Introduction

I’m pleased to present you this special 2016 Presidential Primary Voters’ Pamphlet.

This year’s Presidential Primary season has drawn an unusually high level of voter and media interest across the country—and now it’s our turn to have our voices heard.

This pamphlet provides information from the candidates about their background and views, along with contact information for their campaigns.

You may be unfamiliar with our Presidential Primary, since we have not had one for eight years. The primary was created in 1989 as a citizens’ Initiative to the Legislature. The Presidential Primary is the only Washington State election in which you are required to select a political party.

Our state also has a caucus process. Democrats have chosen to use the caucus process to allocate their national convention delegates; Republicans will use the results of this primary to allocate theirs.

Candidates from both parties will appear on your primary ballot. It is important to note that you are required to declare a party for the primary contest you’re voting in. The declarations, written by the parties, appear on the return envelope. Without your signature and party selection, your vote cannot be counted.

All registered Washington voters are urged to take part in this election. We recommend that you return your ballot to a drop box in advance of the May 24 deadline.

Mark Neary
Assistant Secretary of State
Voting in the Presidential Primary

Your ballot will be mailed by May 6.

1. Read the declarations on your return envelope.
2. Mark one political party declaration box (required).
3. Sign and date the declarations (required).
4. Vote for one candidate from the political party you marked in Step 2.

Follow steps shown on the insert included in your ballot packet to return your voted ballot.

Your vote will not count unless you mark one party declaration and sign.

Washington voters do not declare a party preference when we register to vote. For the Presidential Primary only, the major political parties require voters to subscribe to a specific party declaration. For 2016, both the Republican and Democratic parties submitted party declarations for the Presidential Primary. You must sign a political party declaration on the ballot return envelope. The declaration signed must match your voted candidate’s political party.
Voter Registration Qualifications

You must be at least 18 years old, a U.S. citizen, a resident of Washington State, and not under Department of Corrections supervision for a Washington State felony conviction. The online and mail-in voter registration and address update deadline has passed. Submit your registration or address update for the next election at vote.wa.gov.

New voters may register in person until May 16 at your county elections department. Military voters are exempt from registration deadlines.

Elected Experience
As senator from New York, Hillary expanded health care access for 9/11 responders and veterans, and worked to revitalize rural communities.

Other Professional Experience
From advocating for children as a young lawyer to defending human rights around the world as Secretary of State, Hillary has dedicated her career to fighting for children and families.

Education
As a Yale Law student, Hillary defended children against abuse, addressed systemic racism, and provided free legal help to those who couldn’t afford it.

Community Service
From fighting to expand education for Arkansas’ poorest children to helping provide health insurance to 8 million children, Hillary’s devoted her life to serving others.

Statement
I’m running for president because I believe we need to tear down all the barriers that prevent Americans from reaching our full potential. It’s important that Wall Street never again threatens Main Street. But America isn’t a single-issue country, and we need more than a plan for the biggest banks. The middle class needs a raise. We need more good jobs that pay well and can’t be outsourced, that provide dignity and a path to a brighter future. We can create those good jobs by building on the progress we’ve made under President Obama. Let’s make new investments in manufacturing, small business, scientific research and enough clean energy to power every home in America.

Let’s break down the barriers that keep people on the sidelines of our economy, especially women. We’ve waited long enough for quality, affordable childcare and paid family and medical leave, and equal pay. Let’s break down the barriers that stop our young people from getting the best possible start in life. We need to support great teachers and great schools in every ZIP code, make college more affordable, and help relieve the crushing burden of student debt. Let’s take on the epidemic of gun violence in America. We also have to face the reality of systemic racism that, more than a half a century after Rosa Parks sat and Dr. King marched and John Lewis bled, still plays a significant role in determining who gets ahead in America and who gets left behind. We have to invest in communities of color and reform our broken criminal justice and immigration systems. We have to guarantee opportunity, dignity, and justice for every American.

The future we want is within our grasp—let’s build it together.

Statement
I am asking people not simply to support my candidacy for president, but to be part of a movement of millions of Americans who stand up and say loudly and clearly that this country and our government belong to all of us, and not just a handful of wealthy campaign contributors and large corporations. To my mind, this is the only way to address the major economic, political, social, racial and environmental challenges facing our country.

Given the serious crises this country faces, now is not the time for the same old establishment politics. I am running for President to fight income inequality, create millions of jobs, raise wages, and provide health care for all Americans as a human right. Together, our movement will make public colleges and universities tuition-free, combat climate change, reform a broken criminal justice system, ensure equal pay, and reclaim our democracy from the billionaires who are buying our elections.

