday to be used in sinking an artesian well on his claim in the Moxee. Edward Whitson was a Seattle visitor this week.

One Pure Baking Powder.

Like Telling a Secret.

A story is told and it is a true story that over seventy per cent. of all the baking powders sold contain either alum or ammonia, and many of these powders contain both. The ill effects upon the system of food raised by alum or ammonia powders are the more dangerous because of their insidious character. It would be less dangerous for the people were it fatal at once, for then such food would be avoided, but their baneful action because imperceptible at first and slow in its advances, is no less certain.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is declared by all authorities as free from alum, ammonia or any other adulterant. Its purity has never been questioned, and while it does finer and better work, it costs no more at retail than many of the adulterated powders.

PRECINCT OFFICERS. Justice of the Peace Constable

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of Washington, entitled "An act to provide for voting on a constitutional amendment at the general election to be held in November, 1922," approved March 7, 1922, and house concurrent resolution No. 10, approved by the legislature of the state of Washington on March 7, 1922, that the following amendments to the constitution of the state of Washington will be submitted to the qualified electors of said state for their approval at the next general election.

That Section 1 of Article VIII of the constitution of the state of Washington be amended to read as follows: "The same may, for the purpose of constructing public buildings and other public works, and for the acquisition of lands, and for other purposes incident to said construction, incur debts in any amount not to exceed the aggregate 1 per cent of the value of the taxable property within the state, as shown by the assessment or county and state purposes last preceding the incurring of such debts; and may further contract, for any such purpose, debt not exceeding in the aggregate five hundred thousand dollars; and the moneys arising from the loans created by such debts shall be applied for the purpose or purposes for which they were obtained, or to any other purpose, and to no other purpose whatever."

At said election the electors voting to approve and ratify said amendment, shall vote "For" and the electors voting to disapprove or to reject said amendment shall vote "Against" or "No." The board of canvassers shall certify the result of the election, and the result of the election shall be final.

Which election will be opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and continue until 7 o'clock in the afternoon of the said day, September, 1922.

YAKIMA RACES! 1922. October 26, 27, 28, 29.

Table with race results for First Day, Second Day, Third Day, and Fourth Day. Columns include Trotting, Running, and various race classes with corresponding amounts.

CONDITIONS. Entrances in all purse races 10 per cent of the amount of purse. First entrance to enter and three to start. All entries in running races, to close with the secretary the night before the race takes place. Entries not accompanied by the money will not be recognized. Nominations to be made in writing, giving the name, age, color, sex, sire and dam (if known and what not known, that fact should be stated) and color of rider or driver. In case any race should fail to fill with five complete entries, the board has the power to reduce the amount of the purse as in their judgment seems proper. The board has and reserves the right to postpone races in case of inclement weather. Any horse detained in the field will be entitled to first and third moneys only. No money given for a walk over. In all races money to be divided 70, 20 and 10 per cent of purse. All running races to be governed by the rules of the Pacific Coast Blood Horse Association. All trotting races to be governed by the rules of the National Trotting Association. Entries for trotting and pacing races close October 16, at 6 o'clock P. M. Parties intending to be present at any of these meetings, and desiring stables for their horses, are requested to write the secretary in advance, stating what horses they have and what stalls they are likely to require. ## THE MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

Invite the Careful Attention of the Insuring Public to Their New Policy Contract, Which Offer the Following Distinct Advantages, viz:

- 1st. It provides for insurance during the whole term of life.
  - 2d. It requires only twenty annual premiums, after which it is a source of income to the insured.
  - 3d. It is absolutely non-forfeitable by virtue of law and policy contract, without any notice to company, or act on the part of the policy-holder.
  - 4th. It combines the elements of a savings bank with those of life insurance, thus enabling a policy-holder to insure his life and at the same time save a part or the whole of his premiums for his own use in old age.
  - 5th. It guarantees a cash surrender value on any anniversary of the date of policy, after two annual premiums have been paid.
  - 6th. It furnishes a plain and definite contract of insurance and is within the reach of all.
  - 7th. It enables the insured to determine his rights without appeal to experts or negotiations with the company; the values for each year being clearly stated in the policy.
  - 8th. It treats all policy-holders alike; there is no preferred class.
  - 9th. Dividends will be paid in cash or in addition to the policy as the insured may desire.
  - 10th. It is applicable to every condition and circumstance in life, and there is little that is desirable in life insurance that cannot be obtained under this policy.
- Under this policy you "pay as you go," stop without loss; stop with profit, or continue with greater profit.

