BRAILLE PROOFREADING MONITOR

The Washington Talking Book & Braille Library (WTBBL) builds community and provides equitable access to information and reading materials for Washington residents unable to read standard print. WTBBL has more than 200 volunteers working with us and we are proud of their passion to work in an organization that values and promotes diversity, equity, inclusion and anti-racism.

VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION:

The sighted proofreading monitor partners with a tactile braille proofreader to ensure that the braille version of a book matches the print version. The proofreading monitor follows the print copy and listens closely to the tactile proofreader to ensure the braille matches the print text. All work is done onsite at WTBBL in downtown Seattle with free parking provided and all volunteers must present proof of the primary series of COVID vaccinations.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Follow the print copy and listen while the braille proofreader reads the text aloud.
- Indicate any discrepancies and mark the errors for correction.

QUALIFICATIONS & SKILLS:

- Strong listening skills.
- Strong attention to detail.
- Fast response time to note a discrepancy.
- Ability to work in a team and maintain a consistent schedule.

TIME COMMITMENT:

Minimum 2 hours weekly, Monday through Friday between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.
