WASHINGTON
Secretary of State

Ballots mailed out by October 21

1 (800) 448-4881 | sos.wa.gov

On behalf of the Office of the Secretary of State, thank you for participating in our democratic process. I am pleased to present the 2022 General Election Voters’ Pamphlet to help you make informed decisions as you exercise your right to vote. This guide includes information about voting, and the candidates and measures that appear on your ballot.

Before you can participate, you must be registered to vote. Voter registration forms that are mailed or completed online must be received by Oct. 31, and we encourage you to review your registration information today at VoteWA.gov. After Oct. 31, you must visit an elections office or voting center during regular business hours or until 8 p.m. on Election Day, Nov. 8, to register to vote or update your registration and receive a ballot.

After you have voted your ballot, be sure to sign the return envelope. Your signature is important because election officials check that your signature matches the one on your voter registration record before they count your ballot. Next, return your ballot. If returning by U.S. mail — no postage needed — remember that ballots must be postmarked by Nov. 8 in order to be counted. You can also use an official ballot drop box anywhere in the state. Drop boxes are open until 8 p.m. on Election Day. Check VoteWA.gov to locate a ballot drop box or see the status of your ballot.

By voting, you are making your voice heard.

Sincerely,

Trova O’Heffernan
Assistant Secretary of State

Future # Voter

Sign up online at VoteWA.gov with your Washington state driver's license, permit or ID. Or, you can fill out a paper registration form using the last four digits of your Social Security number and mail it in. You'll be automatically registered to vote when you qualify.

Every January on Temperance and Good Citizenship Day, high school students 16 and older have the opportunity to complete a voter registration form in class.

How do I vote and return my ballot?

1 If you're registered to vote, there is no need to request a ballot. Your ballot will be mailed by October 21 to the address you provide on your voter registration. If you need a replacement ballot, contact a county elections office listed at the end of this pamphlet.

2 Vote your ballot and sign your return envelope. We need your signature to accept your ballot. You are not required to vote every race on your ballot. We encourage using this pamphlet to help you decide.

3 Return your ballot by mail, no stamp needed. If mailed, your ballot must be postmarked by November 8. Don't let a late postmark disqualify your ballot. The USPS recommends that you mail a week before Election Day.

Or, return your ballot to an official ballot drop box. Drop boxes are open until 8 p.m. on November 8. Find drop box locations at VoteWA.gov.

Or

If you cannot personally return your ballot, let only people you trust deliver it for you.

Election staff will contact you before your ballot is processed if:

- Your signature is missing
- Your signature doesn't match your voter registration record

View election results online

After 8 p.m. on election night, tallied results from each county are posted at results.vote.wa.gov.

Results are updated as counties report and unofficial until certification.

Your district may have changed

Every 10 years, following the U.S. Census, legislative and congressional district boundaries are redrawn in a process called redistricting.

Redistricting ensures that each district has about the same number of people, which means equal representation in government.

As a result of redistricting, you may have been assigned to a new legislative or congressional district.

If you have changed districts, you will vote on different legislative or congressional races, beginning this year.

For more information about new district boundaries or the redistricting process, visit www.redistricting.wa.gov.

How do I know if something is true?

When reviewing online or printed information, think about:

- Who made this, and who is it for?
- Why did they make it?
- When was this made?
- What makes it believable?
- How might other people read this message?
- Ask the experts — consult a fact-checking site or ask an official source. Get trusted info from your county auditor or elections office.

i Advisory votes are the result of Initiative 960, approved by voters in 2007. The Office of the Secretary of State publishes the Attorney General's advisory vote description according to RCW 29A.72.283.

You are advising the Legislature if you do or do not favor a tax increase passed during the recent legislative session.

Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2076

The legislature imposed, without a vote of the people, premiums on “transportation network companies” to provide workers compensation to their drivers, costing an indeterminate amount in its first ten years, for government spending.

