2. I am a registered voter in King County.

3. I am a 19 year old student at Cascadia College. This was to be my first year voting-- something I was very excited about.

4. I received and voted an absentee ballot in the 2004 primary election.

5. I received and voted an absentee ballot for the 2004 general election.

6. After returning my absentee ballot, I received notice from King County that I had failed to sign my ballot.

7. On or about November 16, 2004, I signed documentation which would salvage my vote and gave it to a volunteer with the Gregoire for Governor campaign to file with King County. I was eager to sign the documents because as a first time voter, I wanted to make sure that my vote counted.

8. Since the election, I have followed up with King County and learned that my absentee ballot was not counted.

DATED this 3 day of December, 2004 in Seattle, Washington.
