INTRODUCTION TO THE 1992 VOTERS PAMPHLET

Welcome to the 1992 Washington State Voters Pamphlet. This year we commemorate the anniversaries of great change in the Pacific Northwest. It was 200 years ago that explorers from Spain, England, France, Portugal, Sweden and the United States came to our area, met local tribal leaders and established new relationships. These journeys effectively put this region on the world map and set the stage for Washington state's emergence as a crossroads for international commerce.

The election year of 1992 will be one of great change as well. As noted by numerous political observers, the decisions made on November 3 will have more impact on our state's long-term future than any election in recent memory. It is important not only that you participate, but that you participate as an informed voter.

Your Voters Pamphlet contains a wealth of information regarding two initiative measures appearing on the statewide ballot as well as statements and photographs from scores of candidates seeking positions from the courthouse to the White House. I urge you to read the pamphlet thoroughly, including the additional information regarding the election process.

Should you need special help, or have questions or suggestions for improvements to our voter information, please feel free to contact the state's toll-free Voter Hotline at 1-800-448-4881 (TDD for the hearing or speech impaired - 1-800-422-8683). Also, remember that you may now request an absentee ballot by telephone. Simply call your county auditor or county elections department to have a ballot mailed to you.

Good luck and good voting.

Sincerely,

RALPH MUNRO
Secretary of State

VOTER'S CHECKLIST

Every Washington voter will have the opportunity to vote on two statewide measures as well as federal and state candidates at the state general election on November 3, 1992. Voters are encouraged to bring any list or sample ballot to the polling place to make voting easier. ## DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions to Candidates and Political Committees: State law does not limit the amount a person may contribute to support or oppose a candidate, ballot measure, political party or political committee. During the 21 days before the general election, however, a person may contribute no more than $50,000 to a candidate for statewide office or $5,000 to any other candidate or political committee. Contributions from corporations, unions, businesses, associations and similar organizations are permitted.

Registration and Reporting by Candidates and Political Committees: Within two weeks after a person becomes a candidate or a political committee is organized, a campaign finance registration statement must be filed with the Public Disclosure Commission and the local county elections official. (Committees that form within three weeks of the election must register within three business days.) The candidate or committee treasurer is also required to report periodically the source and amount of campaign contributions of $25 or more and to list campaign expenditures.

These reports are open to the public. Copies are available at the Public Disclosure Commission in Olympia or at the county elections office in the county where the candidate lives. In addition, the campaign financial books and records of a candidate or committee are available for public inspection the last eight days (Monday through Friday) before each election. The campaign registration shows the time and place where the records may be inspected.

Independent Campaign Expenditures: Anyone making an expenditure in support of or opposition to a state or local candidate or ballot proposition (not including contributions made to a candidate or political committee) must file a report with the Public Disclosure Commission within five days if the expenditure is $100 or more. Reporting forms are available from the Commission and county election offices.

Federal Campaigns: Contributions to U.S. Senate and House of Representative candidates are regulated by federal law. An individual may contribute a maximum of $1,000 in the primary election and $1,000 in the general election to each candidate for senator and representative. Corporations, businesses, unions and similar groups are generally prohibited from contributing to federal campaigns. Copies of federal campaign finance reports are available from the Public Disclosure Commission.

For additional information contact: Public Disclosure Commission, 711 Capitol Way, Rm. 403, P.O. Box 40908, Olympia WA 98504-0908, (206) 753-1111, or, for federal campaigns, Federal Election Commission, 1-800-424-9530.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CREDITS AND DEDUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

Political Contributions Tax Credit: The Federal Tax Reform Act of 1986 eliminated the personal tax credit previously allowed for political contributions.

As in the past, contributions or gifts made to political parties or candidates may not be deducted as a business expense. In addition, expenses paid or incurred to take part in any political campaign on behalf of a candidate for public office are not deductible as a business expense. Finally, indirect political contributions, such as advertising for a political party or admission to a program with proceeds going to a political party or candidate, may not be deducted as a business expense.

Presidential Election Campaign Fund Checkoff: Individuals, however, may make a deductible contribution to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund Checkoff. This fund was established to help pay for presidential election campaigns. $1 may be taken ($2 on a joint return) from an individual's taxes to go to a general fund, not for any specific party, to meet the expenses of the 1992 presidential election. The contribution will not increase your tax or reduce your refund.

INITIATIVE MEASURE 573

TO THE PEOPLE

Note: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 573 begins on page 10.

Statement for

"I'm in favor of term limits, six years, not twelve. Why? Because career politicians have long been bilking the public," broadcast journalist David Brinkley, People Magazine 7/27/92

REDUCE THE INFLUENCE OF SPECIAL INTERESTS

Incumbents easily dominate elections through free mailing, large staffs, and special interest funding. By leveling the playing field, term limits will attract more candidates thereby offering voters real choices. Initiative 573 will force rotation in office, breaking up long-term relationships.

NO LOSS OF INFLUENCE WITH INITIATIVE 573

Washington state will not lose its congressional clout. Federal limits will not take effect until nine other states adopt similar legislation.

Incumbents who reach the limits of their terms may run as write-in candidates.

Initiative 573 is not retroactive; previous time in office is not counted.

TERM LIMITS IS A NATIONAL MOVEMENT

Washington state is not alone. Citizens in at least 15 states will vote on term limits this November.

Our Founding Fathers never envisioned career politicians. Many officials already have limited terms: President, 31 governors, and many county and city politicians. In 1990 California, Colorado and Oklahoma adopted term limits.

Term limits will replace the seniority based system with one based on merit.

Official Ballot Title:

Shall candidates for certain offices, who have already served for specified time periods in those offices, be denied ballot access?

The law as it now exists:

The length of previous service in public office does not disqualify anyone from appearing on the election ballot for state offices. One can be a candidate on the election ballot for election or re-election to the state legislature, governor, lieutenant governor, or congress without any limits based on prior service in those offices.

RESTORE CHOICE TO THE VOTER

As Harry Truman said, term limits would "help cure senility and seniority — both terrible legislative diseases."

Career politicians gave us a national debt of $4 trillion, a peacetime tax burden that is the highest in our nation's history, the S&L bailout and outrageous congressional banking and postal scandals that defy the ethics of public office.

It's time for a change. We need term limits.

Vote YES on Initiative 573.

Rebuttal of Statement against

We listened to the voters and improved term limits.

Term limits reduces the power of special interests, not the interests of people.

Incumbents are re-elected 96% of the time. Incumbent turnover this year is high due to redistricting, scandals and converting campaign funds to personal loot.

We have the most "experienced" legislature and Congress ever, causing the worst deficits and scandals ever. People want change, not deadwood.

Washington needs term limits. Vote Yes on I-573.

WALLACE M. RUDOLPH, Professor of Constitutional, Legislative and Administrative Law, Puget Sound School of Law; JACK METCALF, State Senator, Chair of Senate Environmental and Natural Resources Committee; SHERRY BOCKWINKEL, Independent Businesswoman.

Advisory Committee: CAROLYN LOGUE, Director, National Federation of Independent Business; PAUL BARDEN, King County Councilman; HAROLD KEAN, former Chairman and CEO of Washington Federal Savings and Loan; SAM ALLRED, Democratic Precinct Chair, Sumner; JOHN SONNELAND, M.D., Spokane area businessman and professional.

The effect of Initiative Measure 573, if approved into law:

This initiative would consider only years of service in office after November 3, 1992 to deny some potential candidates access to the election ballot. Service prior to that date would not count.

The offices and length of service for which a potential candidate would be denied access to the election ballot are:

- 1) for governor, if the candidate served 8 of the previous 14 years as governor;
- 2) for lieutenant governor, if the candidate served 8 of the previous 14 years as lieutenant governor;
- 3) for senator in the state legislature, if the candidate served 8 of the previous 14 years as a senator;
- 4) for representative in the state legislature, if the candidate served 6 of the previous 12 years as a representative; and
- 5) for either the house or senate in the state legislature, if the candidate served in the legislature for 14 of the previous

Statement against

NEW, IMPROVED TERM LIMITS? DON'T BELIEVE IT

Washington citizens rejected term limits in 1991, and their reasons remain valid in 1992. Delaying term limit restrictions a few years doesn't make the repercussions more acceptable.

TERM LIMITS THREATEN OUR QUALITY OF LIFE

Last November, voters said they weren't willing to give up this state's strength in Congress in 1994. Is it somehow more acceptable to give it up in 1998? Will our concerns about offshore drilling, affordable power, transportation funding, Hanford cleanup, and other federally decided issues be diminished by then? Are we willing to play Russian Roulette with Washington's future and unilaterally give away the strength we've taken years to achieve?

TERM LIMITS ARE UNNECESSARY

This year alone, Washington state will experience turnovers of AT LEAST 45 percent in our congressional delegation, 30 percent in the state Senate, and 29 percent in the state House of Representatives. And at least four of the nine statewide offices will change hands.

WE NEED A MIX OF NEW AND EXPERIENCED LAWMAKERS WORKING FOR US

No one wants stagnation in government, but the arbitrary cutoffs imposed by I-573 would cost us vital knowledge, expertise and clout. We all benefit when new office-holders are able to work alongside veterans to learn the ropes and 20 years.

While such potential candidates would not be permitted to appear upon the ballot, a write-in candidacy is permitted.

This initiative also provides that only if 9 other states pass laws limiting ballot access or limiting the terms of federal legislative offices, would Congressional representatives and United States senators from Washington state be subject to restrictions for access to the election ballot. Only the years of service which occur after November 2, 1992 would be considered. Service prior to that date would not count.

If nine other states act, then the Congressional offices and the time periods which would deny a potential candidate access to the election ballot would be:

- 1) for a Washington representative to the United States Congress, if the candidate served as a representative for 6 of the previous 12 years; and
- 2) for a United States senator from Washington, if the candidate served as senator for 12 of the previous 18 years.

Write-in candidacies would be permitted for such offices.

become skilled lawmakers working successfully for their constituents.

The key to responsive government is dedicated, informed voters - voters who examine candidates carefully, communicate their community's priorities, and refuse to reelect politicians who fail to meet expectations.

No citizen should give up the right to elect, or reelect, the leader of her/his choice.

Say NO to the term limit crusade and yes to effective government.

Rebuttal of Statement for

Term limits would take away your right to choose.

If you don't like the elected officials serving you now, use your democratic right to vote to get them out of office. But if your elected officials are doing a good job, keep them in office. That's the choice you have now, and that's the choice you would lose with term limits.

Term limits take away your freedom and our clout in Washington, D.C. Vote NO.

INITIATIVE MEASURE 134

TO THE LEGISLATURE

Note: The ballot title and explanatory statement were written by the Attorney General as required by law. The complete text of Initiative Measure 134 begins on page 11.

Statement for

Ready for a shock? Here's three:

- Spending on political campaigns in Washington skyrocketed to an all-time high of $12 million in 1990.
- That year, 20 percent of campaign contributions to statewide and legislative candidates came from individual citizens.
- Incredibly, 61 percent of that $12 million was paid to politicians by political action committees, unions, corporations and other special interests.