IMPORTANT FACTS FOR POTATO GROWERS.

How to Obtain the Best Results—How is the Time to Prepare for Next Year's Crop.

Irrigation: Age: Another crop year has come and gone, and the potatoes are being harvested. It is well for every farmer in the irrigated west to reflect upon the work of the past season and lay plans for planting next spring. As the potatoes are dug they should be assorted as to varieties and size. The best specimens should be stored for seed next season in a suitable manner for keeping. Scabby potatoes no matter how fine the specimens, should be thrown away when dug and not even kept for seed.

The Virginia Agricultural college experiment station has discovered some valuable points which are recommended for potato growers. Cops grown from seed and marked new varieties, and also specimens of fine varieties grown from eyes or sprouts, show remarkable deterioration. Some varieties thus treated have almost become extinct by reason of degeneracy; this is explained by the lack of nourishment and strength in the small tubers. It may also be equally applicable to the planting of small tubers.

In this there is a wide difference of opinion, as some farmers report excellent crops from small potatoes planted whole. The best results, however, have been obtained from planting well proportioned, medium-sized tubers cut crosswise, leaving the healthy eyes upon the end with a sufficiency of potato to give vitality to the young sprouts. It is argued that the potato cut crosswise will sprout quicker, grow more thrifty and produce more early and abundantly. The argument is worthy of consideration, and it would be advisable for every potato grower to test this fact in mind when preparing the seed for next year.

An important matter for present consideration is the assorting and keeping till spring. A mixture of varieties is not advisable for cultivation. Some ripen earlier than others and thus interfere with the digging. Others are inferior and degenerate the better grades by a close proximity in growing. Varieties growing profusely in vines are not good to grow with those of less foliage. To remedy all these evils care should be exercised in selecting and caring for the seed this fall.

Pace News: With McGraw as governor and Loughton as leader of the republican majority in the legislature, it there should be a republican majority—the vice and crimes of the last legislature and the Loughton administration would pale into insignificance by comparison. Do the people really want to trust their interests to McGraw and Loughton again? This question is a practical one. It must be answered on November 8th.

CURIOS TRANSMISSIONS BY TELEGRAPHY.

It Will Go but a Little While Until You can Send Your Photograph by Telegraph.

A young French Chemist, M. Henri Courtonne, is credited with a new discovery, for which we have been looking to Mr. Edison. Sound being transmissible by telephone, M. Courtonne argued by a rigorous analogy that light might be transmitted, too. As the telephone consists of a transmitter, a wire and a receiver, so there was reason to believe that these three organs might be adapted for transmitting light vibrations, and for this purpose the transmitter and receiver should be prepared chemically for receiving and giving out light rather than sound vibrations. This was done by substituting sensitized photographic plates for the ordinary telephone plates.

One of the plates was placed in front of an aperture, through which an image was cast, and this image has been forwarded by wire and has been seen at the other end. The first apparatus was very imperfect, and M. Courtonne, having heard that Mr. Edison was on the track of a similar discovery, resolved to publish his experiments, a description of which he, however, sent in a sealed letter to the Academy in 1889. This letter is only to be opened at the sender's request. The Figaro says that the consequences of the telephotography cannot be overestimated. To-morrow, it says, you will see in Paris the image of a man smoking in St. Petersburg.