This tax increase should be:

- Repealed
- Maintained

Ten-Year Projection

Provided by the Office of Financial Management
For more information visit www.ofm.wa.gov/ballot

Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2076 (ESHB 2076) Narrative Explanation (required for Indeterminate Cash Receipts)
Section 1 requires transportation network companies (TNCs) to remit $0.15 of every passenger fare quarterly to the newly created Driver Resource Center Fund beginning July 1, 2024. How much is collected will change each January 1 because remittance will be adjusted each year based on inflation. In addition, the Department of Labor & Industries has no way to predict how many passenger fares will be remitted or how many TNCs will be subject to interest and penalties due to failing to remit payments by the deadlines. For these reasons, fiscal impact associated with section 1 is indeterminate. Section 11 of the bill directs L&I to assess premiums for TNC drivers only for hours while the driver is engaged in passenger platform time and dispatch platform time effective January 1, 2023. These premiums would be used for potential future claims and would be deposited in the Accident and Medical Aid Accounts. L&I anticipates that there would be additional claims filed by these workers and L&I would receive additional premiums for this coverage. However, there is not sufficient data on these workers to determine the volume of additional claims or the level of additional premiums. This section of the bill is indeterminate.

Federal Qualifications & Responsibilities

Except for the President and Vice President, all federal officials elected in Washington must be residents of the state. Only federal offices have age requirements above and beyond being a registered voter.

Congress

The United States' Senate and House of Representatives have equal responsibility for declaring war, maintaining the armed forces, assessing taxes, borrowing money, minting currency, regulating commerce, and making all laws and budgets necessary for the operation of government.

United States Senator

Senators must be at least 30 years old and citizens of the U.S. for at least nine years. Senators serve six-year terms. The Senate has 100 members; two from each state.

The Senate has several exclusive powers, including consenting to treaties, confirming federal appointments made by the President, and trying federal officials impeached by the House of Representatives.

United States Representative

Representatives must be at least 25 years old and citizens of the U.S. for at least seven years. Representatives are not required to be registered voters of their district, but must reside in the state. Representatives serve two-year terms.

The House of Representatives has 435 members, all of whom are up for election in even-numbered years. Each state has a different number of members based on population. After the 2010 Census, Washington was given a 10th Congressional District.

Statement

These last few years have been some of the toughest for our state that I can remember. But that has only made me more determined to be a strong voice in the other Washington for our workers and families—one who listens to the people of our state first and foremost, and always stands up for our values and priorities.

As your Senator, I focus on results and concrete ways I can make life better for people in our state. I led the Senate in passing legislation last year to get our kids back into the classroom safely, make COVID vaccines available to everyone who needed them, and help small businesses and families make ends meet through difficult times.

Right afterward, I got to work to help pass the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law, which will create good-paying union jobs in every part of our state, improve public transit, expand lower-cost clean energy, establish universal broadband, and upgrade our bridges, ferries, and ports to strengthen supply chains.

And, I negotiated a bipartisan budget that funds local priorities Washington workers and families like you have told me about, like helping veterans find housing and expanding job training.

I will always stand up to those who want to roll back workers' rights, jeopardize American democracy, or ban abortions. I believe the economy should work for everyone in our state, not just those at the very top. Instead of tax cuts for the rich, I want to lower families' costs for basics like health care and child care—make housing, college, and career and technical education more affordable, and invest in American manufacturing to bring good jobs back home.

I ask for your vote so I can keep fighting for you and everyone here in Washington state.

Statement

Tiffany Smiley grew up on a farm in rural Washington and dreamed of becoming a nurse. When she married her high school sweetheart, Scotty Smiley, and achieved her goal of becoming a triage nurse it seemed she'd achieved her version of the American Dream. That dream was shattered in April of 2005 when she was informed that her husband had been blinded by a suicide car bomber in Mosul, Iraq. At 23, Tiffany quit her nursing job and flew to Walter Reed Army Medical Center to be by Scotty's side.

At Walter Reed, Tiffany had to stand up to the federal government and fight for Scotty, his dreams and the care he had earned. For Tiffany, her experience with the military bureaucracy highlighted the challenges facing many service members and their families. Tiffany became their voice, going to Capitol Hill and meeting with anyone who would listen to her. She built coalitions with members from both sides of the aisle which ultimately resulted in real reform of the VA to help the catastrophically injured and their caregivers.