Can we really expect our political candidates and public officials to put our interests ahead of the special interests when those big corporations, committees and unions can contribute $10,000, $20,000 - even $50,000 at a time?

Initiative 134 will put the average voter on even ground with the special interests, by holding individuals, PAC's, unions and corporations to the same contribution limit: $500 per legislative candidate per election ($1,000 per candidate for statewide office). It would also restrict contributions from political parties and caucuses to candidates.

Initiative 134 will help clean up campaigns in Washington. The new law would prohibit political fund raising from 30 days before a legislative session until 30 days after it ends. It would ban the transfer of funds from one candidate to another and strictly limit taxpayer-financed mailings by incumbent legislators.

Importantly, Initiative 134 would reduce overall spending on political campaigns in Washington, while prohibiting the use of state tax dollars to fund political campaigns.

Vote for Initiative 134 and you'll help break the power of special interests - and put the elected officials of today and tomorrow back to work for the people of Washington.

Official Ballot Title:

Shall campaign contributions be limited; public funding of state and local campaigns be prohibited; and campaign related activities be restricted?

The law as it now exists:

State law does not limit the amounts which can be contributed to campaigns for statewide elected offices and legislative offices, except during the last 21 days of the general election campaign. Contributions are required to be reported to the Public Disclosure Commission. Elected officials and executive state officers must annually report to the Commission any gifts they received as well as any contributions made to their public office fund.

Rebuttal of Statement against

Don't be misled. I-134 impacts all sides. It equally limits contributions from PACs, unions and individuals to candidates from both political parties.

I-134 strictly prohibits public financing schemes which provide "incumbency insurance" and use tax dollars to help re-elect incumbent lawmakers.

I-134 is our only chance to limit campaign influence by special interests and make candidates more accountable to the people. I-134 is supported by 40+ independent organizations — and by more than 225,000 Washington citizens.

Voters Pamphlet Statement Prepared by:

MIKE WATTERS, President, Washington State Dairy Federation;
GARY SMITH, Executive Director, Independent Business Assoc.;
CAROLYN LOGUE, State Director, National Federation of Independent Business.

Some local governments have ordinances providing the availability of public funds for political campaigns for municipal offices.

The effect of Initiative Measure 134, if approved into law:

This initiative would establish maximums for permissible political contributions to campaigns for state legislative offices and the nine statewide elected officers (governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, attorney general, commissioner of public lands, insurance commissioner, treasurer, auditor and superintendent of public instruction). The maximum dollar amount an individual, corporation, pac or other group could make is a $500 contribution to legislative campaigns and $1,000 for campaigns for statewide offices. Those maximums would separately apply to the primary and general elections. Political parties and legislative caucuses are permitted to make larger contributions with a maximum of $.50 times each registered voter within the election area.

Legislators, state officials or anyone acting on their behalf would be prohibited from soliciting campaign contributions during the period commencing thirty days before a regular session of the legislature, until thirty days after the adjournment of the regular session. Also, state officials would be prohibited from soliciting

REAL CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM MUST LIMIT BOTH SPENDING AND CONTRIBUTIONS

• Effective campaign reform must limit both campaign spending and contributions. Congress has had contribution limits similar to those in I-134 for years and these limits have done nothing to prevent special interest scandals such as the S&L debacle.

• Contributions limits alone are a sure-fire incumbent protection plan. As long as the sky is the limit on spending, a challenger can never hope to keep pace with an incumbent's ability to raise political funds.

• I-134 doesn't limit how much a candidate can spend on their own campaign — wealthy individuals are free to spend as much as they like to "buy" an election.

REAL REFORM SHOULD AFFECT ALL POLITICAL PARTIES EQUALLY

• I-134 is just more of the same old partisan politics. GOP officials admit the initiative was drafted to favor Republicans. Independent analysis by the Seattle Post-Intelligencer shows that the proposal is specifically designed to hit Democratic candidates harder.

• I-134 doesn't have grass-roots support. The signatures that put I-134 on the ballot were not collected by citizen volunteers. Signatures for I-134 were bought and paid for with large contributions from big business interests and powerful politicians.

REAL REFORM SHOULD LIMIT THE INFLUENCE OF PACs

• I-134 doesn't limit how much a candidate can take from political contributions from employees in the state official's agency.

Contributions would be prohibited from businesses not doing business in Washington and from unions having less than ten members in the state.

There would be restrictions on publicly funded, unsolicited mailings by legislators. Voluntary state payroll deductions for political committees would no longer be permitted and agency shop fees could not be used for political purposes without individual authorization. Campaign contributions could not be used to repay more than $3,000 of a candidate's loans to the candidate's campaign.

Independent expenditure advertising would have to identify the top five contributors paying for the ad, and further disclosures to the Public Disclosure Commission would be required.

Elected officials and executive state officers would annually be required to file a statement describing any gifts received during the preceding year, but the annual reporting of public office funds would be repealed.

No public funds could be used to finance political campaigns for state or local offices.

The dollar amounts referred to in the initiative would be changed every two years by the Public Disclosure Commission to reflect changes in the inflation index. Penalties would be provided and other changes would be made.

PACs, it allows candidates to be 100% special-interest funded. Unless the influence of special interest PACs are limited, the views of the average person will be drowned out.

REAL REFORM SHOULD NOT REPEAL EFFECTIVE LOCAL REFORMS

• I-134 repeals the popular and highly effective local campaign spending limit laws adopted by citizens in Seattle and King County. These laws have been nationally acclaimed as models of effective reform.

Rebuttal of Statement for

DON'T BE FOOLED BY FALSE REFORM.

Passing I-134 won't hold down campaign spending or clean up campaigns, but it will relieve the pressure on politicians to accept real reform.

I-134 claims it will reduce campaign spending, but contribution limits alone have never succeeded in holding down campaign spending;

I-134 claims it will break the power of special interests, but is actually backed by those same special interests.

VOTE NO ON I-134, FALSE CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM.

COMPLETE TEXT OF Initiative Measure 573

AN ACT Relating to ballot access for elected officials; adding a new section to chapter 43.01 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 44.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 29.68 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 29.51 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 29.15 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 7.16 RCW; and creating a new section.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The people of the state of Washington find that:

(1) The people will best be served by citizen legislators who are subject to a reasonable degree of rotation in office;

(2) Entrenched incumbents have become indifferent to the conditions and concerns of the people;

(3) Entrenched incumbents have an inordinate advantage in elections because of their control of campaign finance laws and gerrymandering of electoral districts;

(4) Entrenched incumbency has discouraged qualified citizens from seeking public office;

(5) Entrenched incumbents have become preoccupied with their own reelection and devote more effort to campaigning than to making legislative decisions for the benefit of the people;

(6) Entrenched incumbents have become closely aligned with special interest groups who provide contributions and support for their reelection campaigns, give entrenched incumbents special favors, and lobby office holders for special interest legislation to the detriment of the people of this state, and may create corruption or the appearance of corruption of the legislative system;

(7) The people of Washington have a compelling interest in preventing the self-perpetuating monopoly of elective office by a dynastic ruling class.

The people of the state of Washington therefore adopt this act to limit ballot access of candidates for state and federal elections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 43.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for governor who, by the end of the then current term of office will have served, or but for resignation would have served, as governor during eight of the previous fourteen years.

(2) No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for lieutenant governor who, by the end of the then current term of office will have served, or but for resignation would have served, as lieutenant governor during eight of the previous fourteen years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 44.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for the house of representatives of the legislature who, by the end of the then current term of office will have served, or but for resignation would have served, as a member of the house of representatives of the legislature during six of the previous twelve years.

(2) No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for the senate of the legislature who, by the end of the then current term of office will have served, or but for resignation would have served, as a member of the senate of the legislature during eight of the previous fourteen years.

(3) No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for the legislature who has served as a member of the legislature for fourteen of the previous twenty years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 29.68 RCW to read as follows:

No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for the United States house of representatives who, by the end of the then current term of office will have served, or but for resignation would have served, as a member of the United States house of representatives during six of the previous twelve years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 29.68 RCW to read as follows:

No person is eligible to appear on the ballot or file a declaration of candidacy for the United States senate who, by the end of the then current term of office will have served, or but for resignation would have served, as a member of the United States senate during twelve of the previous eighteen years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 29.51 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in sections 2 through 5 of this act prohibits a qualified voter of this state from casting a ballot for any person by writing the name of that person on the ballot in accordance with RCW 29.51.170 or from having such a ballot counted or tabulated, nor does anything in sections 2 through 5 of this act prohibit a person from standing or campaigning for an elective office by means of a write-in campaign.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 29.15 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of state or other election official authorized by law shall not accept or verify the signatures, nor accept a declaration of candidacy or a nomination paper, from or on behalf of a person who, by reason of sections 2 through 5 of this act, is ineligible for the office, nor allow the person's name to appear on the ballot.

(2) No terms or years served in office before November 3, 1992, may be used to determine eligibility to appear on the ballot.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 29.68 RCW to read as follows:

Sections 4 and 5 of this act, regarding candidates for federal legislative office, are not effective until nine states other than Washington have passed laws limiting ballot access or terms of federal legislative office, or both, based on length of service in federal legislative office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 7.16 RCW to read as follows:

Any resident of this state may bring suit to enforce sections 2 through 8 of this act. If the person prevails, the court shall award the person reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. FINDINGS. The people of the state of Washington find and declare that:

(1) The financial strength of certain individuals or organizations should not permit them to exercise a disproportionate or controlling influence on the election of candidates.

(2) Rapidly increasing political campaign costs have led many candidates to raise larger percentages of money from special interests with a specific financial stake in matters before state government. This has caused the public perception that decisions of elected officials are being improperly influenced by monetary contributions.

(3) Candidates are raising less money in small contributions from individuals and more money from special interests. This has created the public perception that individuals have an insignificant role to play in the political process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. INTENT. By limiting campaign contributions, the people intend to:

(1) Ensure that individuals and interest groups have fair and equal opportunity to influence elective and governmental processes;

(2) Reduce the influence of large organizational contributors; and

(3) Restore public trust in governmental institutions and the electoral process.

It's time for a change. It's time to get our economy moving again. Our government has failed our people. For twelve years now, the Republicans have cut taxes for the rich and raised taxes on the rest of us. Good jobs have disappeared. Health care is beyond the reach of millions. Schools have declined. Our streets and neighborhoods are more dangerous. And the Republicans have done nothing.

We can't afford four more years of a President without a vision.

We have a bold new plan to fight for what Americans deserve: good jobs, quality health care, world-class education and safe neighborhoods. Middle-class Americans will finally have leaders who are on their side. We will put people first for a change.

That means reviving our economy. Our plan to rebuild America will create a high-wage, high-skill economy for the post-Cold War era, and give defense workers the transition help they deserve. We'll stop the tax breaks for corporations that ship jobs overseas — but we'll give incentives to those that invest at home. The wealthiest 2 percent will have to pay their fair share — but the middle class will get tax relief. And those on welfare will get the training they need — but after two years they'll have to go to work.