Pasco News: Is it a real kindness to the general manufacturer; interests of the coast to stimulate their growth as a home-grown force plants? G. Antioch, that some government aid may be wisely extended to "infant industries," has not the policy of the government passed far beyond that stage? Aiding an "infant industry" is one thing, and stimulating an overgrown business is quite another thing.

THE DISCOVERY OF CAPE COD.

How It Was Described in a Newspaper 500 Years Ago.

The following was printed in Bradford and Winslow's Journal of the Puritan settlers in 1621:
"Monday, the 13th November, we unshipped our shallop and put her on land. Our people went ashore to refresh themselves and our women to wash, as they had great need. With caution, directions and instructions sixteen men were set out, under the conduct of Captain Miles Standish, unto whom was adjointed for counsel William Bradford, Stephen Hopkins and Edward Tillyer.

"Every man had his musket, sword and corset, and when they had marched about the space of a mile by the sea they espied six people with a dog coming toward them, who were savages. But when the Indians saw our men coming they ran away with might and main. At length night came upon them and they were constrained to take up lodgings.

"In the morning we proceeded on our journey, supposing to find some dwellings of the savages. But we marched through boughs and bushes, and over hills and valleys, which tore our very armor to pieces, and yet we could find none of them nor their houses nor any fresh water, which we greatly desired and stood in need of, for we brought neither beer nor water with us, and our victuals were only biscuit and Holland cheese and a little bottle of aqua vitae, so we were sore athirst. About 10 o'clock we came into a deep valley, and there we saw a deer and found springs of fresh water, of which we were heartily glad, and sat us down and drank our first New England water with as much delight as we ever drunk drink in our lives."

Changes in Ireland and Scotland.
Fifty years ago Scotland had less than 2,000,000 people and Ireland contained nearly 6,000,000. Now the population of Ireland is 4,700,000, and Scotland contains, by the latest census, 4,025,647. It must not be supposed that Scotland has not lost by emigration, for, though fewer Scotch than Irish leave their native country, yet Scotland within a few years has lost several hundred thousand by emigration, and one result is seen in the fact that in many parts of the country the women greatly exceed the men in numbers. Glasgow has become the second city in the United Kingdom, and all the principal cities and towns of Scotland have grown marvelously during the last thirty years.

TO SURVEY THE GRAND COULEE.

Thousands of Acres of Land Being Purchased—Government Aid Will Be Demanded.

Spokane Spokesman: The Grand Coulee ship canal scheme is progressing favorably. In less than two weeks Mr. Goodin and Mr. Scott expect to establish its practicability beyond a doubt. Engineer J. H. Sturtevant, who has had considerable experience in canals, will commence the preliminary survey this week, and within ten days it is hoped to have sufficient knowledge of the elevations of the country to prove that this idea is feasible.

"The G and Coulee will have to be dug a distance of about five miles from a point in section 28, township 23," said Dr. Elmer, "to a small lake, and from there a series of lakes and rivers connect with the Columbia." Mr. Goodin, Mr. Scott and the doctor all agree that $5,000,000 will be ready when the engineers report is turned in if that much is necessary to improve it. With one-tenth of the water of the Columbia river it is proposed to make the finest ship canal in the world.

A number of prominent men in the state have been seen and it is believed that when the scheme is proved to be a practicable one, and after work has been begun, that an appropriation of at least half enough to improve it can be obtained from the state and government. The promoters of the new canal are more enthusiastic than ever, and steps are being taken to purchase a large quantity of land, that will become valuable as soon as water is turned on it.

A $5,000 Collection of Cats.

Dr. Susan Jamesway Colman, of Germantown, Pa., owns a unique collection of cats which she values at $5,000. There are twenty-two of her pets, and among them are included Sk e, Gaziber and Leathe called To-kib cats, sailless Manx pussies, white Maltese, yellow Persian and English Tiger cats. All are remarkable either for beauty or pedigree. Since she inherited her father's fortune in 1883 Dr. Colman has not practiced medicine.