Drawing on her experiences as a veteran's advocate, Tiffany will build coalitions and work for policies that improve public safety and protect Washington families, combat spiraling gas prices and the inflation that's hurting the middle class and address the homeless crisis plaguing our communities. Tiffany will be a strong supporter of our men and women in law enforcement whose sacrifices keep our streets safe and allow Washington communities to thrive. As the mother of three school-age boys, Tiffany will invest in our schools to provide every child with a brighter future. Tiffany has earned the endorsement of the Washington State Republican Party. From a small farm in Eastern Washington to the nation's capital, Tiffany will be a voice for all of Washington.

Statement

I'm proud of being recognized as one of the Representatives in Congress most committed to bringing people together, even working with people with whom I disagree. But too many people in our area are suffering because Mitch McConnell and Donald Trump believe that blocking progress may help them win elections.

My priority is helping folks in our community. People in our area are being squeezed by inflation. I've voted to crack down on price gouging by oil companies and lower gas prices. I helped write legislation to reduce dependence on China and boost manufacturing in America, which would reduce inflation. I voted to make prescription drugs more affordable and expand Social Security to provide relief from rising prices. I voted to protect a woman's right to choose and prevent any state from putting a woman or her doctor in prison. I voted to prevent voter suppression and protect voting rights. Unfortunately, McConnell is blocking all of those things from becoming law. No wonder folks are frustrated that Washington DC isn't doing enough to help people in our Washington.

I'm running for Congress to stand up for reform – to reduce the role of big money in politics, ban members of Congress from buying stocks, and stop Members from being paid if they don't do their jobs and pass a budget.

I'm running to get government working again for people – to clean up Puget Sound, expand Social Security, lower the cost of housing and reduce homelessness, keep our neighborhoods safe for everyone by funding police, and support local small businesses. I'll fight back against McConnell and Trump so we can make progress.

I grew up on the Olympic Peninsula, the son of two teachers. I'm committed to helping people in our area who are struggling. I ask for your vote.

Statement

My candidacy isn't about me. It's about America and Americans, Washington and Washingtonians--people like you and me who live here, and love it here.

Most of us sense America's headed the wrong direction. Crime and homelessness are surging. Public safety's threatened. Businesses are suffering. Inflation is the highest in 40 years. We all feel pain at the grocery store and gas pump. Biden's administration isn't solving the problem--it is the problem. Congress isn't doing its job.

2022 is pivotal. I'm fighting for this District, to defend what we all love: Strong Families, Strong Communities, Strong Country. That means: Restoring public safety by supporting our police and military; Rebuilding our economy by lowering taxes and debt; Eradicating homelessness; Protecting America's sovereignty and our workers' livelihoods; Preserving Constitutional freedoms; and Reclaiming parental authority over their children's education.

I'm not a career politician and never intended to be. I was asked to run, for what others saw in me: commonsense leadership with a moral compass, combined with a skillset and professional background that delivers what's needed now: a gift for sizing up problems, communicating effectively, and engaging productively to get things done right, and get the right things done.

The Democrats' agenda is corrosive from within. It's rewarded destructive behaviors, and spawned crushing debt. House Democrats are off course, and our current Representative votes in lockstep with the worst of them, as if we were Seattle. (We're not). The House has been rife with dirty tricks, but it stops now.

I'm a Mom on a Mission to Clean Up The House in D.C. As the only endorsed Republican candidate in this race, (having earned the unprecedented early endorsement of the Washington State and County Republican Parties, current and former legislators, community, military, and law enforcement leaders), I ask for your vote.

Statement

You sent me to Congress because you knew I would advocate for you the same way I stood up for children and families for over 20 years as a pediatrician. I promised to be an independent and effective voice for our district, someone willing to work with both parties to deliver real results that matter. I've helped pass laws to bring down costs for working families, to get Veterans the quality healthcare they deserve, and to support training and resources for local police because everyone deserves to feel safe in our community.