Putting people first means rejecting the false choice between protecting jobs and preserving the environment. America can only achieve a strong economy if we have a clean, safe environment. We will work for both.

Putting people first means making health care a right, not a privilege. We will guarantee affordable, quality care for every American — and take on the health care industry to bring costs down.

Putting people first means educating our people — from the nursery school playground to the factory shop floor. We'll establish tough national standards for K-12 education and reduce class size. We'll make sure high school graduates get the skills they need, and require companies to invest in worker training. And we'll give all Americans the chance to borrow for college — and ask them to serve their communities in return.

Putting people first means standing up for victims and getting tough with criminals. Our plan will put 100,000 new police officers on our streets, and put beat cops back in our neighborhoods. We'll keep handguns out of the hands of criminals. And we'll reduce demand for drugs by increasing treatment and education.

Putting people first means putting everyday Americans back in control of government: fighting the special interests, cutting bureaucracy, and achieving real campaign reform. We will make the tough choices and do what's right.

And putting people first means uniting Americans behind the hope we share — that we can build a better future for our nation. We won't serve the special interests. We will create opportunity and demand responsibility. We won't blame others when we do not succeed. We will work tirelessly for the American people.

We offer real change and new hope. We will put people first for a change.

George Bush

In 1980 I came to Washington, D.C. as part of a team committed to restoring American pride and freeing our nation from the politics of malaise. I want to continue that mission:

I will work to get our economy moving at full speed and continue to fight for jobs, low taxes and economic opportunity for every American.

I believe in traditional values of family, opportunity, safety, and freedom. I believe changes must be made so parents, not bureaucrats, make the important choices about the education of our children.

I believe we must make changes to restore a government America can be proud of. Government is too big and costs too much.

I will continue to seek a balance between the critical efforts to save the spotted owl while creating jobs and allowing economic prosperity to flourish in the Pacific Northwest.

I will continue my strong commitment to the North America Free Trade Agreement which will create jobs and boost our economy. Washington State exemplifies the significance of this agreement with a 54% increase in exports to Canada between 1987 and 1990.

Together, we won the Cold War and ushered in a new, exciting world. While yesterday's challenges are behind us, tomorrow's are yet to be born.

As someone who served with pride in the Second World War and led this country through Desert Storm, I know we can meet any challenge.

Americans need a president they can trust to shape the hard decisions of tomorrow — someone with the values and experience to guide this great nation through many seasons of change.

I know the pressures and responsibilities of leading America and will devote my energy to reaching these challenges by moving forward, always forward. Together, we will enter the 21st century with progress, prosperity and the promise of a peaceful tomorrow.

Dan Quayle

Today, we maintain our commitment of peace and prosperity with an agenda that addresses the many challenges and opportunities America will face in the future.

- Our agenda is one of decentralization, reform and reducing the role of government in the everyday lives of people.

- We believe in revitalizing education, empowering individuals and communities and strengthening the family.

- The Bush Administration is committed to the expansion of American trade.

- When it comes to health care reform and child care programs, we want parents to make the important decisions — all the decisions.

- In the battle of over-regulation, our Administration maintains a firm commitment to ending the excessive cost and delay of our civil justice system. Through the Competitiveness Council and regulatory reform efforts, we have brought meaningful change that has yielded $20 billion in annual savings, creating or saving some 200,000 jobs nationwide.

- We believe that the cycle of welfare dependency must be reduced. Our Administration has established new initiatives that get people off welfare rolls and into jobs.

Republicans have led the world to freedom and democracy with the end of the Cold War — and we will lead America to prosperity during the next four years.

Libertarian presidential nominee Representative Andre Marrou (Mah-ROO') believes that Thomas Jefferson's words still ring true in 1992: "That government is best which governs least."

Democrats and Republicans have brought us soaring budgets, tax increases, erosion of our civil liberties, an enormous bureaucracy and interference in the affairs of other nations.

Many government programs have brought counterproductive results. For example, instead of improving the lives of the poor, anti-poverty programs have created generations of welfare families and an expensive welfare bureaucracy.

It's time for a change.

Andre Marrou understands that the best way to create more jobs and increase personal income is to reduce taxes and eliminate burdensome regulations.

Libertarians believe that government should be limited to protecting individuals from force and fraud. Libertarians place a high value on both personal freedom and economic liberty. Regardless of the issue, Libertarians oppose the use of government force against peaceful and honest individuals.

The positions of Andre Marrou are based on the platform of the Libertarian Party. The platform does not change to accommodate the political climate of the day. It is a document based on the principles of individual liberty and private property, which are the foundations of The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, including the Bill of Rights.

Libertarians favor the privatization of many government services, which usually reduces their costs, improves quality and increases the choices available to consumers.

Andre Marrou supports: • phasing out the income tax; • ending the deficit by eliminating wasteful and unnecessary programs; • ending corporate subsidies; • having Japan and Germany provide for their own defense; • holding polluters fully liable for the environmental damage they cause; • holding violent criminals responsible for their actions; • a woman's right to choose an abortion, but Marrou opposes government funded abortions; • tuition tax credits as a step toward reducing costs, improving educational quality and increasing choices for students.

George Bush pledged in 1988: "Read my lips - no new taxes." He lied. Instead, he raised taxes and has given us the largest deficits in history.

Bill Clinton claims to be the candidate of "change." But his party has controlled Congress for decades, and is largely responsible for the financial mess our country is in.

There is an old saying: "If you always do what you've always done, you'll always get what you've always gotten." Do not waste your vote this November.

Vote for Libertarian candidates to demonstrate that you are fed up with the taxes, spending, deficits and bureaucracy imposed upon us by the Democrats and the Republicans. Vote for Andre Marrou and Nancy Lord, the only candidates challenging the status quo.

Andre Marrou was referred to as the "conscience of the legislature" when he served in the Alaska House of Representatives. He has a degree in engineering from MIT and currently works as a real estate broker.

His running mate, Dr. Nancy Lord has degrees in medicine and law and is an attorney specializing in medical-legal and constitutional issues.

Our opponents in this election have had a conspiracy of silence on the central issue in world politics: the fact that the imperialist war against Iraq last year was the opening guns of World War III.

At the center of the debate in U.S. ruling circles in this election year is how they can respond to the new world disorder accelerating out of the combined results of the war against Iraq, the fracturing of the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, and economic trade wars being sharpened by the world depression affecting not only the Third World, but Europe, North America, and Japan as well.

The divisions among the candidates are simply over how best to unload more and more of the burden of the economic and social crisis onto the backs of working people around the world in a desperate attempt to salvage the crisis-ridden system of capitalism.

Washington's war moves against Iraq, North Korea, and Libya and its determination to remain the undisputed strategic military power in the world are current examples of this course.

Combined with the 1990-1992 "double-dip" recession, these events have sharpened competition and trade disputes between capitalists in Japan and the United States, within North America and Europe, and between the European Community and the United States.

If capitalism is not replaced by working people, the international conflict among the imperialist powers will eventuate in a third world war. This outcome can only be prevented by an international movement of workers and farmers that uncompromisingly fights to disarm the warmakers and defend the victims of their wars, racism, and economic depression. We call on Washington to get its warships, bombers, submarines, troops, and hit squads out of every corner of the globe.

The rulers' drive toward war mirrors their attacks at home, which for more than a decade have driven down the real wages and living conditions of working people. Both the Democrats and Republicans, the parties of big-business, have a common fundamental domestic policy. Under the impact of the deepening social crisis, they have moved to the right and become more reactionary every year, challenging democratic rights, a woman's right to abortion, and Black rights won over the past 25 years.

Our campaign begins with the fact that the working class is international. We have common interests, face a common crisis, and have a common enemy. Our campaign will travel across the country and around the world with this message.

Working people can unite on a world scale to fight for protection from the ravages of the universal crisis of the market system. To this end we advance demands that defend the interests of all working people:

- 30 hours work for 40 hours pay
- Defend affirmative action
- Cancel the Third World debt

Since the first primaries were held in New Hampshire last February, the American people have been expressing their profound dissatisfaction with our political process, with the two major parties that maintain a stranglehold on that process, and with the lackluster candidates the two-party system produces. In survey after survey, the vast majority of people have said that they want more choices, that neither of the major parties represents them, that a fundamental restructuring of the political system is called for.

Clearly, independent politics is on the agenda in America. The issue is: what shape will it take? I am running as an independent candidate for president of the United States as part of a long term effort to open up our political process — to make it more fair, more inclusive, and more democratic.

I am an ardent advocate of civil rights for people of color, for lesbians and gay men, for the elderly and the disabled. I fully support the right of women to choose an abortion and the right of all workers to organize and to strike. I think that corporate polluters should clean up after themselves — and foot the bill. I oppose war.

I believe that the profound crisis of the American economy cannot be resolved without radically transforming the political environment: until the American people are included in economic decision-making, the professional politicians of the PAC-owned major parties will continue to enact public policy that puts trillions into the pockets of the military industrialists and the Wall Streeters while leaving us without solutions to the array of social problems that confront us: homelessness, AIDS, police brutality, drug-induced violence, and the scandalous absence of a national health care system.

The Perot phenomenon revealed that millions of white Americans — hit hard over the last five years by the economic crisis — would waste no time in breaking with the two governing parties if the opportunity arose. The Black community, the Latino community, the lesbian and gay community, women and workers — who have suffered bitterly for decades, even centuries — must make that break as well.

If two to three million Black, Latino, labor and gay voters from the liberal wing of the Democratic Party vote for me in November, and if they are joined by two to three million Perot supporters, we would have the beginnings of a new, broad-based electoral majority that could win the White House (and a lot else besides) in 1996.

I urge you to vote independent in 1992 because political independence is America's future. I urge you to vote for me so that together the ordinary people of this country can shape our future in the light of a progressive and humane social vision.

As president I will contract with you, thereby promising in writing the following:

1) I will return us to a stable economy by getting rid of the private corporation, the Federal Reserve (FED). The FED charges us interest on our own money. It has never been audited.

2) Eliminate the income tax. Return to the Constitution and impose tariffs, excise taxes and impose taxes. According to Reagan's Grace Report released in 1984 not one dollar of personal income tax goes to the U.S. Government. It goes to pay the interest due the Federal Reserve.

3) Stop all foreign aid. We must put America back on her feet and heal her before we help others. Our people are suffering and must not be ignored by the government any longer. It must be America First!

The election of 1992 will be the most important in the history of the United States! The voters will have only two choices...they will choose either the New World Order of George Bush and Bill Clinton, as they both have the same agenda, or select a party that will stop the headlong plunge into disaster. The American people can no longer afford the huge national debt with its billion dollar a day interest. Ownership of our money must be wrested from the private corporation known as the Federal Reserve. The debt money system must be eliminated, and replaced with debt free U.S. Bills that will freely circulate in our economy. Without this huge national debt, collection of taxes will no longer be necessary.

