Voting in Washington State
“The vote starts with you!”
Vote by mail
Prepaid postage included! Mail your ballot back to your county elections office postmarked on time or drop it into a local drop box no later than 8 p.m. on election day. Find a list of drop boxes and voting centers at VoteWA.gov.

Voting Step-by-Step

Qualifications
You must be at least 18 years old, a U.S. citizen, and a resident of Washington, and not in total confinement for a felony conviction in Washington or currently incarcerated for a federal or out-of-state felony conviction.

Register to vote
You can register online at VoteWA.gov, by mail, or in person at your local elections office.

If you are 16 or 17, you can sign up as a Future Voter and be automatically registered to vote when you qualify.

Receive Voters’ Pamphlet
Mailed to every household in Washington state for the General Election, use this tool to make informed decisions on candidates and measures. It should arrive before your ballot. View your personalized Online Voters’ Guide at VoteWA.gov.

Check your mailbox
Your ballot will be sent out 18 days before election day. Military and overseas ballots are sent 45 days before election day. Accessible Voting Units (AVUs) are available at county voting centers.

Check the status of your ballot
Check the status of your ballot on VoteWA.gov to see if it has been received by your county elections office.

If you cannot personally return your ballot, let only people you trust deliver it for you.