As the only pediatrician in Congress, I've helped pass laws to actually bring down the cost of lifesaving prescription drugs, like insulin. I will work to make healthcare and other everyday costs more affordable for middle class families. As a doctor, I will always fight to protect a woman's right to choose and to keep politicians out of private decisions between a woman and her doctor.

I am the only member of Congress from the Pacific Northwest on the Agriculture Committee. I have worked with both parties on behalf of our farming communities to support trade, encourage sustainable agriculture, advocate for commonsense immigration reform, and fix supply chain disruptions so farmers can get their goods to market. I will continue to champion responsible stewardship of our cherished public lands, clean air, and water.

With nearly 100 town halls, I've listened, I've learned, and I've gone to bat for you in Congress. It is an honor to serve you and I humbly ask for your vote.

Endorsements: League of Conservation Voters, Washington State Labor Council, Planned Parenthood Action Fund, Alliance for Gun Responsibility, and mayors across the district, including Auburn Mayor Backus, Issaquah Mayor Pauly, and North Bend Mayor McFarland.

Statement

I'm running for Congress because we all deserve a better, safer, Washington to raise our families in. As a father of 4 young children, Christian, business owner, former White House staffer, and prosecutor, I have a uniquely qualified perspective on the problems plaguing our state. My roots run deep in Washington---I was born and raised here. My family has lived here for 165 years. We own a 3rd generation, manufacturing company, employing over 600 people, making products in the USA which bring clean water to people globally.

Washington is heading in the wrong direction. Enabling policies and our crisis at the border have led to skyrocketing crime, homelessness, and drug abuse. Our state desperately needs a leader to tackle these issues.

We need to give parents back their voices in their children's education. We need to lower inflation so families can pay bills and fill their gas tanks. We need to ensure free, fair elections and a strong national defense which starts with energy independence.

Together we will reign in federal spending, Make Crime Illegal Again, take back our streets and parks, and restore hope for everyday Americans. I'm a hard worker who will never stop fighting for Washington families—it's time to roll up our sleeves and get to work!

I'm proudly endorsed by the Pierce and Snohomish County Republican Parties, Seattle Police Officers Guild, WA Young Republicans, Snohomish County Sheriff Adam Fortney and the Pierce County Sheriff, former WA Treasurer Duane Davidson, former WA Attorney General, Senators Phil Fortunato and Jim McCune, Representatives Carolyn Eslick and Robert Sutherland, former King County Councilwoman Kathy Lambert, Pierce County Councilwoman Amy Cruver, First Responders, Health Care Professionals, Radio Talk Show Hosts, Businesses, Teachers, Veterans and many others.

Washington deserves a Congressman who'll fight for them---because Washington is worth fighting for!

Statement

It is my honor to represent Washington's 10th Congressional District. My team and I work hard every day for a nation that is more safe, more just, and more secure for all people. To date, we've recovered more than $5 million in Social Security, veterans benefits, and tax refunds for district residents and will continue to advocate for you so the government fulfills its responsibility to serve you.

Raised in a South Sound military family, I'm proud to be the first African American and Korean American member of our delegation. Challenging times require proven leadership, and I work to deliver for our community. I've voted to lower prescription drugs costs, cap insulin costs at $35 per month, end surprise medical bills, invest in apprenticeships, hold oil companies accountable for price gouging, support our active duty military families and veterans, protect women's reproductive freedom, and advance commonsense gun safety laws.

Since being sworn in January 2021, I've worked with both parties to create jobs and bring billions of dollars to fix our roads and bridges, improve internet access, provide clean water, expand transit and electric vehicle charging stations, and provide direct relief to families and small businesses most impacted by the pandemic. I will continue to fight for voting rights, investments in education, expanded access to health care, and affordable housing. I will protect Social Security so people can retire with dignity, and will continue to advocate for more funding to protect and restore Puget Sound.