The giving away of our money to foreign and unfriendly nations must stop—it is simply America First! With Bo Gritz as your president, you can be sure that these actions will be taken, we will sign a contract to that effect. Has any other candidate offered to do this. Aren't you tired of broken promises like "no new taxes." Give us a chance to prove to you that America can be great again. A vote for Bush or Clinton will give you more of the same only this time The New World Order will insure that you won't get the chance to vote again.

Lyndon LaRouche's program for ending the economic depression and building a productive future for all Americans:

LaRouche would reverse the disastrous shift to post-industrial policies begun in the mid-1960s. Beginning with nationalizing the Federal Reserve and converting it into a National Bank of the United States, the federal government will issue over $600 billion in low-cost credit to state and federal authorities for infrastructural public works. This will create 3 million jobs in the public sector, and 3 million jobs among private sector vendors to the government.

The increase in the tax-revenue base and the growth of our national economy that will result is the only way to provide the economic and social justice to which all Americans are entitled, and to which LaRouche is deeply committed.

Components of the LaRouche program for economic revival:

- Large-scale water improvement projects including the North American Water and Power Alliance (NAWAPA). NAWAPA alone would provide 135 billion gallons of water per day for the U.S.: enough water to satisfy the thirst of the biggest industrial recovery in the history of America.

- The rebuilding of our transportation grid, especially our rail system, emphasizing rapid transit systems, including Maglev, in the densely populated areas of the country. Maintenance and some expansion of our existing highways, roads and ports.

- The construction of the energy grid needed to power an industrial recovery, including nuclear energy, with our ultimate goal being fusion power development. Only fusion energy can guarantee the vast energy and raw materials needed for the next century.

- The creation of a new healthcare-delivery infrastructure, integrating public and voluntary hospitals and clinics with the private medical profession. The whole system, public and private, would be organized to provide adequate health care for every community in this nation.

- Education must return to the classics (emphasizing languages, geometry, etc.) and not be based on rehearsing our children to pass multiple-choice, questionnaire tests. Institute a new version of the Civilian Conservation Corps of the 1930s, not based on digging ditches, but upon exposing our youth to the most advanced technologies to be used in the infrastructure programs outlined above.

- A science-driver, to fuel industrial productivity, such as a long-range buildup toward the colonization of Mars.

LaRouche's Vice Presidential running mate, veteran civil rights leader Rev. James Bevel, a founder of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and Direct Action Coordinator for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, states:

"It is urgently necessary to build an independent people's movement based on the U.S. Constitution and the Declaration of Independence. America has been criminalized by the way it votes. The person who votes for the lesser of two evils, votes for evil. And not voting is a crime of omission. The people must ensure that the self-evident truths of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, survive. This requires a moral economic policy, based on the Christian idea of love."

Seattle, WA 98109
Telephone: (206) 223-0062

Ross Perot, a businessman we want as President, and James Stockdale, an educator we want as Vice President, have started a revolutionary change in the way America governs itself. You, the voter, are the key to that change. Many heard the message and responded by registering and voting in the primary election in record numbers. 53,734 of you wrote in Ross's name in the presidential preference primary in March and even more of you signed petitions (on one day) to put his name on the ballot in Washington State when only 200 signatures were needed.

From that initial wide-spread support it was obvious that Washington voters and their counterparts across the country were unhappy with government and politics as usual. As Mr. Perot entered "the race" it became more obvious that the candidates selected by the two party system were more intent on character assassination than on issues and problem solving. On July 16th Mr. Perot stepped back from active campaigning in hopes of forcing the Democrats and Republicans to face up to the annual deficit in excess of $380,000,000,000 (that is $380 billion) and the four trillion dollar national debt. From a position on the sidelines Mr. Perot prodded them into at least talking about the deficit, however, neither President Bush nor Governor Clinton presented a comprehensive workable plan. The "Wall Street Journal" tells us that both of their plans are hundreds of billions out of balance. Ross wrote and published his own plan United We Stand: How We Can Take Back Our Country. You have responded by buying the book in record numbers and putting it on top of the New York Times best seller list. We all want our country back. We are willing to make the tough choices necessary to pass on the American Dream to our children.

When you finish reading this Voters Pamphlet ask yourself if the congressional and senatorial candidates have addressed the important issues and have what it takes to make the changes necessary. In his book Mr. Perot outlines the ABC's of his platform - Accountability, Balance, and Courage. Please read it. For further information, call the state headquarters in Seattle at (206) 223-0062 or the Spokane headquarters at (509) 326-8089 for help.

It is time for YOU to pick leaders who will work for YOU rather than PAC's or special interests. We don't need leaders who will just cash in, we need leaders who will help US take back OUR country. Let this be the year YOU vote for YOUR children and grandchildren.

Campaign Address:
Washington State Campaign for a New Tomorrow
P.O. Box 1182
Bothell, WA 98011
Telephone: (206) 754-7473

Feeling run-down? Worried about your future and your children's future? Wonder whether pulling the lever for the Democrats or Republicans will really make a difference?

Let's talk.

In the past fifteen years of Republican Presidents and Democrat-controlled Congresses we've seen:

- Big Business disinvest in the United States and magnify its exploitation of foreign labor, moving hundreds of thousands of jobs out of the country, lowering wages and conditions for all working people.

- An environment increasingly at risk.
- Our inner cities devastated by poverty, homelessness, poor schools, and police brutality.

- The Treasury looted by the savings and loan scandal and other welfare-for-the-rich boondoggles. Tax breaks for the wealthy, slashed services for everyone else.

- Civil rights threatened by Republican-appointed and Democrat-approved extremists on the Supreme Court — especially a woman's right to control her body.

- Military funding for ultra-expensive, unnecessary weapons paid for with massive deficit spending that has mortgaged the well-being of children yet to be born.

- Racism, sexism, and homophobia by government officials encouraging discrimination and violence against women, people of color, lesbians, and gay men.

Neither party has changed its stripes. Both parties support the job-exporting, worker-degrading North American Free Trade Agreement. Neither party proposes nationalized health care, or major cuts in military spending, or job programs adequate to alleviate the horrendous conditions that caused the LA rebellion. In short, both parties are tied to the Corporate Vision of low wages and no unions, benefits, environmental safeguards, or other inconvenient "restrictions on trade."

Working people need at least one party to represent our interests. Ron Daniels and Asiba Tupahache offer a different vision for the future:

- A socially responsible economy with sustainable development to revitalize rural and urban areas: full employment, decent wages and benefits; nationalized health care; affordable housing; greater control by workers and communities over business, industry, finance, and commerce; right to unionize; progressive taxation.

- Elimination of discrimination based on race, nationality, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability.

- Complete equality for women: full reproductive rights, pay equity, quality child care, paid pregnancy leave, support for ERA.

- Protection from the production and disposal of toxins poisoning our air, land, water, and food; environmentally safe jobs.

- Demilitarization and conversion to production for civilian needs by cutting military spending by 70%.

- Quality education for all: children as our priority; multicultural curriculums; free public colleges and universities.

- Restoration of treaty rights: economic justice for all Native American peoples.

- Reparations for African Americans for slavery and continuing institutional discrimination.

- Peace and development foreign policy: self-determination of all peoples and nations; economic and technical assistance to underdeveloped countries; withdrawal of U.S. troops abroad; nuclear disarmament.

To realize this vision, we need a party and a movement for working people, independent of the Democrats and Republicans. Vote for your interests, not General Motors'. Vote Ron Daniels and Asiba Tupahache. Then get active and organize!

Every American family is the victim of "Great Society" policies advanced by White House Republicans and Congressional Democrats.

Since 1961, Federal expenditures have increased from less than $100 billion to more than $1.5 trillion annually.

Since 1973, our standard of living has declined steadily. Americans work harder, but have less real income.

Vastly increased government regulation has closed down businesses, raised costs, and eliminated jobs.

More than change drivers, we must change directions, with a "vision of victory" to put America back on the right track.

We offer every taxpayer a "Grand Bargain." Help us cut Federal spending by $500 billion per year and we will abolish the IRS, so that you can keep all of the thousands of dollars you otherwise would be sending to Washington in income taxes.

George Bush's annual budget is fifty percent greater than Ronald Reagan's 1987 budget — just five years ago. It was $1 trillion then. It's $1.5 trillion now.

We can't afford it.

Last year, the income tax produced less than $500 billion. Borrowing and other revenues made up the difference. If we cut spending by $500 billion, we can cut taxes by $500 billion.

That will encourage savings, investment, consumption, and jobs.

I will keep America first militarily and make sure that our foreign policy is designed to serve the interests of American taxpayers and workers, rather than the goals of international banks, multinational corporations, and foreign governments.

I favor capital punishment. The answer to violent crime is not more prisons, but more executions. I will veto funds for those judges who thwart capital punishment or release dangerous felons.

As the former director of the United States Office of Economic Opportunity, I am the only non-incumbent candidate who has ever headed a major Federal agency—and the only Federal executive who, in office, launched a major effort to eliminate programs and cut spending in areas for which he was directly responsible.

The Taxpayers Party platform is based on the Bible and the Constitution of the United States, which establishes that all powers not explicitly delegated to the Federal government are reserved to the states and the people — that means you.

We are pro-jobs, pro-growth, and pro-life.

I will appoint no Federal judge who fails to publicly proclaim his acknowledgement that every unborn child is a human person created in God's image—entitled to full constitutional protections.

As Chairman of The Conservative Caucus and the U.S. Taxpayers Alliance, I've worked for limited government, traditional family values, and victory over Communism. I have fought against New World Order transfers of resources and authority to the World Bank, the IMF, and the United Nations. I have led national campaigns to block treaties which undermine U.S. liberty and security (Panama Canal, SALT II, INF, etc.).

As President, I would work to repeal quotas, to restore parental control of education, to cut off tax dollars for Planned Parenthood, to defeat gun control schemes, to end foreign aid, and to stop Federal subsidies for homosexuality.

John

Mike
TOMPKINS
Natural Law Party

Campaign Address:
Dr. John Hagelin for President Committee
51 W. Washington Street
Fairfield, IA 52556
Telephone: (515) 472-2040

The Natural Law Party was established to "bring the light of science into politics"—to introduce the most advanced, scientifically proven solutions to the nation's pressing problems.

Dr. John Hagelin, Presidential candidate, is a Harvard-trained quantum physicist and a world authority in unified field theories.

Economy: Cost-effective solutions to national problems of rising crime, spiralling health care costs, rehabilitation, etc., will eliminate the budget deficit and retire the national debt, while lowering taxes significantly. Reduced taxes will stimulate the economy, cut unemployment, and provide the basis for long-term economic growth and prosperity.

Energy and environment: Under appropriate government policies, environment and economy are not at odds. The Natural Law Party will support the development of new jobs and industries in energy conservation, renewable energy, sustainable agriculture, and related fields that will further the interests of both the economy and the environment.