We need an economy and a system of justice that works for all Americans, not just the people on top. We need a political revolution demanding our government represents us all, not just the top 1%. If we stand together, there is nothing we cannot accomplish.
Ben Carson publicly suspended his campaign on March 4, however the candidate did not submit a Withdrawal of Candidacy.

This candidate did not submit a candidate statement.

Statement
Ted Cruz has proven to be a passionate and effective fighter for limited government, economic growth, and the Constitution.

Ted’s calling to public service has been inspired by his first-hand observation of the pursuit of freedom and opportunity in America. Ted’s mother was born in Delaware to an Irish and Italian working-class family. She became the first in her family to go to college. Ted’s father fled to the United States in 1957, after having been tortured and imprisoned in Cuba. Today, Ted has been a tireless fighter for liberty his entire life because his family knows what it is like to lose it.

As Solicitor General for the State of Texas and in private practice, Ted authored more than 80 U.S. Supreme Court briefs and argued 43 oral arguments, including nine before the U.S. Supreme Court, and has won an unprecedented series of landmark national victories including defending U.S. sovereignty against the UN and the World Court, defending our Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms, defending the constitutionality of the Ten Commandments monument at the Texas State Capitol and the words “under God” in the Pledge of Allegiance.

In the U.S. Senate, Ted has led the fight to repeal Obamacare, to stop President Obama’s illegal and unconstitutional executive amnesty, and to defend life, marriage, the First Amendment, the Second Amendment, and our entire Bill of Rights. And most important, he’s kept his promise to speak the truth and do what he said he’d do.

Ted, his wife Heidi, their two daughters, and his entire family have been blessed to live the American Dream — the idea that anyone, through hard work and determination, can achieve anything. And he is committed to ensuring every family has that same opportunity.

Husband, father, friend, person of faith, leader, change agent. John Kasich is a lot of things. Through them all runs his honest, direct, authentic, tenacious approach to life that has allowed him, time and again, to do what they said couldn’t be done.

Statement
John Kasich doesn’t just talk the talk, he walks the walk. Only one candidate for president knows what it takes to shake-up the system and lift America. Why? Because he’s done it. In Washington DC he was the chief architect of four balanced budgets--the first time that had happened since 1969 and it hasn’t happened since. As governor of Ohio, he eliminated the largest budget shortfall in state history all while cutting taxes by $5 billion. As a result, Ohio has become one of the top job creators in America.

As president, John Kasich is prepared to shift power, money and influence back to where it belongs -- the states.

Growing up in McKees Rocks, Pennsylvania, a working-class town near Pittsburgh, John Kasich learned the importance of lending a hand-up, not a hand out. By growing the economy, he has successfully improved care for those struggling with mental illness, addiction and the working poor. He’s fought against human trafficking and transformed how Ohio approaches community-police relations. Consistently, John Kasich has turned aside from the politics of division that gets us nowhere.

America needs a leader who has the strength, ability and courage to unite our nation and make our country better for our children and grandchildren. John Kasich is that leader.

Statement
Donald J. Trump wants to Make America Great Again. He believes we need to reestablish our proper place in the world by steering our government away from special interests and introducing policies that will put money in people’s pockets, restore love of country and raise our status in the world.

Mr. Trump believes in free markets, the importance of a strong family, a culture of Life, a strong military and our country’s sacred obligation to take care of our veterans and their families.

Our country has been poorly served by the political class who value their self-interest over the interests of the United States and its citizens. Mr. Trump vows to end the corrupting influence of special interests once and for all.

Under a Trump Administration, American will begin winning again. No longer will China, Mexico, Japan and other countries manipulate their currencies in order to benefit their citizens at the expense of our citizens.

We need free and fair trade. We must restore the integrity of our national borders. A country cannot exist without strong borders. We will welcome international visitors, but we must build a wall to protect our southern border.

Our Federal tax burden inhibits economic growth and takes too much from hard working Americans. We must reduce the burden by lowering rates, eliminating loopholes, and simplifying the tax code.

We must pay particular attention to fixing our corporate tax structure so capital and jobs will come back to America. We will rebuild our military, return education to the parents and students, make college affordable and make sure we fix our healthcare system by getting rid of Obamacare and replacing it with free market solutions.

We will protect the Second Amendment and will defend religious liberty for all. Together, we will Make America Great Again.
Voting in Washington State

VOTING FOR THE FIRST TIME IN WASHINGTON?

Welcome to Washington! As a new resident or voter in the state, you can register to vote online, by mail, in person, or when you get your new state driver license or ID at the Department of Licensing.

You may not vote in multiple states. Be sure to cancel any previous voter registration before you register in Washington. You do not have to declare a party affiliation when you register to vote in Washington.

REGISTER TO VOTE
You can register in person at your local elections office or online at myvote.wa.gov.