I'm proud to be endorsed by the Washington State Labor Council, the Sierra Club, the Alliance for Gun Responsibility, and respected leaders in business, local government, and the human services, education and faith communities. I humbly ask for your vote, and the opportunity to continue representing you as the South Sound's voice in Congress.

Community Service

Statement

If you're like me, you've watched in frustration as our elected leaders presided over the largest crime increases in decades, economic inflation, higher gas, food and housing prices, food and baby formula shortages, and a retreat from Afghanistan so disorganized and humiliating it immediately emboldened our enemies, negatively impacting our national security and standing worldwide.

The good news is I'll help put the brakes on inflationary government spending, lowering the cost of everyday products Americans need while also streamlining critical supply chain infrastructure and regulations, delivering goods and energy at lower prices.

We can increase public safety by keeping violent offenders in jail, and prevent human trafficking and deadly opiates from destroying our communities by securing the border. I'll oppose government overreach and defend civil liberties enshrined in the Bill of Rights. As a proud veteran, I know we must hold Pentagon and V.A. leadership accountable to honor our obligations and secure our nation.

According to an independent analysis by ProPublica, Marilyn Strickland votes 100% percent of the time with Nancy Pelosi on major votes. That's unacceptable. Most people agree poor leadership in Congress is eroding the country. I support term limits as well as banning politicians and judges from conflicts of interest like trading stocks.

I believe you deserve to have your rights and safety protected as much as the "elites" that influence our political system. I've been shot at, spit on, punched, kicked and stabbed while fulfilling my duty to protect the public. After facing down and arresting some of the most violent criminals in the country as a police officer, I've got no problem saying "no" to lobbyists and special interests in the other Washington. I'd be honored to fight for you in Congress and ensure you and your family are protected. Let's get started!

A Rotarian (Paul Harris Fellow), Navy League member, and adoptive parent of YWAM's Adoption Ministry in Ethiopia, Jesse serves on the board of Harbor Hope Center fighting teenage homelessness on the peninsula.

Statement

Everyone deserves a thriving economy, transparent government, and the right to be safe from crime and fear. That's why I'm now running for State Senate. I will continue working tirelessly to stand up for our rights, our children's future, and our first responders – and I'm proud to be strongly endorsed by our police unions.

Growing up on the streets of Tacoma and experiencing homelessness as a youth, I learned to take nothing for granted. Despite a rough start to life, I was blessed to have the opportunity to apply hard work and street smarts to become Valedictorian of my class and then graduate from Notre Dame.

As your current State Representative, I care about making sure those opportunities exist for everyone. Unfortunately, we've seen those opportunities diminish under the radical policies enacted by our current Senator to defund our police, legalize drugs, and let criminals out of jail – while also raising our gas taxes, property taxes, and passing an unconstitutional state income tax.

Whether I'm standing against ineffective government or corporate interests, working to strengthen our schools, or applying my career experience to help get this economy going, I'll continue working hard to serve you. Remember Vote Young!

Richards

(Prefers Democratic Party)

Elected Experience

I am not a politician.

Other Professional Experience

Northwest Justice Project, having served low-income families and victims of domestic violence as a public service lawyer.

Education

Villanova Law, JD; UW, BA; Peninsula High School

Community Service

In addition to my public service through work, I volunteer with Rotary, Harbor Christian Center, Gig Harbor Downtown Waterfront Alliance, Harbor History Museum, Tacoma Pro-Bono, Bremerton NAACP, Foundation for Washington Courts, and as a Peninsula High School Cross Country Coach. I grew up here, graduating from Peninsula High School where my mom is a teacher and digging irrigation lines with my dad's landscaping business. I love our community.

Statement

For many, the opportunity to work and pay the bills and retire with dignity feels impossible. I will use my experience serving people living paycheck to paycheck to focus Olympia on affordability – from housing to health and childcare. We should grow wages, and lower taxes for working families, seniors, and small businesses.

As a lawyer, I serve domestic violence victims. We must prioritize public safety, address homelessness, and fund first responders, so police officers can do their jobs. Let's fix Olympia's priorities. I have faith in our Constitution, community, and country. I hope to earn your vote.