Health care: Extensive research shows that prevention oriented health education and prevention oriented natural medicine will provide better health and cut health care costs by more than half. The resulting savings of hundreds of billions of dollars will allow government to ensure high quality health care to the 35 million Americans who currently do not qualify for Medicaid and cannot afford the high cost of private insurance.

Education: The Natural Law Party promotes educational programs that directly unfold intelligence, creativity, moral reasoning, and higher states of consciousness. Because such education is highly relevant to the student's own life, it will put an end to the growing attrition from our nation's schools and colleges. This will eliminate functional and technological illiteracy, and will substantially boost our national productivity and international competitiveness.

Crime, violence, drugs, and the inner city: The Natural Law Party supports effective job training, technical training, and management training programs, combined with practical programs to develop an individual's intelligence and full creative potential. The Natural Law Party also promotes proven programs to dissolve accumulated stress in the inner city environments. Such programs, including Transcendental Meditation, have been shown to relieve not only the physiological symptoms of stress, such as high blood pressure, but to reduce symptoms of societal stress, such as crime, violence, accidents, and hospital admissions, and to promote positive trends throughout society.

Defense and foreign policy: The Natural Law Party offers a scientifically proven peace creating technology, which will help to ensure increasingly peaceful and harmonious relationships among the family of nations. This technology will allow defense spending to be responsibly cut, and can thereby ensure a steadily growing "peace dividend" that can be used for more life-supporting programs at home and abroad.

The Natural Law Party believes that U.S. foreign policy should shift immediately from one based principally on military aid to a foreign policy based on the exportation of knowledge. American expertise in areas such as business administration and agriculture, supplemented where necessary with economic support, will allow many developing countries to become financially self-sufficient, eliminate hunger and poverty, and create a more affluent and prosperous world.

P.O. Box 3662
Seattle, WA 98124

Patty Murray will bring the voice of working people to the U.S. Senate. She has a proven record as an effective legislator, committed to making government work for all people. As a State Senator, she fought to pass legislation ranging from education to family leave, from safe neighborhoods to health care. As a U.S. Senator, she offers the voice for real change in our national government.

Restoring the economy and reducing the $4 trillion debt are critical issues. A long-term economic plan which includes a shift in R&D funding from military to civilian technologies, investment in infrastructure, education, and manufacturing must be implemented. We must reduce the military budget by at least $100 billion over the next five years, increase job training, reform the tax system, and reduce skyrocketing health care costs.

The success of the economy is dependent on our ability to provide jobs and educated workers for the future. Government, industry and academia must join forces to provide leadership committed to educational excellence.

The federal government must implement health care reform. Patty Murray will work to reform the health care system to provide strict cost-containment mechanisms and increase access. Health care decisions must be taken out of the hands of insurance companies, and returned to individuals and their health care providers.

Patty Murray will strive for workplace policies where people are not forced to choose between their job and their loved ones in times of crisis.

The environment and economy should not be in opposition to each other. Our future success is dependent on our ability to balance the health of both. Patty Murray will work to find that balance.

Patty Murray believes that with common sense, courage and leadership, real people can meet the challenges of the future. She is a voice for real change.

Campaign Address:
Chandler 92
P.O. Box 5755
Bellevue, WA 98006
Telephone: (206) 454-1166

Rod Chandler has a clear agenda for change. As our next United States Senator, Rod will work to control spending, reform health care, create jobs and change the liberal ways of Congress.

Control Spending

Rod supports the Balanced Budget Amendment to the Constitution and the Line-Item Veto. He has voted consistently for across-the-board-spending cuts. Rod also sponsored the Sunset Act for government programs (except Social Security) that would make them justify their existence every five years or go out of business.

Reform Health Care

Rod is fighting for dramatic health care reforms that retain our rights to choose our own doctors, control costs, expand access, and limit lawyers' fees in medical malpractice cases. He does not support creating another huge, inefficient government bureaucracy to run our health care system.

Create Jobs

Rod's economic blueprint for change will create jobs. He supports an investment tax credit and a capital gains tax cut to foster growth. Rod is an activist for agriculture, electronic, aerospace and forest product exports. And, he favors balancing environmental regulation with concern for people and their jobs.

Change Congress

Rod supports national term limits of 12 years. He also believes we must require Congress to live under the same laws it imposes on the rest of our families and businesses.

Rod Chandler's life has prepared him to turn the U.S. Senate into a place of action. He was born in a rural community, started his own small business, and together with his wife, Joyce, raised two children.

In 1974, he ran a grassroots campaign for the state House, and won. Eight years later, he won a hard fought campaign for Congress. Now, Rod wants to fight for us in the United States Senate.

Rod Chandler, he stands out because he stands up for change.

Campaign Address:
Al Swift for Congress
P.O. Box 941
Everett, WA 98206
Telephone: (206) 734-7747

Al Swift makes a difference. He always has.

This term he resolved two national rail disputes that could have shut down our entire economy, wrote a National Recycling Bill, passed Motor Voter Legislation which was vetoed, and that's just for starters.

Along with the rest of the delegation Al has worked to develop a balanced approach to our forests here at home, with consideration for environmental concerns and for the lives and livelihoods of people who live and work here.

There is more to be done.

Having gotten AMTRAK to agree to restore passenger rail service between Seattle and Vancouver — Swift is working with AMTRAK, the State, and Burlington Northern to finalize the arrangements that will make it work.

Al Swift is working to protect the future of our families by improving our education system because he understands that education means jobs. He has fought to limit abuses of children's television programming, and to expand drug education and law enforcement.

He is fighting to end the health care crisis by pushing for National Health Care Reform so that health care becomes a right for all Americans.

Al Swift worked to create a healthier environment for us and our children by passing the new Clean Air law. He is fighting for passage of a National Recycling Bill.

Al Swift's proven ability and his caring approach to the needs of our families and communities merit his re-election. He didn't bounce any checks or leave any unpaid restaurant bills. Al Swift is part of the solution to what ails Washington, D.C. There are a lot of changes that need to be made in government, and we need Al Swift to get real results.

Campaign Address:
Metcalf '92
4141 E. Hwy. 525, Box 7
Clinton, WA 98236
Telephone: (206) 341-1000

The single overriding issue today - the one that may well determine whether this country stands or falls - is the inability of Congress to balance the budget.

There is a seething rage among voters. People are furious at congressmen who raised their salaries $28,500 (more than most individuals earn) to a total of $128,100 per year and voted tax increases that will cost each family $2,000. But they didn't balance the budget.

Fifty years of Congressional spending binges and unbalanced budgets have produced a $4 trillion national debt; annual deficits of $200-400 billion. Nearly 15% of our budget now goes to pay the interest on the national debt.

What would I do? Roll back the big pay raise and cut congressional employees by 25%. I'd listen to those who have already identified budget cuts - the Grace Commission, Heritage Foundation etc. There must be no more "off budget" items - everything should be on the table. Four years of tough budgeting will balance the budget.

I believe so strongly in a balanced budget that I was the first Republican challenger to sign the "lead or leave" pledge. If the deficit is not cut in half by 1996, I will not seek re-election.

A former congressman recently said, "We don't have a congress anymore; we have delegates from special interests."

Federal Election Commission reports show my opponent, a 14 year incumbent, had already raised over $300,000 by May, 1992, mostly from out-of-state political action committees and special interests. Most individual contributions were $250 or more. Most of my contributions are from Washington citizens, averaging $35.

In 1992, we can elect the biggest "freshman class" in the modern history of Congress. New members, free of special interest ties, will make the tough decisions to balance the budget and get this nation back on track.

R.M. "Robin" DEXTER

Independent

Campaign Address:

Citizens for Robin Dexter

P.O. Box 916

Bellingham, WA 98227

Telephone: (206) 733-2977

Second district voters desiring real political choice are rewarded in 1992. If you've had enough of pork barrelling and partisan paralysis in Congress, Robin Dexter challenges you to send an articulate, common-sense, working man to Washington. Robin

Dexter is a forty-four year old commercial fisherman who has lived with his family in Whatcom County for twenty years. He is a veteran of numerous public policy debates, including a nationwide effort of shareholders to force environmental policy reforms on the Exxon Corporation.

So many retirements have occurred in Congress this year that as many as two hundred new members will be elected. Leadership in the House of Representatives will be dominated for more than a generation by those elected in 1992. There is great change coming in the balance of power in Congress. To benefit from this change, Second District voters must retire their incumbent now, not in 1994.

As an independent, Robin Dexter will use his leadership skills to preserve bipartisan harmony in this huge freshman caucus. This caucus comes to Washington with a simple agenda — We will balance the budget— period! Budgetary reform, housekeeping reform, and election reform will go forward.

Congress does not lack creative, equitable solutions to the nation's problems. What Congress lacks and what Robin Dexter has is courage and the will to make difficult decisions — decisions guided by the principles that environmental responsibility and a healthy sustainable economy are not incompatible and that our most valuable resources are healthy, well-educated children, stable families, and safe communities.

Robin Dexter urges the voters of the Second District to have faith that campaigns like his are at work across the nation. Retiring the incumbent and sending Robin to Congress will make a difference.

The Natural Law Party will begin its administration establishing groups of experts practicing the Transcendental Meditation and T.M. Sidhi program. Scientific research (over 500 studies, conducted at over 200 universities and research institutions in 27 countries) has shown that even one group of 7000 promotes a powerful upsurge of the nourishing influence of natural law throughout the collective consciousness, dramatically reducing negative tendencies, crime, accidents, and sickness and greatly strengthening positive economic and social trends.

Two examples: People practicing one of the programs we propose, T.M. and the T.M. Sidhi Program, use 50% less medical treatment than usual, other programs cause further reductions. Introducing these programs into prisons cause recidivism to drop 30-90%, drastically reducing violence and non-cooperative behavior among prisoners, soon other prisoners request permission to start the programs.

In the new atmosphere of national harmony from these programs, all political parties and other politically active groups can cooperate in truly national government.

Two examples of the Natural Law Party policy: We will lower taxes by simplifying administration and reduce government expenditure by eliminating problems in every sector of national life. We are promoting a nation of pollution-free industries, energy, and transportation.

I will be advocating these and all other scientifically validated programs for reducing stress and creating coherence in every area of society. The Natural Law Party, "Only a New Seed Will Yield a New Crop."

Mike Lowry will govern for all the state's hard working citizens and business people, not the special interests.

That's why Lowry alone in the governor's race refuses to take big money contributions. His limit: the $1,500 recommended by the League of Women Voters.

His aim: To make our state, its environment, its economy better for ourselves and our children.

Lowry's method: To use leadership skills and ideas he honed as a state budget expert, a local government leader, an exceptional member of Congress and for the past four years a teacher ranked outstanding at Seattle University — all to bring diverse people together to get the job done.

To the governorship Lowry brings a special point of view:

He is the candidate with deep roots on both sides of the Cascades.

The Renton Democrat is a Washington State University graduate, born and reared in rural Eastern Washington, where he maintains strong ties and got his values of honesty and straight talk. Lowry is equally at home discussing wheat markets, timber harvesting or the Export-Import Bank program that he saved in Congress that finances Washington aerospace and other export sales, upon which thousands of Washington jobs depend.