The best way to avoid scalp diseases, hair falling out, and premature baldness is to use the best preventative known for that purpose—Hall's hair renewer.

SORE THROAT

Bronchitis, colds, coughs, asthma, and even consumption, in the early stages, yield to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Singers, actors, auctioneers, public speakers, clergymen, teachers, lecturers, and all who are liable to disorder of the vocal organs, find a sure remedy in this wonderful and well-known preparation. As an emergency medicine, in cases of hoarseness, whooping cough, etc., it should be in every household.

Two years ago I suffered severely from a attack of sore throat

And Bronchitis

It seemed as if I could not survive, all the usual remedies proving of no avail. At last I thought of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and after taking two bottles of this medicine I was restored to health. —Chas. Gambel, Smith's Ranch, Sonoma Co., Cal.

Cured By Using

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It leads all others. "In January, 1894, I was taken down with measles and sore throat, and exposing myself to the cold, caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs. I was forced to take my bed and was so ill that the doctors declared of my recovery, supposing me to be in quick consumption. Change of climate was recommended, but I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and soon found relief. After using several bottles, I was well and got on my feet as well and rugged as ever." —John P. Mr. A. C. Walker has received his reward for his steadfast adherence to the republican party, by appointment as post-master at Zillah. His commission arrived this morning, and he will at once assume the duties of his office.

Remember that Hon. L. H. Plattor speaks at Mason's opera-house Saturday night. THE HERALD can assure the people that while Mr. Plattor is a brilliant speaker his address will be loaded down with sound argument, which every voter should hear. Mr. Plattor is of the salt of this earth.

Senator John Sherman, in his Cooper Union speech, New York, pledged his word to the bankers of Wall street that "President Harrison would veto any free silver measure, while Grover Cleveland, if elected, would be obliged to stand by his party's platform." Will free silver men give Harrison their votes in Washington?

M. V. B. Stacy, of Seattle, spent several days in the city this week investigating the feasibility of the proposed narrow gauge road up the Ahtanum. In this connection, Al Katz, of the firm of Katz & Smith, made a trip to the headwaters of the Ahtanum looking after timber for ties. Ten miles above the mill he found a foot of snow.

The candidacy of John H. McGraw is of itself an offense to every voter who believes in political virtue and despises political vice; every voter who is a patriot before he is a partisan. No man, acquainted with McGraw's history, can believe that it would be a wise or even a safe thing to elect him governor of the state. If voters, instead of blindly voting their party ticket, would carefully and conscientiously inform themselves as to the character of this candidate, he would be beaten by a majority of thousands.

A packed audience at Mason's opera house Saturday evening will be a fitting testimonial to the brilliancy and power of Hon. L. H. Plattor's address. Let's give this splendid orator a rousing reception.

While T. M. Vance and J. R. Coe were coming up from Konewock, Wednesday night, their buggy was overturned through failure to strike the right road in the darkness. Mr. Coe was somewhat injured, one of his arms being sprained, and he was left for repairs at the residence of M. B. Curtis, where Dr. Coe is to-day looking after his physical damages.

McGraw and his managers have now practically abandoned the state at large, and while keeping up a desultory fight, propose to concentrate their strength on King county, and on the ditch question whip every voter into line. On good authority, it is reported that they are willing and offering to trade anything from the presidential electors down for McGraw votes and are openly making this play.

The republican parade Wednesday night was the smallest of the campaign. There were only 121 torches in line all told, fully a third of which were carried by kids, many of whom will not arrive at a voting age for ten or twelve years. It was very depressing especially when a number of youngsters in the procession persisted in shouting for Cleveland. There were a good many people in town who were brought here from the country on the announcement that John B. Allen and Will Visscher would be present, and the managers of the republican campaign encouraged this delusion on Wednesday, after it was known that these speakers would not be here, by circulating handbills stating that Allen and Visscher would speak that night. Mr. Fishback, of Seattle, occupied the platform and entertained the good sized audience present.