Statement

My love for this community inspires me to represent the people of the 27th district in Olympia.

We have many challenges that can divide us. I see these as opportunities to come together to support each other and prioritize community safety and health. I have worked hard in my short time in the Senate to implement sustainable solutions to our homelessness crisis and address root causes of crime by engaging our community and systems partners at all levels, and investing in breaking cycles of generational poverty.

I also know the issues that are pressing us for urgent action because I have lived through many of them myself. As a person who has grown up in poverty and violence, made it through the foster care system, and experienced housing and food insecurity, I have been lucky enough to achieve personal success through community support, collaboration and sincere engagement. I want to use this model and create the opportunity for every individual who lives and works here to thrive.

When we work together, we can achieve meaningful and equitable solutions that directly improve the safety and health of every person. We can do this. I humbly ask for your vote.

Statement

The 27th Legislative District is home to some of the most hard-working, innovative, and creative people in Washington, and we all want the same things. The only difference between us, is how we choose to address the issues we see.

Low crime, safe neighborhoods, and clean streets. The ability to afford reaching our goals and living our dreams. The ability to take care of our families, send our children to great schools, and get amazing medical care. Good jobs, the ability to succeed in business, and real opportunities. These are the things that will allow all of us to move forward.

We've seen how government overreach and bad policy decisions can damage our careers, our families, our neighborhoods, and our future opportunities. We've seen that people who have the freedom to make their own choices, live better lives. I know we deserve better, and we can do better. We have the chance to make a real difference, and create a community that truly reflects the goals we all have.

Let's end the division, and focus on the real core issues we all want to see improved. I'm listening, and we can build a better and brighter Washington... together.

These are challenging times for our country. I'm running because I have the depth of experience working for you on the issues that matter most. Education

Community Service

I have lived in Pierce County for over 60 years. I am very active in my community and have been a Precinct Committee Officer for 14 years in Tacoma. I am a co-founder of "Operation Support Our Troops". In an 11 year span, we sent 172,000+ holiday packages to troops overseas. Operation Support Our Troops was instrumental in getting the I-5 overpass at exit 122 renamed "Freedom Bridge"! We worked with Fischer house supporting military families during surgery.

Statement

Washington residents are appalled by the escalating crime spree: murders, shootings, car thefts and other lawless behavior. We need to pass anti-crime legislation. We need to hold criminals accountable for their actions, and stop giving them the upper hand.

Anti-police laws passed in 2021 have only worsened the situation. Firearms bills that were passed have not decreased the murders in our community. Police departments are short staffed, and solutions to help communities hire more officers did not pass legislation. Every individual should be safe at home, at school, at work and running everyday errands. It's time to take action now and make safety a top priority for all!

Tax relief needs to be prioritized over spending, especially on the heels of a "pandemic". What happened to our surplus? While other states suspended certain taxes during the pandemic, our state increased taxes. Government agencies frivolously spend and spend, expecting us to replenish their sources through increased taxes. Agencies should start at zero, and prove their budgets to legislators before being passed.

Academics and safety should be top priorities for our children at school. We need to get back to the basics! It's time for action! It's time for a change!

Statement

When elected, I will bring a fresh perspective and common-sense solutions to Olympia for the problems facing District 29. Over the last 2 years, small businesses have taken the brunt of the COVID19 response. The current policies have allowed crime to go unprosecuted, taxes to soar, and inflation takes more of your paycheck. Statement

As your Senator, I oppose the Governor's continued abuse of his emergency powers, and sponsored legislation to curb those powers and prohibit discrimination based on vaccination status.

Property crimes and car thefts have skyrocketed, jeopardizing public safety. I supported legislation to put more law enforcement back on the streets. Despite billions of your taxes spent on homelessness, the problem only gets worse. A proposal I fought for would require drug and alcohol treatment, in addition to mental health support.

We don't need increased fees on car registrations or driver's licenses to fund transportation. We can do that with the money you already send to Olympia. With all the unexpected revenue we can help seniors, the disabled, and others on fixed incomes get a break on out-of-control property, sales and gas taxes - policies I've either sponsored or supported.