Lowry's priorities: To make our schools second to none so that all students receive the training they need to reach their highest goals. To institute forthwith a health care program affordable and available to all citizens. To restore, guard and enhance our environment, including salmon and steelhead runs. To relieve unfair tax burdens on small businesses and low and middle income citizens. To make state government lean, vigorous, quick in delivering services. To create a business climate that nurtures our natural resources, high technology and emerging industries. For responsive government beholden only to the citizens, vote for Mike Lowry, Democrat, governor.

When I was a young man growing up in Wenatchee, the State of Washington had an open admissions policy at state colleges and universities. Essentially, any young person who wanted to go to college was allowed to do so, at a reasonable cost. It was a gateway to the middle class for children that came from less than well-to-do families.

Because of the open admissions policy, I was able to attend a community college, and later work my way through Washington State University and the University of Washington Law School.

I do not know the course my life would have taken had it not been for open admissions, but it is safe to say that I would not have become an FBI agent, legislator, prosecutor or Attorney General. I doubt that I would be running for Governor.

Washington State abolished its open admissions policy a few years ago. It was a mistake. Reinstating open admissions is one of my top priorities as Governor.

I fervently believe that we can keep taxes down, and still find money for the important things through better management and by cutting waste in government.

The state should contract with private industry to provide state services whenever possible.

We should put a cap on the size of the state workforce, and gradually reduce it through attrition.

Criminals should be required to work to help reduce prison costs.

Through better management, we can avoid new taxes, solve our deficit problem, and still find funds for better schools, improved health care, law enforcement and the protection of our natural resources.

After 32 years as an office holder and lobbyist, the Republican incumbent deserves a comfortable retirement. The voters deserve a leader for their Lieutenant Governor.

Richard Kelley, 42, will be that leader. He knows we need to reform our scandalous campaign finance system. We need to protect a woman's right of choice. We need to invest in a statewide rapid rail system to protect our environment, while creating jobs and building our tax base to fund education, healthcare and housing.

Kelley will not accept contributions from lobbyists, or any contribution above the League of Women Voters' proposed limit.

He has outstanding training and experience. He worked his way through Harvard, and later earned an M.P.A. and a Ph.D. in Government from the University of Washington. He has taught Government and Public Finance at several colleges. He served as Seattle's Deputy Mayor, but most of his public service has paid him little or nothing. In 5 years as member and Chair of the State Personnel Board, he arbitrated over 100 labor disputes. For the past 6 years, he has been President of Critical Ventures, a low-income housing organization. He has been married 12 years, and has two children.

He is a strong advocate of Campaign Finance Reform. He supports efforts to reduce the amount of money spent in campaigns; limiting the size of contributions, and forbidding state officials from soliciting political contributions from state employees.

As a Libertarian, I believe that Big Government is a cancer masquerading as a cure. Republicans and Democrats alike continually impose new taxes, waste, and laws. Their policies may benefit different pressure groups lobbying for handouts or regulations that restrict competition, but always at the expense of our taxpayers, consumers, small businesses, and charities.

Libertarians are different. We stand against government rigging the marketplace, criminalizing peaceful behavior, or redistributing your earnings. Libertarians stand for creating jobs and cutting prices by restoring honest competition; aggressively cutting taxes and wasteful programs; holding polluters fully liable for their damages; getting serious with violent criminals; empowering all families with educational choice; and restoring the civil and economic liberties we've already lost.

Big Government is rapidly eroding our prosperity and our freedoms, so please don't waste your vote on the two parties responsible. The more votes Libertarians get, the more the Demopublicans will change to earn your support again. Libertarians don't have to win, we just have to give them a good scare. Elect Jeanne Dixon (D) to Secretary of State position—2nd in succession to Office of Governor.

One primary function of Secretary of State is the corporation

Division. As in her 1988 Governorship campaign against White-Collar crimes, Jeanne opposes State mismanagements allowing the Secretary of State office's back doors open to illegal entries of corporations using alias names without proper payments of required fees, fines, taxes or unpaid judgements—permitting unfair competitions violating WA Constitution Article 12, Section 7, and other corporation restrictive statutes!

Should this back door remain unlocked and open 4 more years of these illegal entry violations affecting our citizens' welfare and economy? Certainly not!!!! Then —

As Washington's chief elections officer, Ralph Munro has modernized voter registration with innovative programs like "Motor Voter," saved our new 9th Congressional District, and led efforts to make polling places accessible. He is committed to changing the initiative-created Presidential Primary so it becomes the true voice of the people it was intended to be.

Ralph Munro works tirelessly to make government more responsive. He was the driving force behind the "one-stop" business license system, and developed a program that helps victims of domestic violence maintain their confidentiality. As chair of the Productivity Board, Ralph Munro encourages ideas that cut the cost of government.

Whether coordinating our Centennial Celebration, building the Washington State Vietnam Veterans Memorial, or promoting trade and goodwill with countries around the world, especially our Pacific Rim neighbors, Ralph Munro knows how to work with people to get things done. He has received numerous awards for public service, including the prestigious Warren G. Magnuson award.

Through his accomplishments and vision for Washington's future, Ralph Munro continues to live up to his pledge to "help make our state as good for our children as it has been for us." His record merits your vote.

Seattle, WA 98118

This office has one function I will take a special interest in: co-chairing the State Productivity Board. The purpose of this body is to promote efficiency and productivity in state government. Since its creation in 1983 it has only managed to save fourteen million dollars. This is disgraceful. I will bring a new aggressiveness to seeking out ways to improve government efficiency, with an emphasis on contracting out private service delivery. As part of the Libertarian message emphasizing individual choice and tolerant diversity, I will also place an emphasis on further improving the registration of voters. I am also interested in keeping the election process open to all individuals, not just the select candidates of the major party machines.

Next, as the registrar of corporations and charitable organizations, I will seek ways to make these faceless and anonymous organizations more accountable for their actions. Too many irresponsible acts are committed in the name of absent and uninvolved shareholders. It is time to place more emphasis on real individual conscience, and less on the fictional concern of corporations.

Finally, I absolutely support a woman's right of reproductive choice and the decriminalization of all crimes not involving force, fraud or exploitation of minors.

Dan Grimm for State Treasurer
P.O. Box 95422
Seattle, WA 98145-2422
Telephone: (206) 522-3275

Dan Grimm is the only candidate for State Treasurer with a proven record of managing state finances. During his first term, he earned taxpayers more than $1 million each working day of the year.

Interest earnings were $935 million, with another $190 million saved from bond refinancing. This was accomplished with an office budget that increased less than inflation and by a staff the same size it was when Dan Grimm took office.

His leadership brought the state an improved credit rating, which means even more savings for taxpayers.

A state savings bond program implemented by Dan Grimm provides tax free income for Washington families which must deal with the high cost of higher education.

Dan Grimm's courage in attacking the status quo led the way to improve management at the State Investment Board and greater security for $22 billion in pension and other trust funds.

Grimm has also shown leadership by adopting an ethics policy for himself and his staff that goes well beyond the requirements of Public Disclosure law.

A long time resident of Puyallup, Dan still lives there with his daughter Whitney K, who is in the first grade.

State government is going broke - despite $2,104 in state and local taxes coming out of your pocket each year. Is your money being spent efficiently and effectively? Sam Reed says no.

As your next state auditor, Sam Reed will:

Change the auditor's office from an obscure bureaucracy into what Washington's founders intended it to be - the taxpayers' champion.

Change the office to audit state government for performance, not just balance its books.

Change the auditor's relationship with local officials to help them become more efficient users of your local tax dollars.

Sam Reed will bring real change to the State Auditor's Office....an end to a 60-year, one-party dynasty.

Committee to Elect
Art Rathjen
P.O. Box 4412
Federal Way, WA 98063
Telephone: (206) 527-6149

Independent: As State Auditor, Art Rathjen will be independent of those he is auditing, unlike old party politicians who would have an inherent conflict of interest in auditing the agencies run by their political cronies.

Being Auditor is a public trust, the taxpayers' defense against fraud or misuse of our tax dollars. Independence is required!

Principled: Libertarian Art Rathjen believes, like Thomas Jefferson, in limiting government to its legitimate function: helping individuals defend themselves, their rights, and their property; that people should be free to achieve their full potential and pursue happiness without limits, so long as they respect the equal rights of others.

This viewpoint is independent from the old party politicians and bureaucrats who advocate bigger government, more regulations.

Qualified: Washington has had only three Auditors since 1905. Unlike both old party candidates for Auditor, Art Rathjen is not a career politician. He's an experienced engineering manager, qualified to lead the Auditor's Office in continuous improvement of productivity and quality of services.

Art has a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering and a BS in Psychology, is a Viet Nam veteran, lives with his wife and son in Seattle, and enjoys skiing, mountaineering, volunteer trail building, and sea kayaking.

Attorney General
P.O. Box 2114
Olympia, WA 98507-2114
Telephone: (206) 956-3326

Christine Gregoire has the experience to be our next Attorney General. She is the only candidate who has worked in the Attorney General's office. Gregoire worked her way up to become the first woman Deputy Attorney General, running operations in eastern and western Washington. Along the way, she earned a reputation as a "savvy legal strategist" and "a tough negotiator" leading the state's efforts on landmark cases.

She has fought for us before the U.S. Supreme Court, Congress, and our legislature and has successfully taken on the federal government at Hanford and the Navy's Everett Homeport. She will be the people's lawyer our state needs and deserves.

Christine Gregoire is a first-time candidate. She is running because the job of Attorney General is too important to be left to politicians only seeking higher office. Only Gregoire is offering an agenda that covers the full scope and duties of the state's top lawyer. Known for her integrity, Gregoire is the only candidate who is not drawing a taxpayer-paid salary while campaigning for the job.

A graduate of the University of Washington and Gonzaga Law School, Gregoire lives in Olympia with her husband, Mike, and their two daughters.

As Staff Counsel to Senator Warren Magnuson's Commerce Committee, he helped write the law against flammable children's clothing.

Elected King County Prosecutor, he set up a Special Assault Unit to fight child abuse and protect battered women that became a national model.

He led Governor Gardner's Community Protection Task Force, formed in the aftermath of several outrageous sex crimes, and won a victory for community safety from sex predators.

He has helped restore the Crime Victims Compensation Fund that's helped victims by making criminals pay for their crimes.

His hard work and ability won such wide respect that he was re-elected three times without opposition.

As Attorney General, Norm Maleng will continue standing up for us. His priorities for the office are:

- Protection of children from abuse and neglect;
- Forging a partnership with local law enforcement to combat crime;
- Cracking down on consumer fraud;
- Enforcing laws protecting our air, water, and natural beauty in a way that is predictable, consistent, and fair.

Olympia, WA 98506
Telephone: (206) 956-0193

Our Lands Commissioner must be prepared to make tough, educated decisions to protect both jobs and the environment. I have a strong record of protecting both—a record in the House of Representatives of nearly 100% on labor and environmental issues. Washington must be a leader in commodity production—and do it in an environmentally sound way.

