Washington State Elections

General Election
November 7

2023

Official Publication

WASHINGTON
Secretary of State

Ballots mailed out by October 20
1 (800) 448-4881 | sos.wa.gov/elections

On behalf of the Office of the Secretary of State and election officials statewide, I am honored to present the 2023 General Election Voters' Pamphlet. This guide includes information about voting to help you make informed decisions as you exercise your right to vote.

To participate in the election, you must be registered to vote. Voter registration forms that are mailed or completed online must be received by Oct. 30. If you are already registered, review your registration information at VoteWA.gov to ensure it is up to date. After Oct. 30, you must visit an elections office or voting center during regular business hours or until 8 p.m. on Election Day, Nov. 7, to register to vote or update your registration and receive a ballot.

After you have marked your ballot, be sure to sign the return envelope. Your signature is important because trained election officials check to ensure your signature matches the one on your voter registration record before they count your ballot. Next, return your ballot. If returning by U.S. mail — no postage necessary — remember that ballots must be postmarked by Nov. 7 to be counted. You can also use an official ballot drop box anywhere in the state. Drop boxes are open until 8 p.m. on Election Day. Go to VoteWA.gov to locate a ballot drop box or check the status of your ballot.

By voting, you are making your voice heard. Thank you for participating in our democratic process.

Sincerely,

Steve Hobbs
Secretary of State

If you cannot personally return your ballot, let only people you trust deliver it for you.

Judicial Qualifications & Responsibilities

Washington judges are nonpartisan. Judges must be registered Washington voters.

Judges

Judicial candidates must be in good standing to practice law in Washington and are prohibited from statements that appear to commit them on legal issues that may come before them in court.

Superior Court Judge

Superior Courts hear felony criminal cases, civil matters, divorces, juvenile cases, and appeals from the lower courts. Superior Courts are organized by county into 30 districts. Superior Court judges serve four-year terms.

Candidates submitted their contact information for this pamphlet prior to printing. For the most current contact information, visit VoteWA.gov and select "Voters' Guide."

Candidate statements are printed exactly as submitted. The Office of the Secretary of State does not make corrections of any kind or verify statements for truth or fact.

Brett
Rogers

(Nonpartisan)

Legal/Judicial Experience

As a lawyer since 2008 I have offered legal services to lower-income clients for free or at reduced rates because I believe that representation must be available to all in order to ensure access to justice.

Other Professional Experience

I have over 20 years of law enforcement and corrections experience. In that capacity I treated everyone fairly and as an individual, and gave no preferential or detrimental treatment for any reason.

Education

JD Seattle University, 2007

Community Service

Youth sports coach and volunteer HOA president and board member.

Statement

The judicial branch is supposed to be independent from the executive and legislative branches. Too often a governor appoints a person to serve as a judge only to have that person run unopposed in perpetuity. This is problematic for at least two reasons. First, in the current hyper-partisan climate it is natural to be suspicious of any political appointee, unfortunately eroding the peoples' confidence in the judicial branch at a time when so many of our institutions appear to be crumbling. Second, it does our democratic process a great disservice by allowing a single person--the governor--to determine the make-up of a significant portion of the judicial branch.

During this time when so many laws are changing so quickly, we need judges who are committed to the independence of the judicial branch, who recognize that government derives its power from the people, and who are willing to consider reasoned challenges to laws, rules, and regulations.

If you want a judge who will uphold our Federal and State Constitutions, who will fairly consider the facts of each case, and will not be a rubber stamp for other branches of government, you should vote for Brett Rogers for Superior Court Judge.

Your signature is needed to make sure your ballot gets counted.

The signature on your return envelope is compared to the signature on your voter registration record. Trained election officials verify each and every signature.

---

If your signature is missing or does not match your voter registration record, the county elections office will contact you by mail before certification. They may call or email if you gave them this info.

---

If you registered to vote online or through Department of Licensing, the signature from your driver's license, permit, or state ID will be on your voter registration record.

---

Voters can track and check their ballot status at VoteWA.gov.

Your county receives your ballot

Deposit your ballot in an official drop box by 8 p.m. on November 7, Election Day, or return your ballot by mail — postage paid — but make sure it's postmarked by Election Day! Don't let a late postmark disqualify your ballot. The USPS recommends that you mail it back at least one week before Election Day.

Election staff will contact you before your ballot is processed if:

- Your signature is missing
- Your signature doesn't match your voter registration record

2

Your signature is verified

Your signature is important and we need it to accept your ballot. The signature on your return envelope is compared to the signature on your voter registration record. If the signature matches, your ballot is accepted and you are credited for voting to ensure only one ballot is counted for you.

3

Envelopes and sleeves are separated

The return envelope is opened and the security envelope or sleeve containing your ballot is removed. They are separated to ensure the secrecy of your vote.

4

Your ballot is reviewed and scanned

The security envelope or sleeve is opened and election staff review your ballot to verify that it can be successfully scanned. Each voting system is certified and tested before every election.

Your ballot is counted

After 8 p.m. on Election Day all scanned ballots are tallied. Ballots will be scanned and tallied over the next several days until all the votes are counted. Every county conducts a post-election audit.

New Washington resident

Welcome! Register to vote online, by mail, in person, or when you get your new driver's license or ID at the Department of Licensing. You may not vote in more than one place, so cancel your previous voter registration.

Military or overseas voter

Register to vote anytime on or before Election Day. You may receive your ballot by mail, email, or fax. Spouses and dependents also away from home have the same voting rights.

College student

Register to vote using either your home or school address, but you may not vote in more than one place. Your ballot can be mailed to you anywhere in the world; however, your residential address must remain in Washington.

Non-traditional address voter

Use any physical location you consider your residence such as a shelter, park, or marina. Your mailing address can be general delivery at a local post office, a PO Box, or an address of a trusted friend or relative. A federally recognized tribe may designate tribal government buildings to serve as residential or mailing addresses for voters living on tribal lands.

Seasonal resident

Vote in Washington even if you're away during an election. To ensure you receive your ballot, update your mailing address at VoteWA.gov or with a county elections office. Your ballot can be mailed to you anywhere in the world; however, your residential address must remain in Washington. You may not vote in more than one place.

Person convicted of a felony

If you were convicted of a felony in Washington, your right to vote is restored when you are no longer serving a sentence of total confinement in prison. After your right to vote is restored, you must re-register to vote in order to receive a ballot.
