You may use up to 4 headings, each 15 words or less. Headings are calculated as part of the total word count.

Tables, lists, and bullets are not allowed. Text must be written in paragraphs. No more than 5 paragraphs are allowed for arguments. The body of your argument may not include bold, underlining, or all caps. Only italics are permitted for emphasis. Headings will be printed in bold type.

URLs for websites, Facebook pages, blogs, etc. are not permitted in the argument or rebuttal sections; each committee may list one URL in their contact information section.

Once submitted, arguments cannot be changed by the committee unless requested by the Office of the Secretary of State (OSOS) or court order.

Committee roster

The initial 2 members of each committee are appointed by the Lt. Governor and the Speaker of the House. You may have up to 6 committee members total. Submit your committee roster with your argument. Names will be printed in the order submitted on the roster.

Each committee member may use up to 8 words as a title or identification. Current legislators must list their titles as “State Representative” or “State Senator”. Please place other honorifics (such as “Dr.”) after the name.

Examples:

Warren G. Magnuson, State Representative, Democrat, Seattle
C. Everett Koop, M.D., former United States Surgeon General
Russell Blankenship, Professor Emeritus, University of Washington

Contact information

Each committee may submit contact information consisting of a telephone number, an email address and a website URL for publication. This information does not count toward any word limits.

Rebuttals may consist of up to 75 words. Only 1 paragraph is allowed with no headings.

Rebuttals may not include bold, underlining, or all caps. Only italics are permitted for emphasis.