The Commissioner manages 5 million acres of forest, farm, and aquatic lands, and makes decisions that vitally impact our economy and quality of life. The next commissioner must ensure that our lands are properly managed to generate revenue for our schools and jobs for thousands of workers. She must be experienced enough to make those decisions so that we also protect other public resources such as fish and wildlife habitat and provide a variety of recreational opportunities.

As a state representative for the past 10 years and chair of the Natural Resources Committee, I've provided leadership on issues ranging from economic development assistance in timber communities to new forestry practices and protection of sensitive areas.

My endorsements for this office include the State Labor Council, WEA, Firefighters, Women's groups, Federation of State Employees, WENPAC. I'll work with you to make those tough decisions.

lands for tomorrow.

Education. State timber sales benefit the public school construction fund — and our state's children! As a mother, former teacher, and legislator I believe that education funding is a top priority of government and that it is possible to protect our environment and generate badly needed funds to build and remodel our schools. My expertise and working knowledge of the forest products industry will help me accomplish this challenge.

Environment and Economy. Healthy farms and forests lead to a healthy environment and a prosperous economy. The balance that's needed between our economy and our environment can be achieved. But, balance can only be achieved through sound management policies that refuse to pander to extremists on either side of the debate.

Leadership and Experience. In a state senate, I have been recognized by my colleagues as a tough negotiator and an effective leader for my work in support of small business, reforming education, protecting property rights and passing the 1991 Clean Air Act, a model for the rest of the country.

I would appreciate your vote in this critical race.

His active history in environmental issues exceeds his opponents' contributions, having helped pass the State Environmental Policy Act, establish the Department of Ecology, and test the law as a citizen litigant. Throughout this involvement, he's emphasized the interdependence of environment and economics, not accepting simplistic doctrines that make industry and environment incompatible. Telephone: (206) 754-3559

Judith Billings is our state's most effective advocate for all children. As Superintendent of Public Instruction, Judith is leading the movement to reform education and adequately fund schools.

Judith's leadership has resulted in: reduced class size for elementary schools, early intervention services for kindergarten through grade six, more dropout prevention and drug abuse education, and the largest increases in funding for education programs in twelve years.

Judith has also pushed hard to move decision making from the state to local districts.

Perhaps Judith's most valuable accomplishment has been in convincing educators and politicians that together we must deal with the whole child. To learn well, children must be healthy, loved and free from violence. Each child's individual intellectual, social and physical needs must be met for that child to learn and prepare for a productive life.

Judith has spent thirty years in education — at the local, state and federal levels, including thirteen as a classroom teacher with at risk children. She is also an attorney. She is endorsed by the State Labor Council, the Washington Education Association and leading business people and educators.

Judith and her husband, Don, live in Pierce County. They have four children and seven grandchildren.

The quality of education will determine the quality of our State's future. I have a vision of what schools can and must be and the experience to lead education into the 21st Century. As SPI, I will build consensus on education reform and unify parents, educators, students, business and community leaders around the plan we build to achieve it.

The goal is clear. We must prepare our children to live, learn, and work successfully in our changing world. They must learn the traditional basics of reading, writing and mathematics and the new basics of thinking, relating and planning.

Education must change to meet this goal. I am running to lead the change, to cut SPI bureaucracy, to help local districts, and to free educators to teach.

During my 28 years as a teacher, guidance counselor, organizational leader, and administrator, I have seen the power of public schools to change children's lives. Despite the challenges, if we work together creatively, we can motivate and equip all children to succeed.

In its endorsement, the Seattle Times stated, "Bergeson has the dynamic personality of both a leader and consensus builder. . . . Terry Bergeson offers the best hope of making statewide school reform possible."

Campaign Address:
Deborah Senn for Insurance
Commissioner
1207 Pine Street
Seattle, WA 98101
Telephone: (206) 467-4113

Deborah Senn is endorsed by U.S. Representatives Norm Dicks, Jim McDermott, Al Swift, and Jolene Unsoeld; Mayors

Sheri Barnard, Gene Liddell, and Norm Rice; the Washington State Labor Council; and numerous others.

Attorney Deborah Senn has been an effective advocate against utility rate hikes. She's fought for victims of domestic violence and child abuse, for fair wages for school employees, and to end employment discrimination. This is the kind of background that deserves our trust. Now, she'll use the Insurance Commissioner's existing powers to fight for affordable health insurance.

Until Deborah Senn raised the issue, the incumbent neglected health insurance reform. As Commissioner, Senn will combat skyrocketing costs, arbitrary exclusions for pre-existing conditions, and loss of coverage when people change jobs.

The incumbent has been in office for 16 years. He accepts contributions from insurance company executives. Deborah Senn will not accept such contributions.

The incumbent's inaction has caused the loss of over 100 million of your tax dollars to bail out insolvent insurance companies. Deborah Senn will require insurers to be financially sound.

If you're paying more for insurance and getting less coverage, or if you cannot afford insurance - Vote for Deborah Senn, a leader for change.

Richard G. "Dick" MARQUARDT

Republican

Dick Marquardt continues to win national acclaim as a fighter for consumer rights. A long-time Seattle resident, Dick served as a State Senator and was Selective Service chief before being elected Insurance Commissioner.

His years of dealing with people's insurance problems have convinced Dick that universal health care must be adopted, but he's committed to improving our present insurance system now. Washington is the first state to look at insurance companies' refusal to pay for "experimental" procedures, and Dick is seeking continuous coverage for people changing from one insurance plan to another.

"I am proud of my staff, particularly their work on consumer protection," Dick says. "My investigative team has won national praise for ferreting out white collar crime."

Dick has been a leader in protecting senior citizens from health insurance sales and policy abuses. His Senior Health Insurance Benefits Advisors (SHIBA) volunteer program has been copied by practically all other states, but it began here in Washington.

Dick banned misleading TV celebrity insurance pitches, and stopped more than a dozen junk mail insurance marketing schemes. Keep experience and integrity in the Insurance Commissioner's office. Keep Dick working for you in Olympia.

"Can you risk not being paid promptly and fairly by an insurance company when you are sick or hurt, your car is wrecked or stolen, your home or business is damaged, a loved one dies or when you retire? No Washingtonian should be required to do so, yet that is what has happened and will happen unless you elect a knowledgeable, decisive Insurance Commissioner.

I will apply my 22 years of experience as a professional insurance consultant and executive to protect you from financially weak insurers and unfair claims practices. I am on record repeatedly having warned the incumbent about unsafe and unsound firms. Elect me and I will make sure that we will not again be faced with covering $200 million in lost premium taxes used to bail-out bankrupt companies or sending subsidies to other states such as California.

Insurance is a big and complex business. Its regulation has a greater, direct impact on your pocketbook than any other state agency. You need an expert on your side. As the independent candidate, I am not beholden to any political party or special interest. My commitment, as your Insurance Commissioner, is to protect your rights as policyholders and taxpayers."

Judge Barbara Madsen will protect the liberties guaranteed all our citizens. The Supreme Court needs her outstanding leadership, as well as her acute ability to listen and render fair judgements.

Proven leadership for our future

Judge Madsen, elected Presiding Judge of Seattle Municipal Court, will bring fresh perspective to the Supreme Court. Madsen, selected by her colleagues to lead Washington's busiest court these past three years, has been serving the public as a Court Commissioner, Magistrate and Judge since 1985.

Balanced experience

A 1977 Gonzaga Law School graduate, Madsen has practiced in Eastern and Western Washington, serving as a defense attorney and a prosecutor. Appointed Special Prosecutor for two consecutive terms, Madsen developed the child abuse component of Seattle's Family Violence Project. She prosecuted sensitive political matters and serious domestic violence and child abuse cases.

Bringing compassion to Washington's highest court

Barbara Madsen, a working mother of four, combines common sense and legal training in her judgements. Her balanced legal background as well as experience in the most culturally diverse court in Washington makes her sensitive to issues confronting us all. In these times of wavering public confidence, we need the strong, honest and compassionate voice of Judge Barbara Madsen.

"For her courage, conscience and compassion, with these gifts she truly has made a difference." Those words were inscribed on the award when I became the first woman named Washington Trial Lawyer of the Year in 1991. I hold those words dear because they speak to both my skill as lawyer and my commitment to helping people.

I have committed my career to righting injustice. The injustice of a child's brain destroyed because a manufacturer chose not to warn parents of the product's danger. The injustice of a young woman stabbed and left brain-damaged after her employer refused to respond to employee fears of an unsafe parking lot except to say "wear tennis shoes."

I am proud of my work and the recognition that work has received. Martindale-Hubbe, a 125 year old legal rating publication, gave me its highest rating (AV), which is limited to the top 10% of all lawyers.

And retired Supreme Court Justice Vernon Pearson has honored me with his endorsement: "The Citizens of this State deserve a Justice with the energy, intellect and ability of Elaine Houghton. She has proven commitment to justice for all citizens."

Judicial elections are the means whereby citizens hold judges accountable for their conduct in office. I am proud of my work on our state's highest court and stand on my record.

During my sixteen years on the Washington Supreme Court I have worked successfully to streamline judicial administration and to reduce the backlog of cases to be decided.

I believe citizens need a first-hand understanding of our judicial system. When I became Chief Justice, the Supreme Court began to hold sessions throughout our state, not just in Olympia.

For me, education is a top priority. I have served as an adjunct law professor and a trustee of the Washington Center for Law-Related Education and the University of Washington Law School Foundation. I am a trustee of the University of Puget Sound and serve on the Board of Visitors of its law school.

My commitment to public service extends beyond the legal community. I have been active with my church, the Boy Scouts, the Nature Conservancy, the Washington State 4-H Foundation, the United Way and many other civic organizations.

I believe I have been a good judge: honest, independent, hardworking and fair. I am ready and willing to serve.

The legal system should be used for our protection and benefit, not to line the pockets of lawyers, government or big business. Our individual constitutional rights should be preserved, not taken away. Instead the Supreme court is actively pursuing a policy of restricting our rights.

The court should be working to weed out frivolous lawsuits and expensive legal ploys designed to drag out lawsuits and generate more legal fees. Instead, the court's decisions are protecting and perpetuating the current system.

Members of the Supreme court are seriously out of touch with what we need and want from the legal system. Most were appointed, not elected, and have served without opposition for as long as twenty one years. We did not intend these positions to be lifetime appointments.

Whidbey Island attorney Joan McPherson's broad legal experience and involvement in activities concerning the islands and the community qualify her for the bench and give her a different perspective.

McPherson entered Puget Sound Law School at age 48 and began practice in 1984. Her practice involves a wide variety of criminal, civil, and juvenile issues, including appellate. While practicing, she was Island County Superior Court Commissioner, 1985, and a public defender five years. She was recently reappointed Commissioner for juvenile matters.

McPherson has participated on state and local Bar Association Public Relations Committees. She has provided free legal services for the Island County Historical Society, Substance Abuse Task Force (an anti-drug organization), and STOP pipeline opposition group.