I continue to fight against constant efforts to limit our Second Amendment rights and advocate that Olympia spend your tax dollars more wisely. I ask for your continued support to fight for your rights and prosperity, and against more taxes and endless government growth. Endorsed by Law Enforcement and many mayors and city councilmembers in the district.

Past President, Auburn Youth Soccer Association. Coached youth baseball and soccer for many years. Former meal coordinator, Reach Out Federal Way homeless shelter program

Statement

I'm running for the State Senate as a moderate independent because extremism and partisanship is out of control in our political system, too many politicians in both parties have let us down, and voters deserve more choices.

Our communities face real challenges. State revenues are up; we don't need to raise taxes. But schools are still dependent on local levies. Our school funding system is unstable and unfair. Crime rates are increasing while police, prosecutors, jails and courts are underfunded. And there are major gaps in our transportation system.

Too many politicians in both parties, including our current State Senator, are not focused on solving these problems. Instead, they waste time with extreme policies and partisan political games.

I have lived in south King and eastern Pierce counties most of my life. This is where my wife, Ann, and I raised our kids, and I have represented these communities in state and county government. We deserve better than the partisanship and divisiveness we see today. I know we can do better if we elect people focused on common sense problem solving. As a moderate independent, that is what I will focus on in Olympia. I would appreciate your vote!

Statement

I'm running for reelection to continue fighting for what matters in our community—safer neighborhoods, better schools and a stronger economy. I've helped block supervised drug injection sites, gotten schools to reopen sooner, and secured funding for a sales tax refund program for the first time in the state's history.

Unfortunately, recent legislation is making our state less safe and less affordable. I'm endorsed by police, parent and business groups because I've spent my time in the Legislature fighting against those unwise policies and because I will always continue to advocate for safer neighborhoods, better schools and a stronger economy.

After nearly 30 years in what is now the 31st District, I want to represent you. We must overhaul our regressive tax system, encode personal rights and freedoms into our constitution, and advocate for those least able to advocate for themselves. I think about people who work harder for less return, and children who need care they can’t get. The pandemic was hardest on working families, but we’re coming back, and more ready than ever for “government of, by and for the people.” You’re busy Doing Hard Things? Your representative in Olympia should be advocating for you. Let’s get busy.

How is my ballot counted?

Your county receives your ballot

Deposit your ballot in an official drop box by 8 p.m. on November 8, Election Day, or return your ballot by mail — postage paid — but make sure it's postmarked by Election Day! Don't let a late postmark disqualify your ballot. The USPS recommends that you mail it back at least one week before Election Day.

Election staff will contact you before your ballot is processed if:

- Your signature is missing
- Your signature doesn't match your voter registration record

Your signature is verified

Your signature is important and we need it to accept your ballot. The signature on your return envelope is compared to the signature on your voter registration record. If the signature matches, your ballot is accepted and you are credited for voting to ensure only one ballot is counted for you.

Envelopes and sleeves are separated

The return envelope is opened and the security envelope or sleeve containing your ballot is removed. They are separated to ensure the secrecy of your vote.

Your ballot is reviewed and scanned

The security envelope or sleeve is opened and election staff review your ballot to verify that it can be successfully scanned. Each voting system is certified and tested before every election.

Your ballot is counted

After 8 p.m. on Election Day all scanned ballots are tallied. Ballots will be scanned and tallied over the next several days until all the votes are counted. Every county conducts a post-election audit.

Use any physical location you consider your residence such as a shelter, park, or marina. Your mailing address can be general delivery at a local post office, a PO Box, or an address of a trusted friend or relative. A federally recognized tribe may designate tribal government buildings to serve as residential or mailing addresses for voters living on tribal lands.

Vote in Washington even if you're away during an election. To ensure you receive your ballot, update your mailing address at VoteWA.gov or with a county elections office. Your ballot can be mailed to you anywhere in the world; however, your residential address must remain in Washington. You may not vote in more than one place.