Community involvement includes: Ebey's Landing National Historical Reserve; opposition to Northern Tier and Trans Mountain underwater oil pipeline proposals; Chamber of Commerce; Coupeville Planning Commission; League of Women Voters; Soroptomist; and Board Member, United Way.

McPherson did not go directly from the classroom to the courtroom. She knows what it's like to be frustrated by the legal system, and believes judges should work to improve that system.

She is especially active in employment law and civil litigation, and has won several landmark cases which helped determine how the law is interpreted.

Deborra understands the victim's perspective on crime because of her long-term work as a legal advocate for abused children, for crime victims, and for Womenscare Shelter. She is active in the Whatcom County Volunteer Lawyer Program, and in high school and college level legal education.

Deborra has helped decide land use and growth and development issues on the Bellingham Planning Commission since 1986. She has been a Judge pro tem in Superior and Municipal Courts, a Superior Court Arbitrator, and a Hearing Officer for the Bar Association in discipline cases. Her broad experience in life and in law help Deborra understand many points of view. Her balanced perspective, and her demonstrated commitment to achieving justice through careful analysis and hard work in court, will make Deborra an outstanding judge.

Committee to Elect Steve Mura
Superior Court Judge

Bellingham, WA 98225
Telephone: (206) 671-1796

Above all, a Judge should have broad legal experience, honesty, integrity, sound judgement and an appreciation of our community. Steve Mura is that person.

He was born and raised in Bellingham, graduated from Bellingham High in 1967, was appointed by Senator Jackson to attend West Point and served with distinction as an Army officer.

Our federal judges have repeatedly recognized his honesty, integrity and sound judgment when they appointed him United States Magistrate Judge for Western Washington in 1983, and twice reappointed him in 1987 and 1991.

He knows the law. He's represented hundreds of clients in 10 years of private practice.

He cares deeply about justice, the safety of our community and individual rights, having served as a criminal prosecutor for 4 years and defense counsel for 3 years.

He demonstrated his integrity and commitment to fairness by refusing contributions from attorneys or endorsements from law enforcement groups.

He served his community and those who could not afford a lawyer by volunteering for 5 years as host of the "Law Talk" radio program.

He and his wife Christine, an elementary school teacher, have been married 20 years and have four children.

Steve Mura will be an excellent Judge.

Committee to Elect
Mary Margaret Haugen
1268 N. Olsen Road
Camano Island, WA 98292
Telephone: 1 (800) 528-1802

Mary Margaret Haugen is someone we know. She's someone we trust. She's been a hard-working, independent and effective voice for us in Olympia. While most politicians talk, Mary Margaret rolls up her sleeves and goes to work. The results speak for themselves.

Mary Margaret successfully fought to acquire pristine wilderness at Keystone Spit. She sponsored a new law requiring insurance companies to cover preventative mammograms for women age 35 and older. Mary Margaret was a leader in the effort to secure additional funding for criminal justice programs. She used her clout to ensure growth management laws found a balance between the environment and the economy. She's built a strong record of opposing tax increases. She supported health care reform legislation that would control costs and guarantee access. And, as Chair of the Local Government Committee, Mary Margaret has long worked to ensure government at all levels is efficient and effective.

With Mary Margaret in the Senate, we know our interests will be heard. We know she'll take care of our district. We know she'll get results. Mary Margaret was a leader in the House and she'll be a leader in the Senate. Mary Margaret works for us.

Campaign Address:
Dick Caldwell for State Senate
P.O. Box 1706
Coupeville, WA 98239
Telephone: (206) 678-7161

My name is Dick Caldwell. I'd like your vote for State Senate to signal a restoration of honesty and integrity in state government.

I'm proud that I am not a legislator.

For five years, I have served as an Island County Commissioner. Before that, I worked as a school administrator; I believe it's possible to get results for our taxes.

This year the Legislature will face a $1.6 billion shortfall ... and the cry will be made to raise taxes again. But as the budget director for the Los Angeles city schools, I learned how to read a budget from the inside out.

We don't need higher taxes for state government.

I don't believe in public officials who use taxpayer money for fancy offices, trips, and salary increases. I caused quite a stir in Island County when I voted against salary increases for the County Commission. But, how can elected officials give themselves pay increases when their employees ... and other working people ... are struggling to make ends meet?

My wife, Joan, and I have three grown sons. I was born and raised in Washington and am an Army veteran. We live on Whidbey Island where we are active in the community.

She is working for a Legislature that serves the people - not the politicians. As our new State Senator she will continue to provide leadership and experience we can trust.

Harriet is a hard worker and a strong advocate for people. She gets things done for our community - like increased enrollments at our community colleges and universities, new job training for displaced timber workers, a new local mental health treatment facility, and acquisition of recreational lands. The future of our families, children, and seniors is her top priority.

As our new senator, Harriet will keep working for quality education for our children and affordable health care for everyone. She will keep fighting for more funds for local law enforcement and crime prevention. Campaign Address:
Citizens to Elect Ted Anderson
955 Sterling Street
Sedro Wooley, WA 98284
Telephone: (206) 855-1024

I'm Ted Anderson, and I'm running for the Senate because we need a voice to speak up for working families, for property owners, for forest products workers and for people concerned about our schools.

As a father of three children, a husband for 27 years, and a man who has worked a lifetime in our forests, on our farms and in our small businesses to provide for my family, I think it's time Olympia listened to us.

I'm not a professional politician — just someone who cares about the future of our way of life. I've worked in berry fields and saw mills. I've raised children, run a business and been active in support of our community. I've been president of the Jaycees, a member of Kiwanis and a Masonic Lodge member.

As your Senator, I'll bring a fair-minded approach to controversial issues like preserving forest products-jobs, restoring private property rights and bringing local control. And I'll keep government from digging any deeper into our pockets.

We need a voice for change in Olympia — a voice for us. As your Senator, the people of the 40th District will be my "special interest."

THE OFFICE OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

THE OFFICE OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

In addition to the various state and county offices which will appear upon the general election ballot, most voters will have the opportunity to vote for the office of "precinct committee officer."

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

State law (RCW 29.42.040) provides that any person who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for the office of precinct committee officer by filing a declaration of candidacy and paying a $1 filing fee to the county auditor. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself or herself to be a Democrat or a Republican at the time he or she files for the office. The filing period for the office of precinct committee officer begins at the same time as the filing period for other partisan offices (the fourth Monday in July in even-numbered years), and lasts for three weeks, ending on the third Friday following that date.

ELECTION OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

Candidates for precinct committee officer do not appear on the primary ballot but rather are placed directly on the general election ballot, and the candidate receiving the most votes in his or her precinct for each political party is declared elected. State law (RCW 29.42.050) does provide, however, that to be declared elected, a candidate must receive at least 10% of the number of votes cast for the candidate of his or her party receiving the greatest number of votes in that precinct.

TERM OF OFFICE AND VACANCIES

The term of office for anyone elected to the office of precinct committee officer is two years, and commences upon the official canvass of election returns by the county canvassing board. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the usual process is for the chairman of the party central committee to fill the vacancy by appointment. Appointments to fill vacancies cannot be made between the state general election and the organization meeting of the county central committee, which must be held prior to the second Saturday in January following the election of precinct committee officer.

DUTIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER AS MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY AND STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEES

1. Each precinct committee officer is a member of the county central committee. The county central committee has the authority to fill vacancies on the party ticket for partisan county offices and for legislative offices in districts entirely within that county when no candidate files for such a position or when a candidate or nominee dies or is disqualified leaving no candidate of that party for such an office; they may also nominate persons for appointment to these offices if an incumbent of that party resigns; and finally, elect members to the state central committee.

2. The state central committee has the authority under state law (RCW 29.42.020) to:
  - Call caucuses and conventions.
  - Provide for the election of delegates to national nominating conventions.
  - Fill vacancies on the party ticket for any federal, state or legislative office which encompasses more than one county.
  - Nominate persons to fill vacancies caused by resignation or death of an incumbent of that party in state offices and legislative offices in districts which encompass more than one county.
  - Provide for the nomination of presidential electors.
  - Perform other functions inherent in such an organization.

NON-STATUTORY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF PRECINCT COMMITTEE OFFICER

Specific duties and responsibilities of a precinct committee officer are usually determined by either the county or state central committees. The following duties are commonly assigned to precinct committee officers by their party organization:

- Keep informed on current issues and candidates, study the party platform.
- Attend meetings of county committees and actively participate in fund-raising activities.
- Obtain lists of registered voters from the County Auditor's office.
- Canvass the precinct and become acquainted with the voters residing therein.
- Establish a record of eligible voters and party members within the precinct.
- Encourage voter registration within the precinct.
- Distribute party election materials during election campaigns.
- Recommend party members to work as precinct election officers.
- Encourage voters to get out and vote on election day.
- Encourage the use of absentee ballots.
- Hold precinct caucuses at certain selected times for the purpose of adopting resolutions and selecting delegates to the county conventions.

Individuals who are interested in serving as a precinct committee officer should contact the chairman of the county central committee of their party or the state committee office of that party.

ELECTION DAY AND VOTING

Where to vote:

At your precinct's polling place. The name and number are on your registration card and the location is published in the newspaper sometime the week before the election. You may also call your county auditor.

When to vote:

Polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

How to vote:

Four methods of voting are used in Washington State: punchcard, lever machine, paper ballot and optical scan. Each county uses one or a combination of these methods. If you need assistance, you may ask an election worker to explain how to use your county's voting device or ballot.

Absentee voting:

1. Regular Absentee Ballot: If you cannot vote in person, you may vote by absentee ballot. You may request an absentee ballot, in person, by mail or by telephone, as early as 45 days before the election, but no later than the day before the election. Registered voters may request an absentee ballot by telephone for themselves and other members of their immediate family by calling their county auditor.

Exception: If you are confined to the hospital and were admitted no earlier than five days before the election, you may apply for an absentee ballot up to and including the day of the election.

2. Service Absentee Ballot: Members of the military service may apply for an absentee ballot at any time. Such service voters will be mailed an absentee ballot for the next primary or general election, or special election to be held subsequent to the date of application.

3. Special Absentee Ballot: A voter who is working outside the continental United States and will be unable to return a regular absentee ballot by normal mail delivery may apply for a special absentee ballot 90 days before the primary or general election. The special absentee ballot will contain the offices and measures, if known, scheduled to appear on the ballot. The county auditor will include a list of candidates who have filed and a list of any issues that have been referred to the ballot before the application was filed.

The voter may use the special absentee ballot to write in the name of an eligible candidate for each office and vote on any measure.

4. Ongoing Absentee Ballot: If you are a disabled person or a person over the age of 65, you may apply for status as an ongoing absentee voter. This will entitle you to automatically receive an absentee ballot for each subsequent election through January of the next odd-numbered year. At that time, the county auditor will automatically notify you and permit you to renew your status as an ongoing absentee voter. Contact the county auditor for an application.
